He worked Towanda, Pa., early in April, Bloomberg April 15th. I have warrants for him. Arrest him and give me name, how, Edward, paid on delivery."

They Got the Oil off the Floor. William and Cora Miller were the owners of a fine country store in Montgomery township. One day one of them spilled some oil on the floor and undertook to burn it off. He succeeded beyond his most sanguine expectations. The fire refused to abate when the oil got to burning and water was thrown on the flames, but only had the effect to make the fire burn more fiercely and the men then devoted their attention to saving the contents of their store; but in this way they were only partially successful and the whole establishment and contents, except one barrel of oil, went up in smoke and flames. Besides the loss of building and goods, fifty dollars in hard cash in the money drawer went with the balance of the property. No insurance.—Indiana Messenger.

Married. CHAPLE-CHAMBERS—Married at Los Angeles, Cal., on April 29th by Elder George W. White, Mr. G. Chapple and Miss Ella Chambers, both of San Bernardino, California.

Mrs. Margaret McCoy, relict of Mr. Peter McCoy, died at her home in Allegheny township, on Monday May 15th, aged 81 years. The remains of the deceased were interred in St. Michael's cemetery at Lorretto on Wednesday, beside those of her husband who died some seven or eight years ago. The deceased was the mother of fifteen children, ten of whom survive her.

On Friday afternoon Mr. Hugh Edwards, of Cambria township, returned to his home after finishing such a six acre field of oats feeling much elated over getting the grain in before the wet weather, which was threatening, setting out to see what time it was, however, he was dismayed to find a handsome gold watch that he had received a present a few years ago missing. He had the time piece when in the field and he was certain it must be there. After searching the field thoroughly he concluded it was covered up and the only way to find it was to harrow the ground again. So he hitched his team to the harrow and went over the field one way without turning up the watch. He then started in to cross harrow the field and when about half through he felt much gratified when the harrow turned up the missing watch, still going and without a scratch upon it.
