Clarke Says the Pugs Can Meet Under No Circumstances.

BRODIE SELECTED AS REFEREE.

Corbett at Hot Springs, but Fitzsimmons is afraid to go there. Governor Clarke refuses to tell how he will proceed to prevent the fight.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 16.—Governor Clarke's determination to stop the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight at any cost has been emphasized by the presence in this city of General Taylor of Forest City, brigadier general of the Arkansas state guard, who is expected to confer with the governor in regard to the strength of the state militia.

Governor Clarke, when questioned by your representative in reference to his consultation with General Taylor, was not disposed to say whether he had confidence in the ability of the state guard to carry out his plans, but said that the militia was a matter of secondary consideration.

"Suppose, Governor Clarke," suggested the reporter, "Corbett and Fitzsimmons should desire to give an exhibition of physical culture at Hot Springs on Oct. 31, in which large, soft gloves should be used, which could also be stopped by military force?"

"Corbett and Fitzsimmons shall not meet in Hot Springs," said Governor Clarke emphatically. "If they ever meet they will fight, and they shall not fight in Arkansas."

When asked if Corbett would be arrested upon his arrival at Hot Springs, Governor Clarke said that a good general never disclosed his plans to the enemy.

Information comes from a private source that the Florida Athletic club is considering a plan by which it hopes to overcome the obstacles placed before them by Governor Clarke.

The scheme is to turn the whole affair over to the Hot Springs Athletic association. That association was incorporated by the state of Arkansas on Sept. 6, 1905.

Under this charter the people interested believe they can conduct a boxing match limited to a specified number of rounds, with soft gloves without violating any state law.

The fight between Austrians and Hungarians. A party of five Hungarians was passing what is known as the "Red House" in the suburbs of Nantucket, when the door opened and John Puzha appeared. The Hungarians made some disparaging remarks at the house, and the Austrians threw a volley of stones at the house, breaking some of the windows.

Then Puzha again opened the door, and the Austrians again threw stones at him, and he fired first one shot and then the other, deliberately, and the Austrians again threw stones. The others ran away screaming. The authorities, warned by the shooting, raised the place and arrested all the residents.

Puzha confessed that he did the shooting but claimed it was in self-defense. He told them to go away, and he and his wife and himself, as well as two of his guests, by the stones. Puzha was justly punished for his crime. The Hungarians' injuries. The affair has caused much blood among the two nationalities in this section and more trouble is feared.

He confessed as to the offense, and also says he ravished and murdered Mrs. Wilcox, of the same locality some time ago.

RIDICULED BY BAYARD.

The United States Hasn't Sent an Ultimatum to Russia.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—United States Ambassador Bayard has been interviewed respecting the report circulated in the United States that he had been instructed by Secretary Olney to submit an ultimatum to Great Britain on the Venezuelan question in the form of a dispatch, the substance of which was said to be that the United States will not discuss the question of the disputed territory in Venezuela unless that nation's right to it is first determined by arbitration.

After reading an article published in a New York newspaper, dated from Washington, Oct. 3, said that the facts in the case seemed to have been evolved in the fertile brain of a scribe, and he was indignant that a scribe should find the material for its web from its own interior.

He ridiculed the statement of an ultimatum having been drawn up by the United States, and said he could not see how it could be drawn up, the fact, however, remains that since the diplomatic break between Great Britain and Venezuela some years ago, the United States has been endeavoring to bring about a friendly settlement of the question, and had tendered its good offices to the belligerents.

Mr. Bayard would say that the matter.

A LAKE FRONT FIGHT.

Railroads Make No Move Over the Settlement.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 16.—The railroad companies made no move whatever in the Lake Front affair. The high officials laugh at the efforts of the city, saying that no damage has been done to their property. They refused, however, to say what they would do if the city asserted ownership of the land in dispute, simply declaring that they would protect the property entrusted to their care.

The city's next step will doubtless be the creation of viaducts over the railway tracks to connect the streets on the water front with those which they are supposed to extend.

The property in dispute is worth millions of dollars and the suits brought by the city against the railroad companies by the city to regain possession have been in the courts for some time.

The city council adopted by a majority of 10 the city's next step will doubtless be the creation of viaducts over the railway tracks to connect the streets on the water front with those which they are supposed to extend.

Between midnight and daybreak the city council authorized the mayor to open up certain streets to the water's edge. In order to head off an attempt by the railroad companies to start the work at once.

The mayor and his cabinet were personally on the ground and directed the work. A large number of streets were opened and graded that have been closed for years. They were opened to the water's edge.

The Lake Shore and Pennsylvania companies are the roads principally interested in the matter.
