—Agents of the Pennsylvania Railroad company have secured options on several thousand acres of land along the South Fork branch, in Cambria county, and it is said to be the intention of the company to develop the coal in that territory.

—A law went into effect October 1st which provides heavy fine or imprisonment or both to those who telephone or telegraph or telephone offices who divulge private matters passing over their lines, and persons who wrongfully obtain such matters from these sources are liable to the same penalties.

—The Greensburg Tribune says that on Tuesday last week, while Charles Muhler, of Mt. Pleasant township, was at work in his field, he was suddenly stricken blind, and has since been unable to see a particle. The attending physician has no hopes of his ever regaining his sight. He is aged about sixty years.

—Judgments aggregating $13,000 were entered at Hollidaysburg on Monday against Frank M. Morrow, of Altoona, proprietor of one of the largest dry goods establishments in that city. The principal creditors are the H. B. Clafin company, of New York, and the Altoona Bank. An appeal has been taken.

—One reason why bicycles will not be much cheaper next year than they were this season is because there is a scarcity of tubing. There are only three works in this country that can make bicycle tubing, and the shortage of this material has caused a very early output for the season. The shortage of tubing will therefore prevent any cut in the price of wheels next year.

—During the afternoon trip of the train on the branch on Friday, the front axle of one of the freight cars broke loose and ran down over the embankment near Winteret. The coupling withstood the shock and held the car until the train was stopped. The passengers were taken to Crescon on a passenger train, which was sent to the train, including the passenger car, were left behind.

—Cut Hiram Short.

George Barr, of Handsburg, in Reade township, this county, on last Friday afternoon left home, remarking to his wife that he was going to see his brother-in-law at the coal tipple, a short distance away. In the evening her brother returned from work and on being asked by Mrs. Barr in relation to her husband, it became apparent that he had not gone to the tipple as he had intended. The fact that Mr. Barr had not returned home for some time and had been acting queerly occasionally now dawned upon the wife and she was very much alarmed.

On going to his room she found his empty room, and she immediately notified the neighbors. They were called upon and at once a search was started. Night and day the search was kept up until Saturday evening. In the evening her brother returned from work and on being asked by Mrs. Barr in relation to her husband, it became apparent that he had not gone to the tipple as he had intended. The fact that Mr. Barr had not returned home for some time and had been acting queerly occasionally now dawned upon the wife and she was very much alarmed.

On Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock Hackert Lahey, aged 16 years, son of Mr. Caron Lahey, of Lilly, while playing in Rainey's playing mill, fell against a circular saw which was revolving rapidly. His body was cut through diagonally from the left shoulder to the right leg and death was instantaneous. The grief of the parents when they were apprised of the accident was a most affecting sight. The body was interred in the cemetery at Lilly at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning.

The boy, in company with several companions, while on their way to school, stopped at the steam saw mill across the railroad from the former's home and began playing about the mill, which was in operation. They began working about the circular saw and young Lahey attempted to pull a log from the log carrier, which was pushing it to the saw. Suddenly his foot slipped and ran between the floor and the saw and was cut off. In his excitement and hurry to extricate himself he threw himself directly in front of the saw and was cut in two.

—Fatal Railway.

Mrs. Joseph Croft and her two small children, residing two miles south of Roaring Spring, Blair county, spent Sunday with Mrs. Croft's father—Josiah N. Hite—and in the evening her brother, Howard, started to drive her and the children home in a two-horse rig. When near the outskirts of the town the horses started at a drunken man lying in the road, and became unmanageable, ran away. The buggy was upset and the occupants thrown out. Mrs. Croft, who was subject to heart trouble, received injuries which resulted in death two hours later. The others escaped with a few scratches. Besides her husband and two children, father and the brother above named, Mrs. Croft is survived by two brothers living in Altoona—Sherman A. and Lackey A. Hite.

—Fatal Wreck Near Altoona.

A train of twelve water tanks drawn by engine No. 1302 going south and passenger train No. 404 going north collided in the short distance south of Allegheny Furnace at 6:30 on Wednesday morning.

Brakeman J. G. Woodring, of the water train, and Fireman W. F. Good, of the engine drawing the passenger train, were in a short distance south of Allegheny Furnace, the passenger train, was fatally injured and died on Wednesday night, and several passengers were painfully injured. The wreck was probably due to a confusion of orders on the part of the crew of the water train.

This county has 50 inmates in the Dixon insane asylum.
