

THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

Woman Delegate Question Pops Up In Committee.

BLOW AT THE C. E. SOCIETIES.

Effort Made to Have the Epworth League Declared the Only Young People's Organization of the Church—Preacher's Hostile Interview Causes Trouble.

CLEVELAND, May 13.—The committee on missions of the M. E. general conference has considered the request of the conference of India that missionary work be done among the educated people of that country.

The woman delegate question popped up here in the committee when South America asked that lay missionaries be sent in the missionary annual conference.

The education committee decided against the proposition to consider all the educational institutions, a course of procedure recommended on the score of economy.

There was a lively time at the meeting of the church extension committee over some severe criticism of the financial management of the Church Extension society.

At the meeting of the committee on episcopacy Dr. J. F. Goacher of Baltimore, for the sub-committee to consider the advisability of electing more bishops, reported that Bishops Bowman and Foster and Missionary Bishop Taylor were worn out and inefficient.

The session of the conference was brief, but interesting. Considerable time was indulged in over the head lines of one of the morning newspapers, which made it appear that a conference delegate had denounced the Christian Endeavor Society as idiotic, because it had prayed for the conversion of Colonel Ingersoll.

Amanda Smith, one of the most famous colored evangelists, was present, and the conference suspended business to receive her. She was given the greatest ovation of the conference, and was requested to sing.

The most important matter brought before the conference was embodied in a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to prepare a new constitution.

At the army last evening there was a meeting of the church extension society, at which Dr. William D. Spencer of Philadelphia, one of the secretaries, read statistics showing that $2,500,000 had been devoted to work during the past 30 years, 9,962 churches being aided during that time.

CONGREGATIONAL CELEBRATION.

Centennial Anniversary West of the Alleghenies at Marietta, O.

MARIETTA, O., May 13.—The centennial anniversary of Congregationalism west of the Alleghenies mountains has begun here and will continue three days.

The meetings are held in the old First Congregational church, built in 1807, and still used for church purposes, having been frequently remodeled. It stands on the site of the original block house used 100 years ago.

The program for tomorrow includes Rev. Wash-ton Gladden, Columbus; Prof. William Walker Hays, Cincinnati; and others. The celebration will close Thursday evening with addresses by representatives from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan and other representatives of the northwest territory.

When the New England colony first settled at Marietta April 7, 1788, they had no minister with them. Rev. Daniel Brock of Topsfield, Mass., was called the following July. In 1796 Rev. Dan Stacey, a graduate of Dartmouth, was called.

For years the settlement worshipped in the northwest blockhouse, in the foot of Calvary street. The church in which the celebration is being held is the mother of many churches and colleges in the west.

Another point for Deuber. The Canton Manufacturer Gets In a Blow on the Watch Trust.

CINCINNATI, May 13.—John C. Deuber, watch-case manufacturer of Canton, O., who began the fight which finally broke up the watch trust, scored another point.

Deuber and other companies paid to the Elgin and Waltham factories royalties in excess of $100,000 on the Colby patent and pendant watches.

Later he refused to pay royalties and was sued. The lower court rendered decision against them. Judge Taft, of the United States court of appeals, not only reversed the lower court's decision, but declared the Colby patent invalid.

Higgins Men Bolt the Republican Convention.

ADDICKS' ADHERENTS IN CONTROL.

Each Side Held Conventions and Named Delegates to St. Louis.—The Higgins Delegation Instructed For McKinley—A Lively Convention in Missouri.

DOVER, Del., May 13.—Before the adjournment of the Republican convention here, one of the stormiest battles in the history of state Republican politics had been waged.

Charges of fraud were exchanged and fighting over contested seats indulged in until it looked as if the convention would end in chaos. The war and peace delegates were named.

QUEEN OF FIGHTING CRAFT.

The Cruiser Brooklyn Greater Victory Way Than the New York.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—The cruiser Brooklyn or as she has been more appropriately dubbed, the "Greater New York," has returned triumphant to her dock at Cramp's wharf.

The most conspicuous objects about the Brooklyn as she steamed up the river were the big numerals "21.07," painted in white on each side of the central smoke stack.
