-The trial of Elder Robert H. Singer, the Disciple Evangelist, at Somerset last week, resulted in a verdict on Friday of guilty of assault and battery but not of atempted rape. The case has excited a great deal of feeling on both sides and was contested by able counsel who were very bitter in their denunciations of their opposing clients. Elder Singer was arrested last winter, charged by a Mrs. Jeffries with having attempted to criminally assault her while in a room alone, whither they had gone to discuss religious subfeets. A motion and reasons for a new trial have been filed by counsel for the defendant. Elder Singer, when a boy and young man, was a resident of Ebensburg. They clinch and a foul is claimed by Newry man's seconds, but was not allowed. The men continue fighting, clinching several times, and the round ends with honors in favor of the DuBois man. The infighting was very fast and furious during the 'atter part of the round.

Fourth round. Both men sparring for an opening. The DaBois man very furious; they clinch, and another foul a ciaimed, which is allowed by the referee, and amid much jeering and hissing by the disappointed spectators, the Newry man was declared the winner on the foul. When the referee gave the fight to the Newry man on the claim of foul, the spectators became very much excited, and sevwas in gold and silver. On Wednesday eral flourished pistols, but officers arrived in time to prevent bloodshed. The honors were in favor of the DuBois man at the end of almost every round, and he would doubtless have won if he had not become over-anxious.

Returning to the scene of the accident they found Miss Halley lying by the side of the road in a delirious condition. She was removed to the house of Mr. Knepper where medical attention was summoned. A report reached here Monday that Miss Halley had apparently expired.

After all efforts to revive her had been made by physicians and had failed, preparations were made for burial. She was laid out and the undertaker was expected to place the body in a casket for shipment to Cumberland. Before he arrived the watchers noticed a twitching of the eyelids and presently she aroused, although still unconscious.
