

ALBERT TOLLS, of Brook, Ind., has been lodged in jail to prevent him from being lynched by his neighbors.

The big American liner St. Paul ran ashore in a fog at Long Branch on last Saturday morning and thus far all efforts to pull her out of the sand have proved abortive.

PRINCE HENRY, of Battenberg, husband of Princess Beatrice, the youngest daughter of Queen Victoria, died Monday evening 20th inst., from fever contracted while enroute to Madras.

MR. J. Q. CANNON, of Utah, political head of the Mormon Church, has come out as a convert to Republicanism as a preliminary to his candidacy for a seat in the United States senate.

ALREADY the new photography, the discovery of which was announced only three weeks ago, is being used by European surgeons in locating bullets in the human system.

SECRETARY CARLISLE has decided to annul the contract for constructing the Allegheny, Pa., public building awarded to M. P. Scully, at $84,000.

A FEW weeks ago a dispatch from San Francisco represented the people of the Pacific coast in a state of wild alarm over a threatened "inundation" of cheap wares from Japan.

THE decision of United States Judge Brawley, of South Carolina, in the case of a vessel taken into custody on the suspicion it was conveying men and communications of war to the insurgents in Cuba, that no violation of the law was involved, is likely to give a great impetus to filibustering expeditions from the United States.

THERE is still much distress in some of the counties of Pennsylvania because of the failure of the usual water supply.

FOR the twelve months of 1895 there was an increase in the gross earnings of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's lines of $40,591,313 over the earnings in 1894.

DR. J. SWAN TAYLOR, chairman of the Cambridge County Republican Committee has fixed upon Saturday, February 22, 1896, as the day for holding the primary elections for the Republican county convention.

WHAT has become of the Republican unity in Congress, says the New York Mercury, about which we heard so much at the opening of the session?

Where is that "snap" and "go" which was to characterize the legislative record of the Republicans under the splendid direction of Crar Reed?

In the house a new Hampshire Republican taunts Crar Reed with seeking to wreck the Republican party if it will not place his ambition above all else.

In the senate things are the same, only more so. Only two party bills have yet got into the hands of the finance committee—the same two that were lashed through the house.

NOBODY knows, no one cares to predict what will become of the little McKinley bill for a cent.

IT is urged that President Cleveland would allow the Dingley tariff bill to become a law without his signature, if it should reach him, because he took that course with the Wilson bill.

A REBELLIOUS movement has been organized in New York against Boss Platt, and it promises division and possible defeat for the Republican party.

By slow degrees we are, says the Gulliver, ever getting to know the contour of the sea bottom almost as well as we do that of the surface of the land.

THE United States navy will soon be strengthened by the addition of new men-of-war. The gunboat Helena is to be launched at Newport News on Thursday of next week.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., January 27.—Henry D. Lang, a cook at Brennan's restaurant, while dressing a big turkey yesterday afternoon, found a diamond stud in the gizzard.

JOHN TYLER, son of President John Tyler, died at Washington on Sunday at an advanced age, and after an illness that lasted several months.

A LEXINGTON girl has been selected by Lexington Herbert to christen the battleship Kentucky, and she will break a bottle of "fighting Kentucky Bourbon" instead of the customary champagne.

Washington Letter.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 24, 1896.—It remained for Senator Wolcott to strike the first discordant note heard in Congress in connection with President Cleveland's Monroe doctrine message.

San Francisco, Cal., January 26.—Particulars of the mutiny off the Andromeda islands on board the American trading schooner Maria, Captain Brown, have just been received in this city.

MEADVILLE, January 27.—On Saturday night, January 18th, the town of Meadville, Pa., was visited by a heavy snow storm, which was followed by a heavy rain.

PHILADELPHIA, January 26.—The British steamer Albatross, which arrived here to-day from Hamburg, was nearly swamped last Friday afternoon off the Georges shoal by a tidal wave.

NASHVILLE, January 24.—In Fayetteville, Tenn., a vigilance committee has been formed with the ostensible purpose of putting an end to burglaries, house burnings and other crimes.

NEW BRITAIN, S. C., January 27.—Mary Pinte was murdered at her home here last night, and the body was badly burned.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., January 26.—One of the most sensational tragedies ever enacted in this part of Indiana took place at the residence of Captain A. T. Harris, at an early hour yesterday morning.

NEW YORK, January 26.—The British ship Foyle, of London, from Calcutta, September 22, for New York, with a general cargo, lies aground in the Horse shoe off the old railroad dock.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., January 26.—Benjamin Folger, a nephew of the late Charles Folger, who was secretary of the treasury under President Arthur's administration, died in the poor house here yesterday afternoon.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., January 26.—John Malone, a restaurant-keeper of Altoona, entered suit on Tuesday against four officials of the Altoona police department, claiming $10,000 for false arrest.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., January 26.—Governor Hastings has returned from his sojourn in the southwest.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

NEWS AND OTHER NOTICES. Twenty thousand heads of cabbage were raised at the Huntington Reformatory farm last year.

DAVID GANZ, a tailor, of Stroudsburg, has a Bible in his possession 21 years old. It is heavily bound in worn-out covers, ornamented with brass.

MEADVILLE, January 27.—On Saturday night, January 18th, the town of Meadville, Pa., was visited by a heavy snow storm, which was followed by a heavy rain.

PHILADELPHIA, January 26.—The British steamer Albatross, which arrived here to-day from Hamburg, was nearly swamped last Friday afternoon off the Georges shoal by a tidal wave.

NASHVILLE, January 24.—In Fayetteville, Tenn., a vigilance committee has been formed with the ostensible purpose of putting an end to burglaries, house burnings and other crimes.

NEW BRITAIN, S. C., January 27.—Mary Pinte was murdered at her home here last night, and the body was badly burned.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., January 26.—One of the most sensational tragedies ever enacted in this part of Indiana took place at the residence of Captain A. T. Harris, at an early hour yesterday morning.

NEW YORK, January 26.—The British ship Foyle, of London, from Calcutta, September 22, for New York, with a general cargo, lies aground in the Horse shoe off the old railroad dock.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., January 26.—Benjamin Folger, a nephew of the late Charles Folger, who was secretary of the treasury under President Arthur's administration, died in the poor house here yesterday afternoon.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., January 26.—John Malone, a restaurant-keeper of Altoona, entered suit on Tuesday against four officials of the Altoona police department, claiming $10,000 for false arrest.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., January 26.—Governor Hastings has returned from his sojourn in the southwest.

B. & B. Madras and Zepher Gingham and Novelties.

We don't mean to say this is the only store at which you can get this celebrated manufacture, but we believe the selections, take the line all through from first to last, is superior to any, if not all.

BOGGS & BUHL, Allegheny, Pa.

NEW TIN SHOP IN EBENSBERG. Spouting, Roofing and Repairing done PROMPTLY.

Johnston, Buck & Co., BANKERS.

Carrolltown Bank, CARROLLTOWN, PA.

General Banking Business Transacted.

First National Bank OF PATTON.

PATTON, Cambria Co., Pa. Capital, paid up, $50,000.

WANTED AGENTS to represent the Most Complete Nurseries in America.

NEW LINE OF FALL GOODS BRADLEY'S CASH STORE, GALLITZIN, PENNA.

New Dress Goods, New Linings and New Trimmings. Full line of Prints, Muslins and Novelty Goods of all descriptions.

Fall Underwear for Ladies, Men and Children, commencing in price from 17c.

New Patterns in Blankets from 75c. up to $3.50 for all-wool Plaid Blanket.

LOWEST CASH PRICES. Come in and see our Stock. It is full and Complete.

THOS. BRADLEY'S, LARGEST DRY GOODS STORE IN TOWN.

CARL RIVINIUS, PRACTICAL WATCHMAKER & JEWELER.

Watches, Clocks, Jewellery, Silverware, Musical Instruments, Optical Goods.

It is a Great Comfort to a tidy housekeeper to have a good cooking appliance. The Cinderella Stoves and Ranges are sure bakery and perfect roasters.

CLEARANCE SALE of Furs, Capes and Jackets, Winter Dress Goods and Woolen Underwear.

BEHIND THE CURTAINS. We have a full line of TRUSSES and SUPPORTERS of every description.

DAVISON'S DRUG STORE. A SERIES OF DENTISTRY.

DR. A. LAINO, GALLITZIN, PA.

FATFOLKS REDUCED. Teeth extracted without pain by using Prof. May's E. E. Artificial Teeth.

DR. A. LAINO, GALLITZIN, PA.

DR. A. LAINO, GALLITZIN, PA.

DR. A. LAINO, GALLITZIN, PA.

DR. A. LAINO, GALLITZIN, PA.

DR. A. LAINO, GALLITZIN, PA.