A WARNING NOTE IS SOUNDED.

M. Berthelot Questions the British Ambassador and Points Out the Seriou-Ponsequences, Which May Follow-Russin Has No Sympathy With England,

PARIS, March 18,-The French gov ernment, up to this time, has not de fined its position toward the British proposal to dispatch an Egyptian expedition up the Nile There is reason to believe that the proposal came as a surprise to the French government. French statesmen had been entertaining the hope that an opening of negotiations was near at hand looking to the evacuation of Egypt by the British troops.

Next to the sovereignty of Germany over Alsace-Lorraine, probably the greatest source of irritation known to French diplomacy is the British occu-pation of Egypt. The present move or Great Britain's part is doubly irritating, coming as a check to the hopes the French statesmen had allowed them selves to entertain.

The first intimation has come of the probable course which France will take in view of the new conditions in Egypt A sensation has been caused by the a nouncement made by M. Berthelot minister of foreign affairs, in the cald net meeting that he had asked the Brit ish ambassador, the Marquis of Dufferin for information regarding the propose advance of British-Egyptian troops up the Nile and had pointed out to him the serious consequences of such an ad vance. This warning note may be preliminary to more decided steps. The government's semi-official state ment further announces that Great Britain's explanation that the advanis necessary in the interest of Egypt "i viewed with suspicion by France. France is not deciding upon the cours she will pursue without a full under standing with her Russian ally, and it is announced that numerous telegrams have passed between Paris and St Petersburg today on the subject. It is understood here that Great Britain also sounded the Russian government before announcing the Egyptian program. But the action of the czar in conferring upon the Negus Menelik the military order of St. George is accepted as peremptory no Great Britain's plans for aiding and relieving the Italians in Africa.

The apprehensions aroused in France by a British campaign up the Nile ex tend beyond Egypt, beyond Dongola and Khartoum and into Central Africa and the sources of the Nile, where French colonial expansion has been as active or more active than it has been in Tonking and up the Mekong. This French expansion threatens to absorb the valley of the Nile itself and to push on to the borders of the Italian possess ions in Ethiopia, thus forming an obstruction between British Uganda and Egypt. Great Britain has viewed these chments with impatience and French observers do not fail to note that even Liberal members of the British parliament express the belief that Lord Soudan and opening a way to the British possessions in South Africa.

The vast territory eastward of Lake Tschad including the Mohammedan states of Baghniri, Wadai and Darfour have also been rapidly brought under French influence and from another point of vantage for advance into the

France fears that the Egyptian advance to Dongola covers a British advance to Khartoum to Uganda and an interference with her prosperous colo nial expansion in Central Africa. The British occupation of Egypt is sufficiently galling in itself but more so in its threats to French plans in Africa be

A Cairo special says: Sir H. H Kitchener, the brigadier general in command of the Egyptian forces, has been definitely appointed to command the British-Egyptian expedition, which will advance on April 1 from Wady Halfa upon the Nile toward Dongola. Slatin Pasha, formerly an officer of the Austrian and Egyptian armies, and who recently escaped from Omdurman after having been nearly 17 years in captivity in the Soudan, will take part in the expedition.

Moves in Three European Countries

Paris. Marca 18.—M. Meline, the French protectionist leader in the chamber of deputies, has presented a motion that the government open negotiations for the bringing about of an internanational monetary agreement.

In the house of commons the motion of Mr. Whitely has been adopted, which recites that it is the opinion of the house that the instability in the relative value of gold and silver since the action of the latin union in 1873 had proved injurious to the best interests of the country and it urges upon the government the advisability that they do their utmost to secure an international agreement. A Brussels special says: In the senate the premier, P. de Smet de Naeyer, has reiterated the views which he expressed in the chamber of deputies of March 13, when, replying to a question on the subject, he urged the re estab-lishment of international bimetallism and assured the chamber that the gov ernment would acquiesce in any measure insuring by international agreement the stability of the monetary exchange of gold and silver.
