Cambria County's Four Hundred.

On Monday Judge Barker handed down is decision in the case in which the amount of the salary to which the commissioners of Cambria county are entitled o is in dispute. The case was argued several months ago and originated from the fact that Commissioner Wertz claimed that the salary of a commissioner of Cambria county was $400 per year, the amount fixed by a special Act for Cambria county passed by the lagislature in 1872, while Commissioners dge Barker in the disposal of the court | Lloyd and Dillon claimed compensation at | the rate of $3.50 per day in accordance 5 per cent, will be added on all unpaid | with a general law passed by the legislaough and school taxes, in the borough ; sure in 1889. Mr. Wertz appealed from the last auditors' report, which allowed Mr. Lloyd $081.50 and Mr. Dillon $58.50 eet schools in Johnstown, has resigned. | more than $400 for the year 1894.

Judge Barker in his opinion settles the salary at $400, according to the terms of the special Act of 1872, without regard to the number of days the commissioners were engaged in their office in pursuance of their cuties as commissioners.

It is said that Messrs. Lloyd and Dillon will appeal the case to the Supreme Court. The case decided related only to the salaries for the year 1894 and should the decision be affirmed there will, in all probabillity, be an effort to recover the amounts this place on Tuesday evening and on overpaid for a number of years past-that > Rates to Washington, D. C. Apart from the fact that Washington is one of the most interesting cities in the world, it seems almost as if one were neglecting the principal duty of citizenship by failing to visit the Nation's Capital. More apparent does this become when taking into consideration the small expense attached to such a trip, and the ease and omfort with which it can be made by paricipating in the Pennsylvania Railroad's special ten-day excursion leaving Pittsburg December 26, 1895. Homestead, Pa., Dec. 7, 1895. ED FREEMAN: - Among the many recenteaths in this place caused by that dread isease diphtheria, we are very sorry to te that of little May Plunkett, second lest daughter of Thomas and Alice innelhill, who died on Friday afternoon after an illness of three days, aged four years and five mouths. Her aunt, Sister M. Agatha, of Tenth avenue, feels keenly her sudden death, also not being able to sit her during her illness on account of a sility of carrying some of the germs of the disease to the pupils of her class. Her fond parents and grandma are inconplable at the loss of their darling. ves and friends of the bereaved showed their sympathy in every possible manner, especially in the way of beautiful culled flowers—fit emblems of her death. "A lower in life; a flower in death; a flower in Heaven" we trust. The three entwined around our hearts makes death less hard to ear , and if we had choice to-day to call her back to earth we fain would not, for we know full well that she is in her heavenly home where "moth nor rust consumeth

Obituary.

GILLESPIE. - Died at the residence of her son-in-law, Alex, Brawley, in Barr township, on Thursday, December 5, 1895, Mrs. Catharine Gillespie, aged 82 years, 11 months and 24 days.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Rice, was born in county Cork, Ireland, on with her parents in 1815, the family locating in Washington, D. C., where the father, who was a marb'e cutter, worked on the Capitol. In 1830 she was married to Patrick Gillespie and soon after they removed to Harmon's Bottom, Bedford county, Pa. In 1838 they came to Cambria county, where they settled in the woods, cleared out the farm and built the home where she died. Her husband preceded her to the grave many years ago. She was the mother of seven children, three of whom are dead, two of them being soldiers in the late war-Edward took sick in the army and came home and died, and John died in Libby prison. The living are Putrick and Francis, of Strongstown, Indiana county; Mark, of Altouna, and Mary, wife of Alexander Brawley, of Barr township. She is also survived by one brother who resides at the Soldiers' Home, Dayton, O., and by 26 grandchildren and 16 greatgrandchildren. The deceased was a zealous Christian, loved and respected by all. Her remains were interred in St. Benedict's cemetery in Carrolltown. May she rest in deceased, aged 40 years. For more than a year and a half the subject of this notice has been in failing health, most of the time suffering intense pain. His heroic endurance and patient submission to the Divine Will were edifying in the extreme. Of his high character and many virtues it is needless so speak They were known to all, and his friends were all who knew him. He received with great plety all the consolations of religion, and his bereaved wife, who nursed him with such untiring devotion, and who has the sympathy of the whole community in her great sorrow, his devoted mother and other relatives have reason to hope that he was well prepared for the final summons. Of his own immediate family, his mother, now Mrs. John McDermitt; hissister, Mrs James Sutton, of Clearfield town-Mines, survive. His only child, an idolized boy of four, was buried some years ago. May be rest in peace.

Tenderly here let us lay him to rest; He who taken him knows what is best. Why should we utter a word of complain When we can hope that he died as a saint Still in our prayers let us offer his name, Who can appear before God without blame? Be the lone wife by this hope reconciled, Heaven will give back her husband and child.

very day without one particle of pain? Well, we are doing this very thing with "Odontunder," the only local anæsthetic that has stood the test and to-day it is the only one that is used universally by den-tists who are up to date in their calling. The price for "Odontunder" when painess is 50 cents, but if you experience the least pain, we only charge you the usual price, 25 cents. How about those teeth that need filling: Well, you say they don't ache. That's just the reason why you should have them filled now. After they have ached once you will probably have to have the nerve killed and the tooth treated if you are de-sirious of saving it. I only charge 50 cents for amalgum fillings and from $1.00 up for gold fillings. These are hard-time prices but they go just the same. Why procras-tinate?—that's a big word but it's a good buy Clothing is at one right here because procrastination means to the patient loss of sleep, neural-gla, ear-ache, tooth-ache and goodness knows what else. We know of a good many young ladies of our acquaintance who would have been married long ago if it hadn't been for those horrid-looking teeth. Remember, to every patient naving teeth filled I give a box of Dr. Richards' tooth powder and full instructions for the care of the teeth. On the 13th of each month I will extract teeth free of charge. You say why on the 13th. Well, now, that's my business. All you have to do is to come. Remember I won't take out your good teetb, because I don't believe in it.
