MURDER AT CARROLLTOWN!

A SLAVISH MINER KILLED AND AN

OTHER BADLY INJURED. At an early hour on Thursday morning John Kauffman, a Slav, was found lying ear the Brothers' dam in Carroll township, nearly insensible and badly beaten According to his story, he and five other Slavish miners who had been working in the vicinity of Benscreek were implicated n a robbery in that neighborhood and left for the purpose of avoiding arrest. They spent Wednesday and Wednesday night in the vicinity of Carrolltown, and about four o'clock on Thursday morning, when near the Brothers' dam, had an altercation among themselves, when four of them whose names we falled to learn set upor himself and John Clamire, and after beating him until he was insensible, killed Clamire, hid his body and then left. An investigation proved that his story was correct, for after hunting around for some time the body of the murdered man was found lying a short distance below the dam in the gully. A telephone message was sent to Sheriff Shumaker imforming him of the facts, Mejudel, manager of the Defiance base and the sheriff telephoned back to try and ball club, was the victim of an accident find out the direction taken by the murwhich resulted in his death. The Fight for the Wopsy. About a year ago the Altoona and Phili psburg Connecting Railroad Company was incorporated for the pupose of build- 25 Cents, ing a line between Phillipsburg and Janesville, a distance of about twenty miles. Samuel P. Langdon, of Philadelphia, was the promoter of the scheme and president of the company. He owns large and valnable coal lands in the territory traversed by the new road and at the start it was generally believed he was making a bluff | Mohairs, at the Pennsylvania railroad so as to ob tain certain concessions.

Mr. Langdon, as events have proven was in earnest and it is expected that his line will be completed by October next. It will connect with the Beech Creek road at Phillipsburg and with the Altoona. Clearfield & Northern at Janesville, thus establishing a competing line.

Mr. Langdon, in attempting to secure he Altoona, Clearfield & Northern, was brought into a legal contest with James F. Kerr, clerk of the National House of Renresentatives, who claimed the franchise and on Saturday the Blair county courts awarded the franchise to Mr. Langdon. The consequence is that a rival to the Pennsylvania has got an entrance and footbold in Blair county.

N. B .- It may be of interest to you to say we are still deep in the grocery business. It will surprise you to see the way we are selling goods in this department of our mammoth store. Some merchants say "I wonder where they can get goods to sell at those figures, as we can't buy them wholesale at the prices they are retailing for." Here is the the secret: We know where the goods grow-that is why we sell so low. And when you come to town,
