Rafting in Clearfield. Rafting is becoming more and more a novelty in Clearfield county as the years go by and every year excursion parties avail themselves the opportunity to go 'through the mountains" on a real timber raft. This growing curosity is not to be wondered at, even when found in native Clearfielders, because the rapid and crooked Susquehanna passes through more wild and more picturesque mountain cenery than almost any other river in the United States. Contrary to a geographical law this wonderful river cleaves the mountains and is set down in the books as the only river of note in the world which bears this distinction. Who the first pilot was who searched out the course and made the first perilous trip with flat or rafts is not known, but it will not be hard to keep watch for the last man who will try it.

Killed on the Railroad. On Sunday morning about one o'clock the remains of an unknown man were found on the railroad track at the east end of the tunnel near Bennington. The body was frightfully cut up, both legs and the right arm being cut off close to the body The head, also, was almost entirely cut off, the chin alone adhering to the neck. The different parts of the body were collected in a box and taken to Altoona. There was nothing about the person of he victim by which he could be identified. He wore chestnut colored tronsers with ead colored underclothing. Near the body was found a paper sack containing some clean shirts. It is believed that he was 30 years of age, and a workingman in search of a situation.
