To Have Gone on Would Have Meant the Death of Some of the Rescuers-Eight Known to Be Dead and Seven Are Still Missing.

CINCINNATI, May 6 .- The burial alive of well-known people has caused general distress here. After the explosion that demolished the five-story building. occupied by Adolph Drach and Louis Fey on the first floors and with flats on the four upper floors, relays of workmen continued removing the debris till finally everybody was ordered from the premises, and Walnut street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, was kept clear. Holes had been made in the walls of adjoining buildings through which to extricate victims. The great mass of debris supported these walls, and its removal caused the adjacent walls to bulge out so that a still greater calamity has been momentarily expected from both sides of the wreckage.

When the street cleaning force and firemen were ordered away, it was believed that there were several persons still in the debris and some of them alive, but the engineers agreed with the building inspectors that the loss of lif to the workmen was inevitable if they proceeded. Braces were put up against the walls and scaffolds quickly constructed. The work of tearing down adjacent walls is progressing with all possible speed. Meantime those still in the debris had to be left to their fate and no more are likely to be taken out alive. There have been eight dead recovered and seven are still missing.

Inquiries have been made at the residences of those who are still missing and there has been nothing seen or known of them for over 24 hours. A of the injured persons, except John Mc-Carthy, are doing well at the hospital. McCarthy has died from internal injuries. He begged his brother and the firemen to kill him when he was first found in the debris, and he suffered intensely until his death.

One of the most prominent victims of the disaster is C. F. Andress, president of the Andress-Meara Wallpaper company. He was sitting at a table in Drach's saloon drinking a glass of beer and reading a paper when the explosion occurred.

The workmen had reached his body when they were called out, but they ascertained that he was dead and that it was impossible to extricate the body without endangering their own lives He was one of the prominent busine men of the city. The body of Matti-Kennedy was also found by the workmen in the debris, but it could not be brought out and none of the bodies remaining in the wreckage can be recovered until the danger from the surrounding walls is first removed.

The known dead are : Rolland Davis, Hamilton, O.; Ella Singleton, Zanesville, O.; Adolph Drach, proprietor of the cafe in which the explosion occurred : Felicia Drach, aged 5 years ; C. S. Wells, recently from Texas; Mary Kennedy, domestic for Drach ; John Mc-Carthy, clerk; C. Fred Andress, presi-

SEVERAL OUTBREAKS OCCURRED.

THE BELLICOSE LAYMEN

The Women Delegate Question Still Under Debate and May Be Voted on Today or Tomorrow-Important District Conference and Committee Proceedings.

CLEVELAND, May 6 .- The debate on the eligibility of women as delegates continues in the M. E. conference, and so far as the speakers are concerned. there is no evidence of a desire to bring the discussion to a close. Some of the laymen are anxious to terminate the contest, and it is probable that a vote will be reached either today or tomor-

There has been a slight onteropping of the feeling between the clergy and laymen, in which the latter took the initiative. C. W. Bennett of Cincinnati presented a resolution providing for the appointment of a special committee, which will pass on all communications from the laymen. This committee was to consist of one minister and one layman from each district. After a good deal of debate, in whic Rev. Dr. Shier of Detroit expressed the regret that any feeling existed between clergy and laity, the resolution was adopted An effort was made by Dr. James of Philadelphia to make the committee consist of 15 members, who were to be appointed by the bishop. The lay delegates couldn't stand this and Mr. Bennett's resolution went through. The deck was then cleared for action and the woman question was again precipitated. President Daniel Stevenson of Union college, Kentucky, started the fight by criticizing the action of the bishops in deciding against the action of the women in 1888. Rev. G. Neely led the fight against the women. He held the question to be one of law purely. He took up the question of the Bible argument and said it was time the Bible said men and women are one in Christ, but not in the general conference. He held that in the church the status of women is different from that of men. The question, he said, is a constitutional one, and no one is to be admitted unless specifically mentioned. The delegates were thoroughly proused and feeling ran high. Judge Caples of Oregon, ex-Senator Harlan of Montana, Dr. Buckley of New York, Dr. Leonard of Cincinnati, Rev. Dr. Harris of Maine, Rev. Dr. James Chaffey of Minneapolis, Rev. Dr. J. W. Hamilton, Dr. J. R. Day of Syracuse, Dr. Emory Miller of Iowa and several other men prominent in the counsels of the church spoke upon the question before the house

The lay delegates have met and heard reports from their committee of 15, appointed to consider the question of extending the term of pastorate. One report, signed by General Rusling of New Jersey, recommended that in exceptional cases ministers might be continued in their pastorates indefinitely. A second opposed any change in the rule regarding the time limit, stating as a reason that very often ministers remained too long in churches. An amendment was offered by a delegate providing for an extension of time by a three-fourths vote of all adult members of the church at quarterly conference and the recommajority of the presid ing elders of the district. Both of the reports and the amendment also were

A resolution recommending that the period of probation be changed from six months to three months was also tabled. A Delaware man asked for the adop tion of a resolution requesting the conference to shut off debate on the woman question today, giving as his reason that the ministers were using the debate merely as an opportunity to show their oratorical ability. The meeting considered that this would be discour teous and refused to consider the reso-

A DUKE AND DUCHESS ROBBED. Holdup In Wild West Style Near Rome

ROME, May 6 .- This city has been treated to a genuine, old-time brigand enisode, and the sufferers were the Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Memingen. The dake and duchess, it appears, were traveling incognito initially and were returning, with a small suite, from paying a visit to the poet Wosa. Near Fracati, about 12 miles from this city, their carriage was stopped, in true brigand style, by two masked men, who eveled guns at the ducal party and demanded money or their lives. The duke threw them his purse, which only contained 55 lire (about $11) and the carriage was allowed to proceed. brigands were afterward caught.
