

The opening of the World's Fair on Sunday will be a great flow to that great and good man, Matthew Stanley Quay.

According to a decision of the directors of the World's Fair, the exposition will be open on Sundays on and after May 21.

Considerable destitution prevails among the people on the eastern coast of Iceland, and starvation is feared if they are not soon relieved.

The Cunard steamship, Campania, has beaten all previous east-bound ocean records by making the trip from Sandy Hook to Queenstown in 5 days, 17 hours and 27 minutes.

Foreign naval officers returning to New York from a visit to the World's Fair, expressed themselves as greatly delighted with the mountain scenery of the Alleghenies.

The failure of the Columbia National bank, of Chicago, has caused the closing of the doors of 27 small banks in Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio, that were branches or under the control of the Columbia.

PAULINE LUTZ, a 16-year-old girl, in Philadelphia pleaded guilty on Thursday last to breaking into three dwellings with intent to steal. She was sent to prison, but will probably be placed in the House of the Good Shepherd.

GEORGE PHILLIPS, a green goods man, was shot in Brooklyn on Saturday night, and probably fatally wounded, by Ed. Hoerner, who went there from Steelton, Pa., for the purpose of buying $1000 worth of counterfeit money.

It is officially stated that the Earl of Aberdeen has been appointed governor general of Canada, in the place of the Earl of Derby, formerly Baron Stanley, of Preston, who is about to retire from the office of governor general to which he was appointed in 1888.

One of the curious features of the New York sub-treasury count is the number of bags which have never been emptied since they left the mint. Most of the silver dollars now being handled have upon their coverings the dust which has accumulated since the last count, four years ago. There has been no call for them, and they have remained in the sub-treasury vaults like ore in a mine.

The House on Thursday took action on the Baker Bill. Mr. Fow offered an amendment providing that a mark must be placed opposite the name of every candidate voted for. The change was supported by Uncle John Cassa, who said it would do away with all confusion, and opposed by Mr. Burdick and others. The solid Democratic strength was cast for the amendment and enough Republicans of the reform element followed the lead of Messrs. Cassa and Lawrence to carry it through by a vote of eighty-one to sixty-seven. The revised bill then passed second reading. It will undoubtedly eventually go to a conference committee, with great uncertainty as to what will be done with it there.

The following are among the bills passed by the State Legislature last week:

An act providing that voters in this commonwealth shall cast their ballot at polling places inside the election district in which they are domiciled, and making it the duty of the courts of quarter sessions of the several counties to carry out the provisions of the same.

An act to regulate and establish the fees to be charged by justices, aldermen, magistrates and constables in this commonwealth.

Authorizing the erection and maintenance of eel weirs and fish baskets in the rivers of the state for the catching of eels for a limited period in each year for a period of four years.

Among the bills approved by the governor are the following: Making it a misdemeanor for any person to represent an unauthorized or fictitious insurance company in this state; the supplement to the act relating to the supervision and control of lunatic hospitals; to authorize the state superintendent of public instruction to grant permanent teachers' certificates to graduates of recognized literary and scientific colleges; to provide for the election, qualification and compensation of auditors in the independent school districts of the state.

Governor Pattison has disapproved of the bill for the printing of the history of Pennsylvania birds and mammals in the quarterly reports of the State Board of Agriculture, and the same has been sustained.

The constitutionality of the Geary Chinese Exclusion and Registration act has been affirmed by the United States Supreme Court, Justices Brewer, Field and Fuller dissenting. It now becomes the duty of the government to deport the Chinese who have not registered. According to the last census there were 107,475 Chinese in the United States. Not more than 5000 are registered. To arrest and return the rest to China would cost an enormous sum, probably not less than $6,000,000. At a discussion of the question in cabinet on Tuesday, it is said, it was decided that nothing can be done until Congress shall appropriate the money. The probability is that Congress will repeal the law, for, as Justice Field very justly on the bench declared, "the law is inhuman and brutal, as well as unconstitutional," it being entirely contrary to the spirit of our government.

The bituminous and anthracite coal regions of Pennsylvania, says the Pittsburg Post, are divided into eight districts, each district being in charge of an inspector selected after competitive examination and commissioned by the governor four years. Their reports for the year 1892 made to the Secretary of Internal Affairs at Harrisburg cover the coal production, as reported to the inspectors by the operators, the condition of the mines and the number of accidents, fatal and otherwise. This last item covers a terrible bill of mortality, and shows at what expense to life and limb the mining operations of the state are conducted. Two anthracite and two bituminous inspectors fail to give the number of accidents in a definite way, but allowing for them we find that last year about 400 miners were killed in anthracite mining and 130 in bituminous, or 530 altogether, with about double this number of persons more or less injured and many of them seriously, being made cripples or helpless for life.

There is a general agreement on the part of the inspectors that the accidents in the mines are largely due to the ignorance or carelessness of the foreign miners employed. Stated in another way, this simply means that discarding experienced and skilled labor in favor of cheaper, ignorant and reckless labor is the cause of a great majority of these accidents. But this does not affect the coal corporations. When a mule is killed the money loss appears on their books, but when human life is sacrificed to greed and indifference it does not figure in the profit and loss account. The number of fatal accidents in the great industries of Pennsylvania is growing year by year, and if the total in the mining, manufacturing and railroad operations could be accurately ascertained, with some pertinent facts as to the number from preventable causes, the basis would be laid for legislation that is demanded in the interest of common humanity. There is a secretiveness about such matters that is suggestive if not suspicious. Over five hundred killed and over one thousand injured in the mines of the State in one year is a terrible record.

The Chinese expulsion act of Congress, just declared constitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States, says the Philadelphia Times, is one of the most disgraceful laws that ever found its way into the statutes of the nation. It is at war with the whole genius of our institutions and is a reproach to the enlightened civilization of the evening of the nineteenth century.

It will do much to teach disrespect for law by the fact that it will not, and can not, be executed. First of all, there is no money to execute it. There are fully 100,000 Chinese residents who are not registered and would cost six millions or more to send them home, as the law commands.

Out in some of the Pacific Coast states, where the hoodlum element controls politics, the law may be partially enforced, but it will be practically a dead letter in three-fourths of the states of the Union. The Chinese are wanted everywhere in service that interferes little with legitimate American labor, and only where the sand-lotters rule will there be systematic efforts to force their deportation.

And now suppose that Chinese retaliation comes, what then? If we drive from our midst the Chinese laborer who has found his way under the severe laws for his exclusion, what complaint could we make against China decreeing to deport every American merchant or missionary trading with or teaching the people of the Flowery Kingdom?

Of course, China is weak as a war power and we could devastate her coast and whip her into submission; but the United States cannot with impunity defy the considerate judgment of the civilized world. There is little likelihood of the early repeal of this disgraceful statute, but it is probable that it will be allowed to stand, like the old fugitive slave laws, as unexecuted because it is an affront to humanity and justice.

The sentiment in favor of pensioning the common plebs and Supreme judges of Pennsylvania, after a certain term of service, says the Pittsburg Post, seems to be confined to the Philadelphia papers. They are very persistent this state shall make a commencement in the direction of a civil pension list, although every one of them stands ready to bear testimony to the evils and abuses that cling to the federal pension system. There is no sentiment in any other part of the state than Philadelphia in favor of judicial pensioning system. It will not meet the approval of the people, and legislators will do well to bear in mind this fact. While the whole country is humiliated and oppressed by the abuses of the federal pension system, it is an unwarranted assumption that in this state we are ready to make a commencement in a civil pension list. There is justification for pensions for military services, but none for pensions for civil services.

SOME newspapers are already beginning to figure out that the World's Fair will not pay. The operating expenses per day is estimated at $45,000. During the first week the paid admissions averaged $16,000 per day. To pay all expenses the daily receipts from admissions must average $82,000. This means an attendance of 164,000 people. Whence is this vast and constant army of sight-seers to come from? Here is a rub and unless the affair is better patronized it will be a failure.

The Act of Assembly passed in another column which prohibits the payment of the expenses of naturalization by political organizations and candidates for office, is a good law and should have been passed long ago. The Act passed both Houses and became a law on Thursday last week when the signature of Governor Pattison was affixed to it.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13, 1893. President Cleveland has this week been able to devote more of his time to important public matters than in any single week since his inauguration, owing to his having stopped the practice of granting personal interviews to applicants for Presidential positions; that it has been just the reverse with members of his cabinet, they have so many callers that they have had to devote almost their entire time to them, and unless there is a "let up" they will be compelled to follow the President's example and decline to receive callers for office. Those who pretend to be shocked at what they are pleased to call the President's innovation have short memories, as he did precisely the same thing in October, 1885. It would be advantageous to applicants for places if members of the cabinet would also refuse to see applicants, for then they would have a chance to look over the papers on file and make recommendations to the President, thus hastening appointments. It is because Republicans know this that they are trying so hard to create a public sentiment in favor of unlimited personal interviews, the longer the better. The papers on file, by callers, the longer the better will be filled by Republicans.

The Weather Bureau investigation has closed and General Colby is now at work on the testimony, upon which his report will be based. What that report will recommend to the President is no means of knowing, but the evidence will certainly justify a general shake-up of the bureau from top to bottom, and it is altogether probable that Secretary Morton will see that it gets it. Nothing absolutely criminal was proven against prominent officials, a state of affairs was shown to exist that calls loudly for a change.

Secretary Herbert has correct and thoroughly Democratic ideas about the relations that should exist between naval officers and the U. S. Government, as his order that no more leaves of absence be granted to naval officers for the purpose of allowing them to enter private employ fully proves. This practice, like many other questionable ones, is of Republican origin, and has grown into a most serious evil. Under it, naval officers who have acquired special knowledge along certain lines after long study at government expense, have secured leaves of absence for one, two, three, four, five, six, seven,
