The first case on record in Blair county in which the committing magistrate had to pay costs occurred in court last week, It was in the case of Charles Kline who was charged with violating the boarding house act. He was taken before Alderman Smith of Altoona, for a preliminary hearing, and the alderman evidently considered there was no case against the accused, as he permitted him to go free, but still sent the case to court. When the case came for trial Judge Bell directed an acmittal, and said that it would not be right o put the costs on either the defendant or the county at the same time intimating that if the jury saw proper to place the " that only one costs on the alderman he would not diswas seen. Mr. Jones on taking the chair stated that the meeting was for the purpose of nominating a school director in place of C. T. Roberts, who had declined the nemination.

Web Griffith was named, when Mr. Griffith got up and stated that before accepting the nomination he would decline the nomination for council which had been given him on Saturday. Mr. Griffith was then nominated by acclamation,

There being a vacancy on the ticket for council, Edward W. Humphreys nominated Thomas Davis. Some one nominated Sherman Tibbott but that gentleman declined emphatically and nominated Fergus Lloyd, whom the Democrats nominated for the same position. Druggist James at once arose and moved that the nominations close, which was carried. A motion was made and carried to proceed to ballot, when each man went up to the table and made a mark for his candidate. The secretaries made no announcement but the last man voting says the ballot stood 7 for Davis and 5 for Lloyd, when Druggist James glanced over the tally sheet and commenced a little speech in which he said "the proceeding was entirely irreguforgery. He succeeded in passing two lar and he was astonished that the chairman would permit it. cow question, which will not down. How much twist is to be put in the cows' tail and who is to twist it will be the issue in Ebensburg at the coming election. The "Tail Twisters" were anxious to have Mr. Lloyd on both tickets, but the "Anti-Twisters," or those who are opposed to having the drastic twist of the ordinance tion pertaining to the same; also blank | passed last year enforced, have not yet announced their plan of action.

That Captain Davis was nominated for council on the Republican ticket on Wednesday night there is no question. That there was no objection to the voting until everyone had voted and the result known is equally well settled. Whether the people of the town will allow the "Tail $1,200. Twisters" to have their own way will be the main issue at the coming election.

Rev. Mr. Dean, an able and pleasant minister of the gospel, of Reynoldsville, Pa., is conducting an unsuccessful revival in the Baptist church of this place. The meetings are coid and the audiences are small. There have been dissensions in this church for the past five years, and their wranglings have not reflected credit to the community. The reverend gentleman will have to set this church right within itself before he can expect to accomplish any good in this neighborhood.

Farmers throughout this state should use their influence with their representatives in the legislature to secure the passage of the law tending to put down the nefarious "pluck-me" store system. They should do this not only in justice to their fellow men, but because it is an injury to themselves. Miners dare not purchase from the farmer direct, nor from the retail merchant who is conducting a legitimate business. If they did they would be discharged from their present employment and other mining companies would refuse them work. In short, they would be stigmatized as agitators, anarchists, law breakers and tramps too lazy to work. The general merchant not having sale for the produce of the farmer, he is compelled to dispose of it to the proprietor of the rob shops at their own prices in rotten goods. If these stores were rooted out the farmer could sell his produce to the miner direct, or to the independent merchant, and he would be able to command a better price. These fellows should be outlawed and exterminated as effectively as the Jessie James gang was a few years ago. They are too cowardly to go out on the highways and hold people up at the muzzle of a revolver, but confine their robbery to the poor and defenceless, and their weapon is

Of Interest to Constables. A question that is attracting wide attention was presented to Judge Reyburn, of Armstrong county, recently, in the form of a stated case. It relates to the compensation to be allowed constables for attending the polls on election days. Under the old law constables were required to be present only until the closing of the polls, even o'clock in the evening; but the ballot reform act requires them to remain within the voting room while the votes are being counted. In many precincts the in but few election districts do the officers end their duties before 1 or 2 o'clock, A. M. It is for this extra time that increased pay wife, with five children-Richard, of Wil- is asked. Heretofore the county commissioners allowed constables & for their election day work. Several constables last November demanded of the commissioners wants each of his subscribers to have a Bird book and thus tells them how to get to print another lot of Bird books, and we hope every reader of the Journal will see that they get their share. It is a very valuable book; large well bound, and contains a handsome picture and description of every known bird in the state. It will be an elegant book for the library or to lie on the center table, and as it is to be paid for out of the public money every taxpayer is entitled to one of them at least.
