A dish of peaches is better than a dose of medicine. There seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether or not the fuzz on the skin is injurious, but doctors advise that peaches are first with the summer foods. Seed fruits, particularly strawberries, blackberries and cranberries, are good for the stomach and are nourishing and refreshing; but peaches are a tonic, an aperient, a food and a drink combined, and to put it briefly they are meat and medicine.

Mr. Fred W. Ebel, of Harrisburg, the fish commissioner, has sent notices to the sheriffs of the several counties of the state, requesting them to give their attention to illegal fishing in the streams of the commonwealth. By the notice the sheriff is required to issue a proclamation against illegal fishing. The sheriff is also required to destroy all nets and baskets which have been placed in the fishing streams in defiance of the law by fishermen. The sheriffs and their deputies are instructed to proceed at once, and any interference is punishable with a fifty dollar fine.

Mr. Preston Hall, who is said to have been at one time a prosperous Pittsburg lawyer was found dead in his bedroom at the boarding house of Charles Eicher, in Johnstown, on Tuesday evening about 10 o'clock. Two bullet holes were found in his heart and an empty revolver was found lying on the floor beside his bed. Hall's wife left about two weeks ago, and on her return after a week's absence found that he had disposed of his furniture and on her upbraiding him he threatened to shoot her. A riot occurred in a boarding house conducted by Sclero Solanti, where 75 Italians had congregated to drink beer in the town of Bedford, Blair county, early on Monday morning. Three Italians were shot, one fatally, during a general fight which ensued. A woman, concerning whom a charge of Italian rape was made, was the cause of the fight. Several of the fighters who were put out of the house were injured and badly injured a number of the occupants. The authorities have taken the matter in charge and will bring the rioters to justice.

The editor sat at the beautiful gate, in all his sins and patches; not long did he wonder, not long did he wait, for they gave him a handful of matted; and they tapped a big bell that was answered in well, in the place with the sulphurous crater, and in the next minute he found himself in the fast going down elevator. And they found him straight down in the furnace fifteen feet below the boiler, where he was found in a halo of limestone was seen the old delinquent subscriber. And vainly he tried his emotion to hide—I would that his face I could show you—as he drew a gasp, here is the wood that I love you.

H. L. Horst, of Lock Haven, one of the visiting delegates to the state convention of Knights of the Mystic Chain, found a gold ring while turning over some dirt in the bed of the Conemaugh river at Johnstown on Tuesday of last week near the stone bridge. There are many articles which were found, but none so valuable as the one found by Mr. Horst.

The new White House baby will be known hereafter as "Esther." This old-fashioned name has been selected for the child by the President and Mrs. Cleveland. It is stated the selection of this name had no significance other than the partiality of the parents for Scriptural designations and that it means "a star" and "good fortune."

If celery were eaten freely, it compares with rhubarb from rheumatism would be superfluous. It is a mistaken idea that cold and damp produces the disease, they simply develop it. Cold is the primary and sustaining cause; if celery is eaten largely by an alkaline blood is the result, and where this exists there can be neither rheumatism nor gout. It should be eaten freely.

There is little change in the mining situation the past week with the exception of the lighting of thirty-seven veins at J. L. Mitchell's mine. There seems to be no immediate prospect of work at Mitchell's mine. The other veins are being worked at the rate of about one vein per week.

The lot owned by Lambert & Cross, next to the old Hausman farm, on Bedford street, is a fine lot. The trees seem to be a fine of nut trees. It recently yielded a good crop of pears. The soil in which it stands is very fertile, which may in a measure account for the "good" fruit.

The law passed at the last session of the legislature giving the children of soldiers of the Revolution the privilege of attending the public schools in the districts outside of their own homes is not generally understood and frequent inquiries are received at the department of public instruction for an interpretation of it. Deputy Superintendent Stewart says the law does not give to the children the right to go to the schools of adjoining districts from their own homes the same as to schools in the district in which they reside. He interprets the act to mean that such children must at least have a temporary residence in the district where they attend school. Mr. Stewart says an arrangement made by these children or their parents by which he temporarily resides in the district to which they attend school would entitle them to school privileges therein, but without such an arrangement they cannot claim admission under the terms of the act.
