Obituary.

DENNY .- Died at his home in Altoona on Friday evening, November 9th, 1894, at 6 P. M., Michael R. Denny, aged 32 years. Mr. Denny had been ill only a short time and his death was unexpected. His demise was caused by typhoid fever, contracted while nursing his wife, who was suffering from the same disease. The deeased was born in Chest township, this county, July 3, 1862, and was therefore 32 years of age on his last birthday. When he was 2 years of age his parents moved to Altoona, where they lived 12 years and then moved back to Cambria county, returning to Altoona after a few years. Mr. Denny lived with his parents until they moved for a second time back to Altoona when he went to Pittsburg and afterward to Buffalo, N. Y., and eventually returned to Altoona where he has been ever since being employed in the clothing store of D. Gansman. He was married in 1891 to Theresa Bradley, of Gallitzin. Besides his wife and child, he is survived by his parents, Matthew and Mary Denny, and five sisters-Misses Mollie, Annie, Matilda, Stella and Loretto, all of Altoona; and tour brothers-J. B., of Ebensburg; W. C., of Altoona; J. G., a student at Mount St. Mary's Seminary, Cincinnati, O., and Edward I., at home. Mr. Denny was a member of St. John's Catbolic church and his remains were interred in St. John's cemetery on Monday morning after a solemn high mass at 9 o'clock.

EASLY,-Died at the residence of his son, J. C. Easly, Esq., in Carrolltown, on Wednesday, November 14, 1894, Hon. George W. Easly, aged 84 years. As we only learned of the death of Judge Easly just before going to press we are unable to give but a meagre account of his life. He was born on the 24th of August, 1810, and when a young man located in Johnstown, where for many years he followed the business of carpenter and contractor, and as a business man was regarded with the high esteem which is sure to follow the leading of a pure and upright life. He served three terms (5 years each) as an associate judge of this county, was elected several times as poor director, and only retired from the latter office on account of the infirmities of age, which caused him to decline to accept a renomination. At the breaking out of the rebellion he was elected captain of a company that left Johnstown and saw active service at the front. On his return he took up his residence in Johnstown and served several terms as justice of the peace He leaves to survive him two sons-John W., who lives in North Carolina, and James C., of Carrolltown, at whose residence the judge made his home during his last illness. His funeral will take place at Carrolltown on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, his last resting place being St. Benedict's cemetery, be having been a lifelong member of

An Acre for a Map.

The story of the difficulty between Judge White and Landlord Earbart, of the American House, which occurred last Thursday morning has been published all over the country, with many variations. The truth is that Judge White first passed the lie, which the landlord only resented by calling the Judge "another." It goes then that Judge White struck him on the mouth. Mr. Earhart's friends insisted that he should have the Judge arrested, and fined for his pugilistic exhibition, but we understand that the case has been compromised and settled in consideration of an acre of swamp land which Judge White surrenders to the sacacious landlord. There will be no prosecution .- Indiana Democrat.
