QUAY APPEARS TO BE WINNER.

Both Sides Hold a Caucus and Quay's Roll of Delegates Shows a Majority-The Hall-Compromise Talked Of.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 28.—The auxiously anticipated caucuses of the two factions of the state Republican party have been held, and the results thereof make it appear certain that Senator Quay has a majority of the legally elected delegates. and has therefore won his fight. The Quay cancus determined to hold a separate convention, and unless there is a compromise two conventions will meet The prospect of an exciting battle has attracted to Harrisburg many of the roughest element from the larger cities, and trouble is looked for, although there has been nothing more serious than an occasional fist fight. Aside from the announcement that Quay has a majority of the delegates, and that there will probably be two conventions, the news feature has been the capture of the op erahouse, where the convention was to be held by the anti-Quay people.

A dramatic company was holding forth at the operahouse. Chairman Gilkeson is said to have received information that the Quay people had planned to fill the house with "heelers." who would refuse to leave at the end of the performance, and remain all night, thus gaining posession of the house To circumvent this move, Chairman Gilkeson bought off the theatrical company, and securing the keys from the lessee, placed in the house about 100 policemen, firemen, special officers and other determined men, who arrived from Pittsburg under charge of Superintendent of Police Roger O'Mara of that city. Their meals were sent in to them, and they remained in the house all night.

Today's convention is to select candidates for state treasurer and superior judges. B. J. Haywood of Mercer ounty will probably be chosen for state treasurer, but it is possible that the six judges who were appointed by Governor Hastings, and who it was thought would be unopposed for the nomination, will find themselves cast aside by the Quay people and new men named for their places. Among the dark horses named are Judges Wilhelm of Schuylkill, Davenport of Erie, Stewart of Franklin, Crumrine of Washington and Schaefer of Delaware.

The state committee when it met received from the Quay cancus the request for a separate convention. The request was referred to a sub-committee, who it is understood, will endeavor to arrive at an amicable agreement with the anti-Quay leaders, whereby only one convention may be held.

It is also understood that the Quay people have engaged the hall over the Chestnut Street markethouse, which seats 500 persons, and will hold their convention there if the effort to arrive at an amicable agreement with the anti-Quay people fails.

The anti-Quay teaders are claiming that there were 153 delegates at their caucus, although there was no rolleall, and that the Quay people worked the old trick of answering to the names of delegates who were not present. The anti-Quayites say their forces remain unshaken, and that they had 152 uncontested delegates at their caucus, a majority of seven. The anti-Quay people got together first for their cancus, but their session was a secret and short one, lasting The caucus of the Quay delegates met in the Quay headquarters, and the reporters for the newspapers were adnitted. On motion of Walter Lyon of Pittsburg, Senator Penrose of Philadelphia was made chairman and Senator Kennedy secretary. The roll of delegates was then called and 152 whose seats are uncontested answered to their names. The five contestants from Philadelphia and one from Wyoming county were called and their votes recorded. When the name of Henry R. Shultz of Philadelphia was called United States District Attorney Ingham of Philadelphia stated that he had a telegram frem Mr. Shultz. saying that he had missed the train, but if in Harrisburg be would be with Quay. His name was added, making a total of 159 delegates for Quay, six of whom are contestants, leaving 153, or eight more than the 145 necessary to elect. The list is as follows:

BOSTON'S GREAT GALA DAY. The Knights' Parade Lasted Five Hours

BOSTON, Aug. 28,-All Boston is discussing the greatest gala day the city has ever seen. For more than five hours the principal avenues were occupied by plumed Knights Templar, and hundreds of thousands of spectators obligingly crowded onto the sidewalks to give them room. The day was a fine one, and at no time was the heat great enough to cause much discomfort. There were none too many grand stands to accommodate the immense Gilkeson Crowd Captures Convention | throng that clamored for seats, although almost every foot of available space along the line of march had been covered with platforms and seats. The Knights presented a splendid appearance on parade, and with very few exceptions, completed the entire line of march. As they passed the reviewing stands before Grand Commander Mc Curdy and Governor Greenhalge, and later before Chief Marshal Lawrence and Mayor Curtis, many of them executed intricate military evolutions, which won the admiration of the thousands who witnessed them. These tactics were also introduced by the more proficient commanderies at intervals along the line of march. Great admiration was expressed at the appearance of the California and other western delegations

Last evening was given up by the Knights to general merry-making. There were banquets and receptions galore, and at every headquarters open house was in order. The conclave was fficially opened by exercises in Masonic temple immediately after the close of the parade. Today the serious business of the conclave is in order.

THE SIOUX CITY TRAGEDY.

SIGUX CITY, Ia., Aug. 28.-Startling developments have come to light in connetion with the double tragedy in which Max Noack and Ira Minter, alias Hazel Hammond, lost their lives. THREE STRIKERS SHOT

Where They Quit.

FIRED AMONG HIS ASSAILANTS.

The Strike Leader Will Die of His Wounds. Was a Coxeyite and Participated In the Chicago Riots-Lively Time Occurs at

WAPAKONETA, O., Aug. 28. - The strike here on the waterworks trenches has developed into a tragedy, and three men, Joshua Tiller of Pittsburg, Albert Seifert and Oscar Voorhees of this place, have been shot, Tiller through the bowels, Seifert through the arm and the latter through the hand. Tiller will die. The men went on a strike and declared no one should go to work until their demands were satisfied. Some of them went to work anyway, but were driven

The trustees and the contractor ordered Lewis Vanskiver and another party to fill some trenches and cover some pipe in the Second ward. They began work and a crowd of strikers congregated and commenced beating Vanskiver over the head with clubs and shovel handles, breaking the largest ones by force of the blows. After he had been struck several times he drew a revolver from his pocket and fired into his assailants three times with the above results. Several of the participants have been arrested and the officials are after others.

Vanskiver is a resident of this place and is considered a good, straight fellow, and public sentiment is apparently with him. Other men will be brought in and put to work immediately, and every man connected with the assault is being arrested. Dr. John Nichols has just announced that the ball passed entirely through Tiller's intestines and says he only has a few hours to live. Tiller was apparently the leader of the strike and was with Coxey on his march and in the Chicago riots.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The presi deut has granted a new commission to They Beat a Man Who Worked Matt W. Ransom, United States minister to Mexico. This ends a legal complication, by which Minister Ransom, after several months' service at his post at the City of Mexico, was declared ineligible to fill the office to which he had been appointed prior to the expiration of his term as United States senator. their services in congress. It has been generally understood that Mr. Ransom would be promptly reapinted, and the slight delay which has occurred presumably has been for the purpose of definitely ascertaining that ere was no more legal or other obstacles in the way of renaming Mr. Ransom to the Mexican mission. PITEZEL BOY'S BODY.

It Is Found In a Barn Near Indianapolis.

HOLMES WAS HIS MURDERER.

People Recognize His Face From His Picture as Living With Little Howard at the House Adjoining - The Murderer's Trunk Also at the House.

Indianapolis, Aug. 28.—Indianapolis will claim the right to try H. H. Holmes for murder. This claim will be based upon horrible developments, which include the finding of the charred remains of Howard Pitezel, and evidence which, before any jury in the country, would convict H. H. Holmes of having murdered him and then partially burned his body in a stove. Detectives Geyer of Philadelphia,

Richards of Indianapolis and Inspector Gary of the Fidelity Insurance company, after weeks of fruitless search went to Irvington, a pretty suburb of the city, and the seat of Butler college, and before they had been at work an hour their attention was called by a lo cal real estate dealer to a small vacant cottage situated in the woods at the edge of the town and far removed from any other dwelling. The party went to the house, and a few minutes later the officers found beneath the side porch the missing trunk which was taken from the side door of the Circle House, in this city, Oct. 10, by H. H. Holmes, an which was thought to contain the body of the boy. In a barn connected with the house was a large stove of cylinderical shape, of the same pattern as Holmes bought in Cincinnati. He rented the house under the same alias. The stove had been moved from the house to the stable by the owner of the house after Holmes left. It was at once concluded that the body had been burned in the stove and search began for the remains. Later attention was called to the stovehole where the stovehole had been It was filled with refuse. This was pulled out and the remains of the boy were found. In this pit of refuse hundreds of pieces of charred bones were found. The teeth showed that the body was that of a boy between 8 and 10 years of age, and all the other bones confirmed this. All were charred and pieces of flesh clung to some of them. The skull bones and pelvis added to the same convincing truth.

The body had evidently been burned in a cob fire and in the huge stove in the barn. Howard's overcoat was found at a grocerystore nearby, where Holmes had left it saying the boy would call for it. He never came. Owners of the house recognize Holmes from pictures and several neighbors recognized his
