Mr. C. E. McMillen, of Reade township, has an apple tree that is out in business on one side.
Mr. John Treasler, Esq., one of Elder township's substantial citizens, spent a few hours in town on Monday.

Arthur DeVin, the oldest resident of Jackson township, died at his home in that township on Friday evening, aged 85 years. The deceased is survived by his wife, aged 75 years, and three sons—Frank, of Moravia; James, of Rosedale; and Daniel, of Jackson township.

The publication of the election proclamation in this issue of the FREEMAN has crowded out of our columns the usual amount of reading matter. However, the story of the ticket by the vote portion of our readers will furnish much useful information that will come handy on election day.

The new Catholic church at Patton will be dedicated with impressive ceremonies on Sunday, November 5th. The congregation at that place have a nice little church which is at present served by a priest from Carrolltown who celebrates masses twice a month. They expect to have a resident pastor in the near future.

William Seston, aged 35, residing near Garrett, Somerset county, and who is subject to fits, while out hunting on Monday morning, was arrested while carrying both barrels of his double-barreled shotgun, the contents of which tore through his right side and arm inflicting injuries from which it is believed he cannot recover.

A man whose name has not been learned but who is said to live at the farm where he was shot, died suddenly on Tuesday night. On Wednesday morning the track walker between Cresson and Gallatin found his remains lying along the track. It is said that the dead man was a brakeman on the Pennsylvania road and it is supposed his death by a fall from the train.

Samuel Williamson who was employed in the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's freight department at Altoona, was shot in the head by a bullet while in his room at his boarding house, in that city, on Tuesday morning after breakfast. He was about forty years of age, and has a wife and three children. Dependence upon the loss of his employment is the only cause known for the rash act.

William Kinsel, aged 40 years died at his home at Patton, on Sunday evening, October 26th, at about 7 o'clock in the evening. He had been engaged in a fight during the afternoon. There was a large hole in his head and it is supposed that he was injured in a fall from a ladder while some party was painting the house. He was a native of Pennsylvania and had lived in this place for many years.

Mr. James Gormley, a highly esteemed and respected citizen of Clearfield township, died on Wednesday of last week, aged about 50 years. The deceased had been out getting some wood and returned to the house, complaining of not feeling well, and was in bed for a few minutes after he breathed his last. He leaves to survive him a wife and six children, the youngest of whom is a babe of eight months.

A driver of a vehicle who attempts to pass another on the same road does so at his peril, for if any accident occurs to the man he is passing the rear driver is responsible. This does not mean that the man in advance is not obligated to yield a part of the road when notified by the burden of care rests on the rear driver, who is in a position to see and avoid danger while the other is not. If injury to the leading vehicle results from the attempt to pass, whether on a crowded thoroughfare or on a country road, the rear driver will be held responsible.

A case that is a marvel to the medical fraternity is that of young Michael Gavranic, of Broadhead, who was shot in the head last Wednesday and is still living. The ball entered his brain and is still there. The boy was shot by a man named Billy Hill while the latter was shooting at a target. The ball hit Gavranic in the forehead and passed through his forehead and out at the back of his head. Despite the fact that he is very weak, has been conscious since Sunday and talks sensibly.

In the United States district court in Pittsburg on Friday last, Joseph H. Pringle, of Sumnerhill, charged with having in his possession a mould for a counterfeit dollar, admitted the accusation, but pleaded in mitigation that it belonged to another man. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and E. G. Kerr, Esq., of Johnstown, Pringle's attorney, asked the court to imprison his client in the Cambria county jail, stating that he had been severely wounded recently by the accidental discharge of a gun and needed medical attention.

Some time during Saturday night or Sunday morning thieves broke open five box cars at the Pennsylvania railroad station at Johnstown. The cars were loaded with all kinds of merchandise. One of them was filled with flour in sacks, and it is thought that a number of these were carried away. In one of the cars were found two boxes broken open, but it was not ascertained what the contents had been, not doubt because they contained nothing but loose jars filled with writing fluid. There is no clue as yet to the robbers, nor will it be known what was stolen until the goods are checked off from the bills of lading.

Erwin H. Jackson, time clerk for the mining department of the Cambria Iron company, Johnstown, was arrested on Monday afternoon in the Cambria general office on a charge of fraud, preferred against him by Assistant General Manager H. H. Weaver. At the hearing on Tuesday the defendant was charged with uttering forged checks amounting to $182.10 on the Cambria Iron company and selling them at a discount to parties in Johnstown. After witnesses for the prosecution had been examined the counsel for the defense said they had nothing to offer in rebuttal. The prisoner was asked to give bail in the sum of $100 for his appearance at court, which was furnished by John Thomas becoming his bondsman. Later investigations indicate that the company has lost nearly $500 by Jackson's way of doing business.

Miss Fannie A. Stephens, of Duncannon, Pa., Tuesday of last week, while suffering from typhoid fever and probably delirious, made an attempt on her life by cutting her throat at the home of her uncle, Robert Stephens, of Ironva, near Clearfield, and the injuries received were of a mortal character. There were about seventeen lacerations in the throat and the windpipe was severed. A silver tube was inserted and nourishment supplied through it until the nature of the wounds it was found to be a difficult matter to supply the victim with food. In the opinion of physicians, the wounds in the throat were sufficient to cause death, independently of the fever from which Miss Stephens suffered. She died at 2 o'clock on Sunday morning. She was 23 years of age, and her remains were taken to Duncannon for interment.
