CLARA BARTON'S ACTS

Displeasing, So the Turkish Minister Says.

SCORED THE TURKS IN PUBLIC.

Then the Offer of Aid to the Armenians, Who Are In Rebellion Against the Turkish Government, Is Wrong—Other Arguments Advanced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The Turkish minister said, when asked about the following statement: "The Red Cross society has decided not to pay any attention to the communication until it is officially transmitted to it by the Turkish government or the Turkish minister."

"The Red Cross society has never communicated with this legation. It has only communicated, to my knowledge, with the press and the public, its president, Miss Clara Barton, assisting, without protest, at public meetings, where the most gross and unjust abuse was made of the Turkish government, religion and race. As the Red Cross, or any of its representatives, never visited this legation, it is clear and logical that this legation has nothing to communicate to said society. This legation sent its communication to the press, because it is the public that the Red Cross took in its confidence. But, naturally, I will always be ready and pleased to give to the Red Cross society any explanation it may think it proper to ask for.

"This whole question," added the minister, "is a question of right. Suppose, for one moment, that your own Indians were to revolt against your legitimate authority. Suppose that you put down their revolt and suppose that in some foreign country some foreigners were to calumniate publicly your civilization, your race and your religion. Not satisfied with that, suppose that these foreigners, on the strength of such false accusations, were to raise money and bring it for distribution, through their own channels, however respectable the latter may be, to the very people that revolted against your government. Would that money, raised on hatred and denunciation, would even a moral aid from foreigners, be welcomed to this great country of yours, however welcome it might be, for obvious reasons, to your Indians? As you see, this whole question is a very clear one. But, I wish you at the same time to understand that, even today, notwithstanding the contrary assurances of interested parties, the Turkish government has no authority whatever against the Armenians and only wishes to see them prosper under its legitimate and rightful authority.

A New York special says: The national Armenian relief committee, 59 Wall street, has issued a statement asking for contributions, saying the aid, as heretofore, will be distributed through foreign consuls.

A London special says Sir Phillip Currie, the British ambassador to Constantinople, has reported to the Marquis of Salisbury that 13 local committees to distribute relief in Armenia have been established under consular officers and American missionaries.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The bond silver bill was further considered in the senate, but without appreciable approach to a conclusion of the debate. Mr. Butler of North Carolina spoke for two hours in opposition to bond issues and in favor of silver legislation. The early hours of the session brought out an extended controversy over pension discriminations. Mr. Lodge sought to pass the bill granting a pension to the widow of General Cogswell, but Mr. Allen led a vigorous opposition, claiming that the widows of generals were being unduly preferred over the widows of the plain soldiers. The bill was finally passed.

Mr. Mills offered a resolution declaratory of the policy of the government against issuing bonds, favoring the speedy extinction of the national debt and for the coinage of the silver bullion in the treasury.

FORAKER IS ELECTED.

Brice's Successor Chosen by the Ohio Legislature

ON JOINT BALLOT TAKEN TODAY.

The Senator-Elect Makes a Formal Speech of Acceptance—All the Republicans Voted For Foraker—Rest of the Vote Somewhat Scattered.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 15.—J. B. Foraker was elected United States senator from Ohio, to succeed Senator Brice, by joint ballot of both houses of the legislature today. He received the full Republican vote. He made a formal speech of acceptance, which was received with great enthusiasm.

Foraker's term begins March 4, 1897.

In the previous voting in the senate Foraker received 29 votes, Brice 6 and George A. Groat, Populist, of Cleveland, 1. The senate has 30 republicans, one of whom, Senator Porter, was absent on account of sickness in his family. The six Democrats voted for Mr. Brice. The Populist, William F. Conley of Mercer, voted for Mr. Groat, and is the only Populist ever elected to the Ohio legislature. Governor Bushnell and ex-Governor McKinley were present. Foraker's name was presented by Senator John J. Sullivan and seconded by Senator Adolph Ruemer of Cincinnati. Senator Hysell presented Mr. Brice's name.

HON. J. B. FORAKER.

In the house the vote stood: Foraker, 87; Brice, 24; John H. Thomas, Springfield, 1; Mr. Cage, 1; Judge Blandin of Cleveland, 1; Lawrence T. Neal, Chillicothe, 1, all of whom except Foraker are Democrats. Foraker received the full Republican vote.

ENGLAND'S BIG FLEET.

A Belief That It Will Be Sent on a Tour of the World.

PORTSMOUTH, England, Jan. 15.—A fleet of warships has gone into commission here under orders to be ready to leave the harbor as soon as possible and will await the arrival of the other flying squadron coming from Chatham and Devonport.

It is understood that Admiral Daley is under orders to take the flying squadron on Saturday from Spithead to Bere Haven, on the South coast of Ireland, with sealed orders relative to the future movements of his vessels.

The officers and men have all prepared for a long absence from England and in some quarters it is believed that a tour of the world is contemplated.

BOTH SIDES BADLY SPLIT.

Election of a United States Senator in Maryland Will Be Prolonged.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 15.—The result of the first day's balloting for a successor to Charles M. Gibson in the United States senate shows that both Democrats and Republicans are badly split, and that the fight is likely to be a protracted one. Congressman George L. Wellington led the Republicans in the number of votes received, having got 22 in the house and three in the senate, but he lacks 18 votes of election, and the indications now are that he is out of the race. Charles T. Westcott was his closest competitor, with 16 votes in the house and two in the senate.

The Democrats were unable to hit on anyone, those who oppose Senator Gorman refusing to vote for John Wallersmith, the caucus nominee, and casting their ballots for David M. Henry.

PHILADELPHIA PRIMARIES.

Harrity Winning and Quay Men Are Said to Be In the Lead.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.—At the Democratic conventions held here to elect delegates to the state convention, the friends of National Chairman Harrity secured an overwhelming victory. The Philadelphia delegations to the state convention will be almost a unit and this will mean that the ten district delegates from this city to the Democratic national convention will act in harmony with Mr. Harrity's friends. It also means the choice of a friendly delegate-at-large in Philadelphia.

It is now believed that the Democratic state convention will be substantially unanimous on the same lines, and that there will be no organized opposition to the supporters of the national chairman in the selection of the Pennsylvania delegation to the national convention.

The Republican primary elections were probably the most bitter in the political history of the city. It was a repetition of the fight of last August. The adherents of Senator Quay, under the leadership of State Senator Penrose and ex-Magistrate Durham, opposed Mayor Warwick.

The Quay people claim to have carried 20 of the 37 wards, conceding 11 to the opposition and six in doubt. On the other hand, the "combine" leaders declare that they have carried 18 sure, with others in doubt. This would give a bare majority.

FAVOR LIBERAL PENSIONS.

Cummings and a Southern Member Make Strong Speeches In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The house spent its session in further debate upon the pension appropriation bill. The speakers, with a single exception, were all Republicans, and all favored a liberal administration of the pension laws and the adoption of the changes to existing laws proposed by the bill. Among the speakers was General John A. Walker, who served with distinction in the Confederate army from Manassas to Appomattox. He is the only Republican representative from Virginia. His assurance of the good feeling that existed in the south toward the Union soldier and the lack of hostility toward the pension system was warmly received on both sides of the house.

Mr. Cummings, (Dem., N. Y.), created a mild sensation by a severe arraignment of the pension office for hostility to the old soldier and a stirring repudiation of the speech made the day before by Mr. Bartlett, who is also one of the Tammany congressmen from New York.

It seems probable now that the general debate on the pension bill will continue for several days.

A CANAL MESSAGE SOON.

One Expected From the President Accompanying the Commission's Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The Nicaragua canal scheme received some little attention from the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce when Chairman Hepburn designated a subcommittee of seven to have special charge of all proposed legislation for building the canal.

Speaker Reed is known to favor the canal plan, and the committee counts upon the favor of the committee on rules to give the bill a hearing on the floor. The canal advocates are anxious to have President Cleveland forward to congress at an early day the report made to him by the commission which looked over the ground last summer. The president has been too busy to consider the matter. It is intimated however, that a special message giving President Cleveland's views upon the canal and transmitting the report will be sent to congress within a month.

REBELS GAIN DAILY.

Nearly All of Cuba In Their Possession.

SPAIN'S REVENUE CUT 80 PER CENT

Insurgents Levy Tribute Right and Left, Under the Very Noses of the Spanish Commanders—Have a Government Established—In Good Shape.

HAVANA, Jan. 15.—The insurrection is increasing in importance every day. Practically the whole interior of the island, from east to west, with the exception of the large towns, is in possession of the insurgents, who have burned everything combustible and have levied tribute right and left, under the very noses of the Spanish commanders, and cutting down the revenue of the Spanish government from Cuban resources about 80 per cent, according to the insurgents' estimates. Under these conditions it is not astonishing that some change in the commandership of the Spanish forces is expected daily. Even the most intimate friends of General Campos do not claim that he has been half successful in his operations.

The insurgents are not acting hastily in any way. They have plenty of time before them, and intend to make the most of it. They have a central government established at Hermosa in the province of Puerto Principe, their forces are organized in excellent military style; they have regular army workshops, hospitals, in addition to the field hospitals; depots of provisions, ammunition, etc. Their cavalry is vastly superior, both in number and quality, to that of the Spaniards.

The weak point of the Cuban army is its artillery. They have only a few guns of the old-fashioned type and a few modern rapid-fire guns, but they hope shortly to be able to make a very much better showing in artillery, as they expect supplies of rapid fire guns. Indeed, friends of the insurgents here assert that quite a number of rapid-fire guns recently came into the possession of General Gomez, and they were landed not very far from Havana at that.
