MURAT HALSTEAD predicts that the Cleveland administration will be a failure. A few months ago he predicted that there would be no Cleveland administration.

OVER five thousand fourth-class Postmasters have sent in their resignations to Postmaster General Bissell, evidently embued with the idea that they are no longer wanted in his employ.

ROBERT T. MAXWELL, of New York, will be the next official headsman of the present administration, Mr. Cleveland having appointed him Fourth Assistant Postmaster General the latter part of last week.

Mr. CLEVELAND's weight is about 250 pounds. It is said that he and three members of his cabinet weigh 1,000 pounds. None of them, however, comes up to Governor Hogg, of Texas, who weighs 375.
