Fashionable Dressmaking Now is the time to subscribe to a first class fashion magazine, which will not only illustrate the current styles, but at the same time, teach how to make them by means of a series of practical lessons, The McDowell Fashion Journals are calculated to fill this need. They are the finest publications of their kind in either Paris or New York, and contain precisely a series of lessons teaching practical dressmaking. Ludies as well as dressmakers, will find a still further advantage in them, for Messrs. A. McDowell & Co. reproduce any of their illustrations (or need, for that matter, any design elipped from any other fashion journal) in the form of made up paper models-with flat patterns besides, exactly representing every detail of the ing to the easiest and simplest method. The most popular of these fashion magazines are "La Mode de Paris," "Paris Album of Fashion," "The French Dressmaker," and "La Mode." The former two a copy. "The French Dressmaker" is 83,00 a year, while "La Mode" costs only $1.50 a year, or 15 cents a copy, and is the best as well as the cheapest fashion for the home. If you are unable to procure any of these magazines at your newsdealer, do not accept any substitute, but apply directly to Messrs. A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th street, New York.
