THE statement published that Senator Quay is in favor of the nomination of Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, as the Republican candidate for the presidency in 1896 will enable a majority of the Republicans of Pennsylvania to know who they are for. The Camerons for a long time informed them who they were for but now that duty is performed by Quay.

IT is a duty you owe the commonwealth as a citizen and a true man to go the polls on the 5th of November and assert yourself for honest government. Let no excuse keep you away from the polls, and let no petty party boss persuade you that Quay and misrule can give to the people of Pennsylvania a respectable and honest administration of its affairs.

ACCORDING to a letter received at the navy department from the commander of the United states steamship Yantic, the steamship San Francisco left Montvideo on September 16 with more than 1,200 Spaniards enlisted for service in the Spanish army in Cuba. About 100 were deserters from the Spanish service who re-enlisteded to secure pardon, while the others were from Uruguay. Nearly all the volunteers were boys.

THE high-tariff protectionist organs in Philadelphia will certainly not claim that there is a grand army of 40,000 voters in that city who are too poor to pay 50 cents once every two years for the privilege of voting. And yet it is boldly asserted, and has not been denied, that the Republicans have purchased 40,000 tax receipts. The only conclusion that can be arrived at is that it takes 40,000 fraudulent voters to make up Philadelphia's Republican majority. That ought to make honest men think a little before the coming election day.

THE postoffice department at Washington made public a statement last week, showing receipts of the thirty largest postoffices of the United States for the third quarter ended October 1, 1895, and the increase over a corresponing period of 1894. The statement shows this to have been one of the most prosperous three months in the history of the postal service. The total receipts for the quarter were, $7,400,449 an increase of $666,730 over the same quarter of 1894, and an increase of nearly $800,000 over the same quarter of 1893.

IF the last Republican state legislature had not been ridden by corporation bosses the miners of Pennsylvania would have secured the laws which they demanded should be enacted. The company store curse would have then been blotted out of existence and the wage earner, especially in the bituminous region, would be better satisfied with his lot. The votes of the workingmen having elected that legislature because of the promises that had been made by the Republican party. This is a good year in which to rebuke the Republican party for having betrayed the workingmen.

THE supreme court of Pennsylvania, sitting in Pittsburg, handed down by Mr. Justice Dean, last Thursday, its decision on the appeal from the opinion of Judge Simonton, of Dauphin county declaring the restrictive clause of the act creating the superior court unconstitutional. The supreme court decides that Judge Simonton is wrong; that the law is constitutional, in line with the intent of the legislature and those who framed the constitution. Therefore, the voter is permitted to vote for only six candidates for judges of the superior court, although seven are to be elected. We may add that this style of voting has been in practice for many years, as everybody knows, in the case of inspectors of election, county commissioners and jury commissioners.

THE Harrisburg correspondent of the Philadelphia Sunday World, a well-known Republican organ, boldly asserts that Mr. Quay's declaration for reform in political and legislative methods is a game of bluff. He says: "There is not a man in politics in Pennsylvania that doesn't know that Boss Quay never has made a campaign, national or state, except on a cash basis. There never was a leader who depended, as Quay does, upon reaching the desired end through the corrupting influence of cash." He also says that, "each and every Republican state employe can be made a witness to the fact that Quay has levied an assessment," and he further says, "from the highest to the lowest they are now paying their annual assessment of 3 per centum to the state committee, the only exceptions being the laborers in Capitol Park, who receive one dollar and a half a day." So much for Mr. Quay's little "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" act.

THE following is the platform in full adopted the Democratic state convenat Williamsport. Every voter should read it and then cast his vote for the Democratic nominees.

First. The Democratic party, in State Convention assembled, hereby renews its allegiance to and declares its faith in the principles of Democracy as formulated by Jefferson and illustrated by Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Cleveland. It congratulates the American people upon the first fruits of the Democratic administration, which inherited from its Republican predecessor a bankrupt Treasury and unwise financial legislation, impaired public credit and widespread disaster, and which, under the sagacious, courageous and patriotic leadership of its great President, Grover Cleveland, led the people out of the slough of despondency to the high ground of substantial and increasing prosperity.

We challenge the fairness of our countrymen and ask that the Democratic party now receive the benefit of that renewed prosperity whose welcome note is heard on every side.

Second. The enactment of the Sherman silver-purchasing act and the McKinley tariff law found, as accurately predicted by Mr. Cleveland, their results in bankrupt railroads, closed factories, ruined farms, abandoned fields, impaired national credit and general disaster. The repeal of such iniquitous legislation and the substitution of more moderate tariff laws have found their immediate results in the resumption of business and the restoration of the national credit.

Third. As vindicating the principles of tariff reform, to which the Democracy is unalterably pledged, we challenge especial attention to the fact that such prosperity and the consequent material increase of wages has been most pronounced in the industries whose existence our opponents claimed were dependent upon high tariff duties. The gloomy prediction that the iron and steel industries of Pennsylvania would be destroyed by a reduced tariff has been contradicted by their present unexampled prosperity.

Fourth. We invite the attention of the wage earners to the fact that the present voluntary increase of wages of those employed in the manufacturing industries, amounting to not less than $250,000,000, was absolutely unknown under the McKinley tariff act. To prevent the reactionary legislation threatened by the Republican party of Pennsylvania in their recent State Convention, which would again depress business by destroying faith in the stability of present conditions, we invite our fellow-countrymen throughout the land, irrespective of party, to so act together as to insure, by the election of a Democratic President in 1896, the maintenance of the present prosperity.

Fifth. We especially reaffirm so much of the platform of the last Democratic National Convention as calls for the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country; but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted by international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the payment of debts. We believe that such parity could not be maintained by the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and we are, therefore, opposed to any legislation looking to that end.

Sixth. We arraign and condemn the present administration, both in the executive and legislative branches of the government, for its refusal to reapportion the State, in accordance with the mandates of the Constitution; for its prodigate waste of public money; for its creation of private awards and useless public offices; for its degradation of the public service in factional contests; for its unnecessary increase of official salaries to the detriment of many deserving charities of the State; for its legislation favorable to the interests of corporations and monopolies.

Seventh. We challenge comparison between this State administration, which has been so faithless to its pledges, and the wise, economical and honest administration of Robert E. Pattison, which in the stainless purity of its record silenced partisan malignity and justly merited and received the almost universal approbation of the people of this Commonwealth.

Eighth. We especially invite the sober consideration of the people of this State to the remarkable factional struggle in the Republican party, a struggle which involved no principle of public policy, but simply the supremacy of contending factional leaders. The worst arraignment at our hands of Republican misrule falls short of what representative Republican newspapers and leaders testified of each other. The admitted prostitution of the public service, the location of corporate influences, the misuse of Judicial appointments and consequent prostitution of the Judiciary, the corrupt use of money in the purchase of delegates, the attempted terrorism at Harrisburg by men of the most abandoned type, fix the high water mark of political debauchery. It but needed to complete its infamy the transparent hypocrisy which led a convention, thus constituted, to adopt "with hesitancy" resolutions condemning the very methods by which its delegates had been selected. Such condemnation of "The growing use of money in politics; the corporate control of the Legislature, municipal Councils, political primaries and elections; the disinvestment of public officers and employes; favoritism in granting contracts and the granting of exclusive franchises to public necessities," while valuable as evidencing the truth of the accusations of the Democratic party in the last quarter of a century, yet coming from the very source which is responsible for these evils, constitutes the crowning insult to the intelligence of a forbearing and long-suffering people

THE most amusing statement in relation to the loose management of the state treasury that has been made in this campaign appeared in Quay's especial champion, the Philadelphia Inquirer, the other day. This paper asserts that anything Treasurer Jackson might say will be believed everywhere, and then goes on to defend the present system of farming out the public funds to favorite banks—that unless this practice was followed some of the banks would be wrecked and the people who deposited in them would be great losers. If this were a fact the people should have no confidence in our present national banking system.

The people place their money in banks for accommodation, but more especially for safety, and no national bank is expected or allowed to depend on a possible state deposit through the favoritism of the state funds. The Inquirer further says, "that some of the banks have come to consider the state money as their working capital." If that is so, for what do we have national bank examiners? If the handsome dividends of a few favorite banks in Pennsylvania depend on the pleasure of a Republican state treasurer and the public funds, those banks are not honest or square to their hundreds of depositors, and the sooner they close their doors the better it will be for the people who have any money to deposit; and, likewise, the sooner we have an honest man like Benjamin F. Meyers in the state treasury the better it will be for the taxpayers.

THE editor of the Bellefonte Watchman, scores a good point in the following: Talk about Democratic treatment of old soldiers. Why there are more people on the pension rolls to-day than ever before in the history of the country; the vast majority of old soldiers in Center county who have held public office have done so through the medium of the Democratic party. The very head of the Republican party in this state to day, Governor Hastings, is the man, who, not six months ago vetoed the bill to give old soldiers the preference in the disposition of offices at Harrisburg and yet they cry about Democratic unfriendliness for the old soldiers. Why the Democratic party is the only friend they have.

WE cannot say that the legislative investigation committee, appointed at the last session of the legislature, will not get to work before election day, but every man with an atom of common sense knows that the Republicans will take good care that no startling disclosures are forthcoming until after the battle has been fought and won on November 5.

Washington Letter.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18th, 1895.—Carry the good news to Dixie. Mrs Cleveland and the ladies of the cabinet will probably accompany President Cleveland and his entire cabinet when they leave Washington for the Atlantic exposition, next Monday. Mrs Cleveland did not intend to go, but when she learned how disappointed the thousands who had never seen her but hoped to do so at the exposition and en route would be if she did not she, with her usual good nature and obliging disposition, has been almost persuaded to change her mind and go.

President Cleveland and all the members of his cabinet met for the first time in several months at the regular cabinet meeting this week. The meeting was more in the nature of a friendly social gathering than one of business, although there was some exchange of opinions and informal discussion of important matters bearing upon the coming session of congress.

Sympathy for the Cuban revolutionists is a perfectly natural feeling in the hearts of Americans, but the zeal of an enterprising newspaper publisher of Washington, in pursuit of popular free advertising for his property, has caused a number of more or less prominent business men to allow their sympathy to run away with their good judgment and to join in a public call for a mass meeting to be held in Washington for the purpose of publicly expressing sympathy for the revolutionists. The meeting will be held, and the resolutions of sympathy adopted; but under existing circumstances it is an ill-advised affair, implying an entirely unnecessary and uncalled for lack of confidence in the administration to deal properly with the Cuban affair. The aforesaid enterprising publisher has been seconded in this scheme by Republicans, who hope there by to embarrass the administration, President Cleveland is probably as fully conversant with the present status of affairs in Cuba as any man in the United States and holding meetings in Washington or elsewhere, will neither delay nor expedite matters. He will do his duty regardless of his own or the sympathy of others.

Assistant attorney general for the post office department Thomas—he's a clever fellow, a good lawyer and a good Democrat, notwithstanding that long title—in his annual report to Postmaster General Wilson leaves no doubt of his opinion of those business concerns which adopt lottery methods to attract customers. After giving the number of lotteries which have been shut out of the mails by the anti lottery law, which he declares has sounded the death knell of lotteries in this country. Mr. Thomas in his report says: "But many business men think they must, in order to succeed, resort to schemes that appeal to the gambling spirit of the people, and they accordingly sugar-coat their legitimate enterprises with lottery advertisements. These fascinating and apparently innocent schemes reach the boys and girls of the land and tend to make them gamblers." The rebuke is sharp, but no thoughtful newspaper reader can deny that it is deserved, nor that it is needed by some business concerns.

Mr. Harrison's managers are losing their shrewdness, if they approve of or are responsible for a political fairy story that was circulated in Washington this week. Talk about a thing making a horse laugh, if such a thing were possible this story would do it. The preface to the story sets out that it was Tom Platt and his wicked anti Harrison associates, and not the immaculate Benjamin, who stabbed Morton in the back at the Minneapolis conventaon of '92 and gave the vice presidential nomination to Whitelaw Reid. And as if that were not a sufficient perverson of facts for a single story, it proceeds to tell that Mr. Harrison doesn't want next year's nomination to go to Reed, McKinley or Allison, but to his bosom friend and one-time running mate, Governor Morton. Governor Morton has not proved himself to be as good a politician as he is a business man, but nobody in Washington believes that he can be fooled by any such story as this. He knows that Mr. Harrsion was in telegraphic communication with the men who controlled the Minneapolis convention, and that one word from him to John C. New would have prevented the Whitelaw Reid deal being carried out. He also knows that the friendship now so publicly proferred is but the Judas-like precursor of another stab in the back, if the opportunity to administer it occurs.

A great many cock and bull stories are being told concerning bargains made by the Democratic senators with the Republican senators for a reorganization of the senate and a division of the committee chairmanships etc. No such bargain has been made. Just before the last session of congress closed there was an informal talk about some arrangement. but it was not participated in by more than half a dozen senators and they had no authority from their colleagues to make any bargain. I do not say that some such arrangement may not be made, but I do say that it cannot be made by two or three senators. M.

Turkey's Promised Reforms.

Constantinople, October 22.—Official communication embodying the Armenian reforms has been made public through the Turkish press. It is carefully worded, in order to show that the reforms are in perfect harmony with the existing laws so as to avoid exciting the Turks. In addition to the reforms already known to have been approved by the sultan the communication says that the inhabitants will be protected by troops when they visit the mountain pastures, and that they will thus be able to obey the law which provides that they are not to carry arms. The nomadic tribes will be settled upon lands which will be granted to them by the government.

Baby Killed by Drinking Whisky.

Marlboro, Mass., October 2.—The report of Medical Examiner Adams on the death of a 2-year-old-child, the son of Patrick Connolly, shows that the child died from drinking whisky. The investigation reveals a horrible case of depravity. Is seems that Connolly came home in an intoxicated condition with an eight ounce flask of whisky in his pocket. The whisky he gave to his wife, who, after drinking, passed it to the children. The elder boy, not caring for the the liquor, gave it to his baby brother, who drained the bottle. The little fellow sank into a stupor and died soon after.

The Vice President at Atlanta.

Atlanta, October 19.—Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson, accompanied by his wife and daughter and Miss Ewing, reached here yesterday and went directly to the Kimball, where a suite of rooms had been reserved for them. Mr. Stevenson will leave here on Monday, the day before the arrival of the president. Efforts are being made to induce him to remain over as one of the guests of honor on president's day, but he announces that an important business engagement will prevent his doing so.

A Couple Confesses Murder.

Toledo, O., October 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Enos Larkins, who are held in jail at Monroe, Mich., for the murder of Mrs Merrill, have confessed their crime. Larkins, in his terror, has startled the authorities by alleging that his wife and several relatives have been guilty of murder.

Mrs. Larkins maintains that Larkin choked Mrs. Merrill to death. She standing by and witnessing the deed Larkins declares that Mrs. Larkins beat the old lady's head with a stick until she was dead. After the victim's death Mrs. Larkins insisted on cremation and carried her point. A brush heap was hastily built and her body was partially consumed.

Larkins then told the story of his wife's past life, intimating that she was the cause of the untimely death of two illegitimate children. He also declared that she told him her sister, Mrs. Simpson had made way with her husband. He said that he had heard that Mrs. Larkin's brother, who last spring murdered his sweetheart and then committed suicide, had previously "put away" a former lover.

Seemed to Die Twice.

Norristown, Pa., October 17.—Apparently two deaths were suffered by the little son of Harry Granfield and his wife, No. 755 Chain street, West Norristown. The little fellow seemed to have expired at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

As the case was one in which the board of health requires prompt burial, an undertaker was immediately summoned and the body was prepared for burial. Interment was to be made this forenoon. About 9 o'clock in the evening the distracted parents decided to take a look at the face of the supposed dead child.

Their grief was turned to joy by the discovery of signs of life. The physician was called, and the child was revived, and there were strong hopes for recovery. At 3 o'clock this morning a change occurred suddenly, and death resulted finally.

Insane From Torture.

Uniontown, October 20.—Miss Mollie Ross, the victim of the outrages of robbers, has been declared to be insane and will be removed to a hospital. Miss Ross is seventy one years old, and lived by herself, in a lonely place. She was reported to have a large sum of money in her possession and became a mark for the notorious gang which ravaged this country for years.

One night the robbers broke into her house and made a search for her money, but were unsuccessful in finding any. They began to torture her to force her to reveal the hidden treasure. She stoutly disputed their right to the money, and the robbers carried her to an open grate and held her feet in the burning coals She was tortured in this manner for some time, but the robbers did not get the money. Miss Ross never recovered from the effects ot this cruel treatment.

Senate Investigation.

Philadelphia, October 21.—The senatorial committee to investigate Philadelphia met to night and agreed upon Monday, November 11, to begin its investigation. This decision was reached following a lengthy conference with officials and attorneys of the Citizens Municipal association for the $20,000, which it has pleged for the expenses of the senatorial investigating committee. an appeal is issued for contributions from citizens to whom are addressed circulars dated October 15.

Chairman Andrews, of the senate investigating committee, went to New York to-day, it is stated, to consult Recorder Goff on how to go about the investigation, as he sometime ago, volunteered to give the committee all the assistance in his power.

Shot by a Black Lover.

Brooklyn, October 21.—Because a white woman of whom he had become enamored refused to reciprocate his passion, James T. Smith, a negro, yesterday shot her and then blew out his brains. Smith diad instantly. Mary Short, the woman whom he shot, is still alive, and the surgeons at the Long island hospital, to which she was taken, said that there was hope that she would recover. Her age is 27, and she has been employed as the janitress of the Wallace building in Pine street, New York city, where Smith was engineer. Smith visited the Short woman at her home, and proposed marriage to her. The proposition made her angry, and she ordered Smith to leave the house. The tragedy followed.

Outside Aid Saved the Town.

Scranton, Pa., October 21.—A disastrous fire occurred early yesterday morning at Foster, a village on the Lackawanna road, twenty miles north of here The flames originated from the explosion of a lamp in I. W. Tiffany's store, and consumed three stores, two dwellings, two barns and the Methodist church. A high wind wasb lowing, and the residents were almost powerless to check the flames, as the town has no fire department. A telegram was sent to Halstead, fifteen miles up the road, and a steamer and hose cart from that town were sent by a special engine to Foster. The run was made in fifteen minutes, and the destruction of the greater portion of the village averted.

Millionaire Mackey's Son Killed.

Paris, October 21.—John W. Mackay, Jr., the elder of the two sons of John W. Mackay, the bonanza king, 24 years old, was killed last Friday by being thrown from his horse. He was dragged a great distance before those who witnessed the accident and went to the rescue could stop the pony. The head of the young man was battered to such an extent as to render the face unrecognizable. The accident happened in the afternoon and the young man died six hours later without recovering consciousness.

A Heavy Forger's Flight.

Memphis, October 19.—A. K. Ward, the absconding treasurer and manager of the Memphis Barrel and Heading company, left here with his wife on the south bound Illinois Central train Tuesday afternoon, and it is thought he took passage for Honduras on the steamer Breakwater, which left New Orleans on Thursday. It is now thought that Ward's operations in forged paper will exceed $200,000. All of the paper was negotiated here.

When the sentence was pronounced Schug fell to the floor and had to be carried from the court room.

A Storm at Sea

Increase the discomfort of the voyager. But even when the weather is not tempestuous he is liable to sea sickness. They who traverse the "gigantic wetness" should be provided with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which quiets disordered stomachs with gratifying speed and certainty. To the hurtful influence of a tropic, malarious or too ricorous or damp climate, as well as to the baneful effects of unwholesome diet and bad water, it a reliable antidote. Commercial travelers by sea or land, mariners, miners, western pioneers and all who have to encounter the vicissitudes of climate and temperature, concur in pronouncing it the best safeguard. It prevents rheumatism and pulmonary attacks in consequence of damp and cold, and it is an efficient defense against all forms or malaria. It can be depended upon in dyspepsia, liver and kidney trouble.
