Exchange of Large U. S. Notes For Small Ones Will Stiffen Interest Rates and Incidentally Stop Gold Withdrawals, State of the Treasury Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18:- Reports to the treasury department show that $250,000 in gold has been withdrawn from the sub-treasury at New York for export, and that $250,000 in gold was deposited by a Rochester (N. Y.) bank, which offsets the withdrawals, leaving the true amount of the reserve at the close of business $95,382,528. Under normal conditions, the treasury gains some gold nearly every day. as banks in all of the sub-treasury cities prefer to exchange for notes any small amounts of gold they may take in over their counters, especially if their coin reserve is in no need of re plenishing. During the last few weeks the aggregate of these deposits has been considerable, the offers of large amounts, however, have not been plentiful, except when accompanied by con-ditions the department could not ac-

At New York $436,000 in large United States notes has been deposited in ex change for small notes to be shipped to a number of points, east, south and west. These exchanges are received with satisfaction at the department, as they reduce the supply of cash, which in time, it is argued, is sure to result it a stiffening of the rates of interest, and incidentally to a cessation of the withdrawals of gold for foreign invest

The talk of an early bond issue has practically died out here, the opinion among officials being that while President Cleveland will protect the national credit, when in danger, by any means within his power, the present situation is not such as to call for any action on his part. Those persons best qualified to speak on the subject say that another bond issue is certainly not within the probabilities.

OFFICIALS ARE CRIMINALS.

Serious Charges Against Californians the National Prison Congress. DENVER, Sept. 18 .- A sensation has been created in the prison congress by a paper on "Politics and crime," written by Amos G. Warner, professor of economics and social science in the Le land Stanford university of California and read by John N. Dryden of Kear

"If the state itself is under the influ ence of criminals," said the doctor boldly plunging into his subject, "how can it hope to reform criminals? Setting a thief to catch a thief was an oldtime doctrine, but the plan of setting a thief to reform a thief has never yet been defended. The representatives of the state with which criminals are most frequently brought into contact are olicemen, police justices, sheriffs. sheriffs' deputies and jailkeepers, only a shade, if at all, better than the criminals themselves. Warden W. E. Hale of San Quentin, Cal., who for six years prior to assuming charge of the prison, had been sheriff of Alameda county, said that he wanted to brand some of the allegations as to corruption in California as

NEW YORK REPUBLICANS

Their Platform Demands Sunday Observance-Morton Endorsed For President. SARATOGA, Sept. 18 .- The state Republican convention closed its session after following very closely the work mapped out by its leaders. It named this ticket for presentation to the people of the state in November next: For secretary of state, John Palmer of Albany; comptroller, James E. Roberts of Erie; state treasurer, A. B. Colvin of Warren; for state engineer, C. W. Adams of Oneida; attorney general, F. E. Hancock of Onondaga; judge of the court of appeals, Celora E. Martin of Broome. The platform demands enforcement of the Sunday liquor law and preservation of the Sabbath. It scores the Democratic administration for what it declares its failure to defend the rights of American citizens

The return of prosperity is declared to have resulted from the election of a Republican congress, giving confidence to the people in the assurance that no further tariff tinkering will be possible. The passage by the Democrats of the income tax is condemned.

Governor Morton's wise and patriotic administration is endorsed, and his candidacy for president formally launched. With everything apparently running smoothly, the leaders were suddenly confronted with the statement made by State Committeeman George Urban, Jr., and Senator Persons, that if the Mahaney delegation from the First district was seated the Erie county delegation would leave the convention, and Mr. Roberts' name would be withdrawn from the convention, thus breaking the seate. When the convention met the committee reported against Mr. Mahaney. It was learned that the vote was 116 against and 15 for, the deciding vote having been cast by Mr. Wheeler of Thus was the catastrophe Utica. averted.

The next nearest approach to a break in the plans came when Warner Miller introduced his resolution for the protection of the American Sabbath and the carrying out of the excise laws. The leaders, who had proclaimed against any excise action, accepted the situation, and the result was that all friction ceased. Action on enlargement of the state committee was tabled, and local Sunday option for counties was also killed.

A special from Lincoln says: The sppreme court has filed its decision in the Smaha fire and police commission case with the clerk of the court. The deeision in substance finds for the new board of fire and police commissioners and declares the act constitutional. Upon the point raised by attorneys for the old board, that Governor Holcomb did not attend the meeting of Churchill and Russel at the time the new board was named the court, holds that the interests of a state or municipality are not to be jeopardized by the action of one party. In conclusion the court finds that Broatch, Vandervoort and Foster, the A. P. A. appointees are the lawfully constituted board of fire and police commissioners of Omaha.

STAR PUGS CAN FIGHT.

A Texas High Court Decides There Is No Law Against It. Dallas, Sept. 18.—The Corbett-Fitzsimmons match will come off in this city. In the test glove contest case before Judge Hurt in the court of criminal appeals he held that there is no law in Texas against prizefights. The court said: "It was I who first suggested to make prizefighting a felony. I wanted the state of Texas to take an advanced ground on the subject which I regarded as the most brutal of acts. But my private opinion has nothing to do with the law. I do not believe that under the provisions of our statues or the well settled rule of construction, this man has violated a law that has been so plainly written, that he is responsible for it, and I shall discharge him. I will give my reasons hereafter in writing." At the closing remark some persons applauded and the court turning to them, sternly said: "I will send you all to jail. They could not, however, be quieted. The courtroom was crowded with law

All of the buildings with the exception of those of the states of Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois and Massachusetts, have been completed, leaving only some small booths in course of erection around the grounds. Nine tenths of the exhibits are in place and when the buildings were thrown open a gorgeous sight was presented. An imposing procession, commanded by Colonel W. L. Kellogg, U. S. A. moved to the grounds at noon from a point in the center of the city, comprising the Washington artillery of New Orleans, the Fifth regiments of regulars, the Sixth regiment of Georgia volunteers, the Third regiment of Georgia volunteers, the Atlanta artil lery and a battalion of cavalry. At the grounds addresses were delivered by President C. A. Collier, Mrs. Joseph Thompson, president of the women's board; Booker T. Washington, colored; Mayor Portor King, Hon. George Brown, representing the governor, and Judge Emery Speer.

Then President Cleveland, in faraway Gray Gables touched the button, which set the vast machinery in motion and the big exposition was formally

A wire had been put in from Buzzard's Bay, the telegraph station for Gray Gables, the home of the president, and another wire has been put in from the auditorium to the machinery building. When the time for touching the button arrived, the wires were cleared and an operator in the auditorium notified another operator at Gray Gables. The wire running into machinery building had been connected with two electric machines attached to the valves on the big Frick engine, which drives the shafting of the machinery, and the valve on the large water pump. As soon as the president closed the electric circuit the valves were opened and steam poured into the engine. As they began to act, the engineers in the
