The Republican convention on Monday vas held in the court house and the hold ng of it there brings the following outburst of patriotism from our Republican contemporary, the Herald;

The reason that conventions have no en held in the court house in the past is cause a majority of the county commisoners belonged to the same party that i in power at Washington to-day and is do ing its utmost to make beggars out of our bonest loboring men. The new board o county commissioners is composed of two Republicans and one Democrat, and of course, the majority being Republican that is why the court house is used for holding conventions. This step of the commissioners is one in the right direction taxpayers all over the county The real reason for holding the conven tion in the court house was this: If was held in the opera house it would cos $7.50 for the rent of the room which would purchase the railroad tickets, and ther was the dinners of the delegates which was to come vet. It would look a little cheeky to hand him the bill for the hall missioners allowing the convention to us

As a matter of course, it was not a killing matter. If they allow one party, the must allow another, and it is about as broad as it is long. But the funny thing about it is that everything the Republicans do, from passing the McKinley bill to using the court house to hold a politica convention, is for the benefit of the labor-

Editor Cambria Freeman: Sir:-The school entertainment held in this place on February 22, in honor of Washington's birthday, was a success. The program was arranged appropriately by the teacher, Miss Ada Grimes, and was carried out with exactness, which was patriotic as well as entertaining. The room was very much crowded but good order prevailed throughout the exercises. The house was called to order at 7:30 P. M by the chairman, Miss Jennie Abernethy. An opening address was very ably devered by Prof. Johnston, who along with others remarks, gave a biography of George Washington which was highly appreciated by the audience. A song encheck for $5.00, and in this manner re- titled "Fair as the Morning" was then sung by the school, followed by a recitation by Wrenda Abernethy. Next was an essay by Mr. Nortor, on the "Memory of Washington," followed by one minute talks on various other subjects. Recitations were then recited by the following per sons: Misses. Eva Norton, "Whistling in Heaven;" Stella Smith. "Ghost of the Manor;" Tillie Norton. "Naming the Baby;" Jennie Abernethy, "Sister and I;" that he had borrowed from before he had Agnes Gabriel, "Nobody's Chiid;" Stella returned his borrowings. He is by nature Will, "Mable with her face against the pane," Other recitations were then re cited by Master John McGee and Clay Abernethy, followed by select reading by Miss Ada Grimes and Mrs. Abernethy. A paper was then read by Miss Stella Will, followed by a debate, "Resolved, That a Thief is Worse than a Liar," which after some discussion was decided in favor of the affirmative. A song entitled "Time" Up" was then sung which concluded the evening's entertainment. J. A.

WEST READE TWP., Feb. 24, 1894. Editor Cambria Freeman: Six: - Refore the late election the Demo rats of West Reade township nominated a ticket and Lemuel Troxel, one of our best itizens was nominated for supervisor. Mr. Troxel stands high among his neighbors, and being a man of sound judgment his election was generally conceded. On the day of the election everyone was astonished to find Mr. Troxel's name did not appear on the ticket. What can we do about it? CITIZEN. We have also received a letter from another resident of West Reade township in which, besides informing us that Mr. Troxel's name had been left off as a candidate for supervisor, states that the name of the Republican nominee for constable was left off. Of course by a petition to the court setting forth the facts the election might be set aside, but whether it is worth while to go that trouble is a matter for the people to judge for themselves. There is scarcely an election district in the county that was not served in the same way and we suppose the people will have to put up with it. The blacksmith shop that did the printing says they "made money by it and the commissioners are very well satisfied with the work." What more do the people want? Do they want the earth?-ED. FREEMAN.

An examination of from the poison are scattered all over the north of the county. On Thursday of last week a public sale of personal property of William Holder, of Jenner township, took place. As is the custom on such occasions, a lunch was prepared the day before by the woman who had charge of Holder's effects. Among other articles of food prepared was a lot of beef that was cooked in a copper kettle and stood in the vessel over night. About 250 people attended the sale and most of them partook of the beef. Shortly after eating the meat a large number became violently ill. A rumor is current that at least ten or twelve other residents of Jenner and Quemahoning townships |

cannot possibly recover.
