Samuel Blatchford Associate Justice of the United States Supreme court has been stricken with paralysis at his cottage on Greenouth place, R. I. It is thought he cannot recover, and his worst. It is understood from reliable authority that he had three light shocks in Washington before leaving, and when he arrived last week it was noticed that he was feeble and that he gave evidence of having suffered from paralytic shocks. It is thought that he can live but a few weeks. No one is allowed to see him.

It is now nearly a week since the special force of 20 examiners was set at work by Commissioners of Pensions Lochren overhauling the papers in all cases of pensions granted under the Disability act of 1890. There have been more than 1000 cases revised, and it is declared that at least 25 per cent of the pensioners who have been benefitted by Order No. 164 will be dropped from the rolls. The figures thus far secured warrant the statement that the pensions of 150,000 persons, granted under this interpretation of the pension law, will either be stopped or reduced.

THE trial of Lizzie Borden at New Fall River, last August, came to an end on Tuesday by a verdict of acquittal. Thus ends one of the most notable murder trials that ever took place in this country. The murders were committed in broad daylight, in a house in a town where people were liable to be passing at any time and notwithstanding Lizzie was suspected by the police from the first, all efforts on;their part to fasten the crime upon her have been futile and the murder, remains enveloped in mystery. When the verdict was rendered a cheer tors and the woman thus declared innocent of the terrible crime, fainted.

Is order to act understandingly with reference to any matter, says the Philadelphia Record, it is necessary to know something about it. Although the silver question is now one of the uppermost topics of discussion in all parts of the country, it is painful to observe how many writers and speakers betray their ignorance of facts. Secretary Carlisle, who is a master of the art of lucid statement, licans in the Buckeye state, who say that in his little silver brief on the operation of the Sherman law, has managed to present an array of figures which make their own argument. South Bend, Indiana,

ARE THE BEST GENERAL PURPOSE PLOWS IN THE WORLD. A strong statement but a true one, for these plows are better known, have reached a larger sale, have had a longer run, have proved more popular and given better satisfaction than any other plows on

We mean the GENUINE OLIVER, and not the imitations claiming to be the Oliver, or equally as good. Such imitations are on the market, placed there by unscrupulous manufacturers who seek to trade on the good name of the OLIVER.

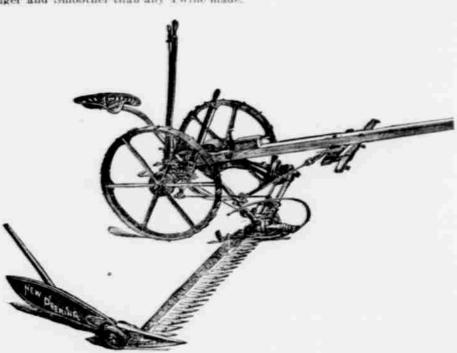

Look out for imitations, buy only the genuine Oliver plows and repairs, and be sure you are right before you take the plow home. Once more-Beware of "bogus" Oliver plows and repairs, and take none but the genuine, made by the OLIVER CHILLED PLOW WORKS, SOUTH BEND, INDIANA.
