

The gold coinage at the Philadelphia Mint during the present fiscal year, which ends June 30, will be $80,000,000.

Hundreds of farms in Lincoln and adjoining counties in Nebraska are being deserted by their tenants...

NATIONAL CHAIRMAN W. F. HARRITY got a place for his brother J. F. Harrity, on Monday, the place into which he landed him being that of additional branch examiner for the eastern district, outside of Philadelphia.

STRIKING MINERS Wednesday intercepted, at Trumbull, Ohio, the train upon which Company B of the Seventeenth regiment was being carried from New Lexington to Gloucester...

A KANSAS man has left the Populist party because, he says, "it is run by lawyers without clients, by doctors without patients, by preachers without pulpits, by women without husbands, by farmers without farms, by financiers without finance, by educators without education, by statesmen out of a job."

The printers' statue to Horace Greely was unveiled on Wednesday at Thirty-third street, and Broadway New York, with much ceremony. The exercises attending the unveiling were on an elaborate scale.

The many occasions of late for the employment of federal troops to assist judicial officers in protecting railroad and other properties from organized bodies of lawless men, and the misconception of the real functions of the troops has caused the issue by General Schofield of instructions to army department commanders...

A WASHINGTON dispatch says: Postmaster General Bissel is opposed to the adoption of government telegraphs in connection with the postal service. His views on the subject being requested by the chairman of the house committee on inter-state commerce, to which referred several bills proposing a telegraph system in connection with the postal service...

The Republicans should be the last men to call attention to the condition of the workingmen or place in their platform a plank calling attention to the fact that workingmen have been deprived of an opportunity to earn a livelihood. It is a condition for which the Republicans themselves are primarily responsible...

THE gold coinage at the Philadelphia Mint, rose to a question of information before the Republican state convention, and it should have been just the place in which to get the answer sought for. This miner wanted to know what was the use of a protective duty on coal amounting to 75 cents a ton...

JUDGE BUTLER, says the Philadelphia Ledger, yesterday refused to naturalize a Socialist, for the obvious reason that the man who asked to be made a citizen held political views inimical to the government. The law requires, among other things, that before an alien is naturalized it shall appear to be the satisfaction of the court that he has behaved as a man of good moral character...

Washington Letter. THE Oil City Herald, one of the staunchest of Republican newspapers referring to Quay's recent Republican convention at Harrisburg, makes the following pointed remarks...

Much as we dislike that method of doing business, no man of sense can fail to entertain a kind of sneaking regard for the ingenuity and mechanical genius displayed in arranging the details and providing the candidates for the wonderful harmonious convention at Harrisburg...

The House committee has concluded the taking of testimony in the bribery case, and it is believed that the report will state the belief of the committee to be that Batta attempted to bribe Senators Hunt and Kyle. The committee is now taking testimony concerning the speech of the governor of Saturday night...

Whether Freedom really shrieked when Kossuth fell, a matter about which practical folk have doubts, but no practical working Democrat should have any doubts about throwing up his hat and giving three cheers and a tiger for the Democrats in the house who had the moral courage to support the amendment offered by Representative Enloe...

ATLANTIC CITY, May 28.—Word has just reached here from Egg Harbor City of a sensational elopement. The woman in the case is Miss Josephine Schweiter, the 16-year-old daughter of Joseph Schweiter, one of the best known residents of Egg Harbor City...

THE miners on strike at Cripple Creek, Colorado, have resorted to extreme violence. At the Strong mine, on Friday, they blew up the shaft house with powder, causing a loss of $25,000. This is the most that Republicans or Republican legislation has ever done for workingmen, except they claim greater attention from the fact that they have helped to deprive thousands of Americans of work by permitting and abetting the importation of contract laborers...

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 26, 1894.—President Cleveland on his return to Washington found a radical change for the better in the tariff situation. Senators after his very sensible speech, telling the Republican senators that they no longer had any reasonable excuse for delaying the final vote on the bill, clinched his argument by forcing a test vote on a motion to lay the bill on the table...

THE mines at Woodland, which have continued to work off and on during the suspension, stopped today, the operators agreeing not to start again until the strike is declared off. The coal was mined principally by farmers and day men employed about the mines. The closing down of the Woodland mines will cause the Wallace brick works to suspend throwing a number of men out of employment...

AN American in trouble. LONDON, May 30.—John Hewston, an American, who is registered at the First Avenue hotel as a general, was jostled by three itinerant musicians as he was walking in Gray's Inn road this afternoon. When he protested against this rudeness one of the musicians called him foul names and threatened to strike him with a can of beer...

HUNDREDS PERISH in a flood. CALICUTTA, May 28. Hundreds of people lost their lives in a great deluge at Chankkappur, in the Province of Kulu, yesterday. At the point the Punjab river became dammed by a landslide and formed an immense lake. The whole neighboring country has for some time been in a state of panic, fearing a collapse of the dam...

Lives Lost and Property Destroyed. VANCOUVER, B. C., May 30.—The overflow of the Fraser river is causing great destruction and loss of life. The surrounding valleys have been submerged, houses and outbuildings have been swept away and where, but a few days ago, were fields of growing grain is now a waste of water...

Nearly Buried Alive. COLUMBUS, O., May 25.—Miss Eleanor Marks, aged 22, apparently died Sunday night. Yesterday while the supposed corpse was being borne from the house to the grave a faint tapping attracted the attention of the pall bearers, and when the coffin lids were raised Miss Marks was found to be alive. She was removed to her home and is recovering. Miss Marks reports that she has been a witness of all that passed while the preparations were being made for her burial, but that she was unable to give any sign until the fear of burial roused her into action...
