

Oh, who does not entertain a friend, Above all other things attend, To speak to us when we are glad, To rejoice with us when we are glad. To mingle with our friends on earth, In joy or sorrow, we or mirth, Is the meaning true of life, We live within the world of strife.

But some people do not care to lend, And know no blessings of a friend, But pass away the time till, As if the world were theirs alone, Their days are done and they must go.

To him who'er mishap attend, And lives this life without a friend, Of all the mishaps we receive, We're better not to be born at all.

DANGEROUS TOYS. Gum balloons and bagpipes that spread contagious diseases.

There are few persons who walk along the streets of London whose attention has not been directed to the exceedingly ingenious toys which are sold by the children.

Our contemporary, The Lancet, has called attention to the possible consequences of buying these toys, which, it says, are presented to a child after having been inflated by questionable breath, and perhaps wet with the moisture of the still more questionable lips of the vender.

OUT OF THE FLAMES. A DEPARTMENT CAPTAIN TALKS ABOUT FIRE ESCAPES. Some Sensible Advice to Women—What to Do When Caught in a Burning Building—It is Well to Know How to Take Care of Yourself at Such a Time.

The question was provoked by seeing a number of blue coated firemen so speeding down a rope suspended from the sixth story of a building. They were testing fire escapes, and their case and conditions are somewhat worthy of study.

Never, no one realizes more than I the horrible feeling of being caught in a trap. Fire seems to demoralize the bravest. Women are just as brave as men.

"What's the best to remember?" "First, how to use the ropes that are placed in hotel rooms and should be in every private residence. They are attached firmly to a link in the window.

Suppose the fire broke out from a window below while the person is coming down—then what? "The only thing is to swing close to the wall until the heat is too intense.

Should the smoke commence to fill the room and you want to crawl to another part of the building, drop on your hands and knees and crawl as close to the floor as possible.

The October brew of homemade beer was the celebrated one in Bucks, and the farmer made it of sufficient strength by means of eight bushels of malt to the hogshead of 54 imperial gallons.

HE'S A FIGHTER FROM WAY BACK. To Land the Mackinaw Trout There Must Be Stout Tackle and No Slack Line.

"If the Mackinaw trout could be fished for with a light rod and tackle, as salmon are," said a New Yorker who had tried the game Lake Michigan fish.

"The title of the salmon as king of game fish would fall at once. The Mackinaw trout is stronger than the salmon of greater average weight, equally tactful and as fierce a fighter as the giant of fresh water fish.

"From time out of mind Mackinaw trout have been fished for in Lake Michigan with a slender, minnow shaped troll, so made that it will whirl rapidly when drawn through the water and fastened to a starting white line.

"There is no mistaking the strike of a Mackinaw trout on the troll, and the instant he has caught a big trout, indeed, some carry revolvers of large caliber, and when the trout is hauled alongside the boat or within safe range they shoot it in the head and put the fight beyond all question.

NAPOLÉONIC STORIES. HIS FATHER WAS A PATRIOT, HIS MOTHER A PEASANT. But the latter was not his stepmother, as he is sometimes called.

Professor W. M. Stone follows as a patriotic in the Transcendental Physical Education. Was Mother of a Large Family.

Of the father and mother of Napoleon, the latter was not his stepmother, as he is sometimes called.

The resources of the Roman Empire they still wrote themselves, were, although their family and empire were large. An only child, Lucius, inherited her father's little fortune.

The resources of the Roman Empire they still wrote themselves, were, although their family and empire were large. An only child, Lucius, inherited her father's little fortune.

Her eldest child, born in 1788, was a daughter, Marie Antoinette, born to the same father, Marie Antoinette, born to the same father.

The poet Whitman was a Quaker and a tender-hearted man. He told this amusing story of his voyage by steamer to Philadelphia.

"My mother," he said, "was a Quaker, but she had a little of the sea in her, she became very sea-sick and took off her new bonnet and went to a chair beside me."

John, I want thee to take me home. "But, mother, we are on the sea. I can't take thee home."

Much improved. My congregation refused to accept of me, but I have succeeded in preparing their minds and hearts for the great day of the Lord.
