DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. For Governor, WILLIAM M. SINGERLY, of Philadelphia. For Lieutenant Governor, JOHN S. RILLING, of Erie.

For Auditor General, DAVID F. MAGEE, For Secretary of Internal Affairs, WALTER W. GREENLAND, of Clarion,

For Congress at Large, JOSEPH C. BUCHER, of Union.

DI MOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

For Sheriff, ROBERT H. NIXON, DR. G. W. WAGONER, JOHN RICKETTS, For Poor Director, JAMES FLINN. For Jury Commissioner, ANSELM WEAKLAND,

The Democratic congressional conference of Erie and Crawford counties met at Meadville on Wednesday and decided not to accept Congressman Sibley's de clination of the renomination, but voted to certify him to the secretary of state as the candidate of the Democratic party in the Twenty-sixth district.

THERE are 6,000 cloak and clothing operatives on strike on the east side of New York. It is estimated that 400 shops have closed, and the men declared that if their demands are not acceded to all hands, inj every branch of the trade, in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City, will go out on a sympathy strike.

HON. JOSEPH C. BUCHER, of Lewisburg, on Tuesday filed with the secretary of state, in accordance with the seventh section of the ballot reform act. his withdrawal papers. Mr. Bucher sometime ago announced that he would not accept the Democratic nomination for congress-at-large and this formal withdrawal is the end of his candidacy This leaves two vacancies to be filled by next Tuesday's convention. Chairman Stranahan has not yet received a form al letter of withdrawal from Judge Buch

GENERAL N. P. BANKS died at his home in Waltham, Mass., on Saturday last. The prolonged contest in 1856 which ended in his election as speaker of the national house of representatives first attracted wide-spread attention to him. He was nine times elected to congress and was three times elected governor of Massachusetts. During the last war he served as Major-General of volunteers and at one time commanded the Fifth army corps. He held many other offices of honor in his native state and was universally esteemed for his integrity and worth.

ONE of the curiosities of railroad build ing is the construction of a road running from Ismid, a harbor about sixty miles from Constantinople, to Angora, about 300 miles. The bridges, sleepers, string pieces and telegraph poles, as well as the rails, are of iron, nine-tenths of which is of German manufacture. The bridges are about four to the mile, there being 1,200 of them, the longest having a stretch of 500 feet. In addition to these there are sixteen tunnels, the longest measuring 1,430 feet. This is the only railroad which penetrates the interior of Asiatic Turkey, the Smyrna lines being

An out a writ of prohibition, and Justice Gaynor, of the supreme court, in pass ing on the case last Saturday, said that wants to see, has taken place since the under the common law a dog was not property; that it was not a crime to kill or steal him, adding, however, that the world moves, and that now a dog is property. His master has rights in him. But the dog has rights of his own. He "has from the beginning been the friend and solace of man, and law has only recognized the testimony of human nature, history and poetry in withdrawing him from outlawry."

A TELEGRAM from Washington says the financial stringency seems to be at an end. This is indicated by the increase in receipts, and it affords much gratification to treasury officials. The receipts from customs and internal revenue have been comparatively heavy of late, and have brought the cash balance up beyond the danger point. The gold is regarded by the treasury officials as only applicable to Cambria county. her on the head, knocking her senseof another bond issue out of the question for some time at least.

One prominent Cumberland county capitalist, with very large investments at home and considerable holdings of Iowa land securities, reports not only a general revival of trade and industry in Eastern Pennsylvania but the Iowa farmers have begun to pay off mortgages which he holds, some of which would not fall due for two or three years yet.

The general purport of the business canvass throughout the regions indicased is very encouraging.

In a contested election case before him ludge Lyon, of the Perry county court, recently rendered a decision that is of general interest in the construction of a part of the new election law. Election officers in a certain township, in that county, returned 145 and 146 yotes as polled for tax collector. Two ballots cast for the candidate receiving the 145 votes were marked with a simple single stroke instead of a cross. Those two the act of June 10, 1893, specifically prescribed and required that a voter in designating his choice on the ballot, whether at the top of the party column or in the space opposite the candidate's name, must do so by a cross mark. The act, the Judge declares, on that point is not directory but mandatory. If the voter chooses to disregard the plain mandate of the law, and mark his ballot in some other way, he voluntarily disfranchises himself. The election officers, in refusing to count and return ballots marked in any other manner than than the law clearly prescribes, cannot be accused of improper conduct. A stroke on a ballot gives no indicaion of the intention of the voter, the Judge maintains. The election officers are left in doubt as to whether the voter intended to vote for a candidate on the ballot or a blank ballot. To attempt to count ballots so marked would be mere matter of conjecture and open the door some stores, are used to shelter them by

A little thoughtful reflection will make clear the soundness of this decision. Persons who desire to have their votes counted must mark their ballots with a cross (X) as the law directs.

Record, that was to be prostrated and utterly cast down when sacrilegious hands were laid on the McKinley tariff schedules, doesn't show a tremor. On the contrary, her manufacturers and merchants and transportation companies keep well at the front in the line of resumption and renewed business activity. Instead of getting too much tariff revision Pennsylvania did not get enough. The failure of congress to put iron ore and coal on the free list is a drawback and hinderance to the manufacturing prosperity of the state.

For the past two years it has been linned into the ears of the people night and day that the distressful condition of business affairs that has beclouded he country would be intensified when the wicked tariff reformers should lay their impious hands on protective taxchoice of starvation wages. Women and children were almost afraid to go to sleep at night lest the free trade bogy should break into the house and eat out its substance, leaving nothing but bare

Thousands upon thousands of persons who have been oppressed with an honest dread of tariff reform will awake to a the relief experienced on shaking off a nightmare. From this time forward the movement toward unfettered industrial and commercial activity will be accelerated by fuller knowledge. It will be hailed and anticipated as a process of economic mistakes and delusions.

A FEW days before the new tariff measure became a law, the St. Louis its contrary name, said: "The Republican papers which are predicting that the tariff bill soon to become a law the burning stumps and brush. will extend the existing financial troubles and create some new ones are committing a serious blunder.
