

CAPIZED FERRYBOAT

A Cyclone's Death Freak at Cairo, Ills.

THOSE WHO PERISHED NUMBER 13.

Victims Were Penned Up in the Cabin to Keep out of the Rain—Men at the Pilot Wheel Blown Into the River, Others Had Narrow Escapes.

CAIRO, Ill., May 27.—A hurricane and cyclone has struck this city. The Opera house and Union depot were unroofed, numbers of trees destroyed and signs blown down, but no houses were destroyed, nor lives lost in the city. The steamer "Katharine" was capsized at the mouth of the Ohio, drowning all on board but the captain, engineer and clerk.

The storm came up very suddenly from the northwest. The ferryboat had just started from Cairo and was still in the Ohio river and near the Illinois shore. The rain was very heavy and most of the people were in the cabin with the doors shut. There was no warning, the boat turned over when the small first struck her.

The captain and clerk were both at the wheel and were blown out of the pilot house into the water and the boat turned over on them. They happened to be at the cabin door when the cabin overboard. The captain was blown overboard from beneath her. Of those in the cabin only Dr. Orr and Joseph Curry got out and they were badly hurt.

The following were drowned: Chas. Gilhofer, Cairo; Daniel Hayes, Cairo; a colored woman, Cairo; Ward Jefferson, Cairo; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, Wickliffe, Ky.; Richard Thurman, a printer, Cairo; Mrs. William Shannon and baby, Hird's Point; Mrs. Mary Jones, Jackson, Tenn.; Lewis Hall, colored, Cairo; Asbury Alexander, colored, Wickliffe, Ky.; George Davis, colored, Cairo; Miss Orr, Hird's Point.

At Hird's Point, in opposition to this city, a church and ten other buildings were moved from their foundations, trees blown across parks and the running of trains interfered with.

27 PROBABLY PERISHED.

Later Reports Increase the Horror at North McGregor, Iowa.

DUNCORP, Ia., May 27.—Passengers from North McGregor report the bodies of seven town people have been recovered; also those of six convicts attached to Kirkhart & Ryan's circus. The convicts had entered a boxcar, preparatory to accompanying their show to Winona, Minn., when they were caught in the car when the cloudburst came. The names cannot be had yet. The most conservative estimates place the loss of life at North McGregor at 27.

Conductor W. J. Durbin, who runs a passenger train between Milwaukee and McGregor, says that soon after the water from Bloody Run began to rise the circus for horses, mules, and helpless people, living upon the lowlands were heartrending, but that little could be done by those on bluffs nearby, as all were compelled to flee for their lives from the high grounds. On one boxcar, as it floated by, Mr. Durbin saw two men supposed to be tramps, who were calling in pitiful tones for rescue. They were compelled to jump from one car to another, as they proceeded together in the Mississippi. The houses of two families, one numbering six persons and the other five, floated by and the screams of the women, wails of the children and the cries of the men were heard above the din and roar, but all who heard and saw the awful sight were powerless to rescue them. The names of the dead and missing are not obtainable at present, owing to the great confusion and lack of communication.

SEVEN KILLED IN A RIOT. Battle Between Officers and Circus Men in Indiana.

VINCENNES, Ind., May 27.—Fort Branch, a small village south of here, has been the scene of a wholesale tragedy. A circus steambond landed and those on board proceeded to take the town. They sold liquor on board and all were drunk and disorderly. The sale of rye and beer was ordered stopped, but little attention was paid to the demands made by the townsmen. A posse of citizens were deputized and marched to the river where the boat was moored. The posse made an attempt to arrest the boat captain, but a prolonged battle ensued, in which seven were killed and ten wounded. The citizens made an attempt to secure the craft, but failed, the circus and boat were in mid stream. All is quiet and the circus is out of town.

Americans' Rights Respected.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The state department is officially informed that all contracts for Cuban leaf tobacco entered into before the publication of Executive Order No. 10000, prohibiting the exportation of such tobacco, will be respected and that citizens of the United States proving themselves to be benefited by such contracts will be permitted to export the same as heretofore.

Trouble at Milwaukee Subsiding.

MILWAUKEE, May 27.—Public interest in the street railway struggle is subsiding and the cars are being run freely patronized. President Mahon of the Amalgamated Association of Street Car Workers' expects to be called to Toledo and will leave the Milwaukee strike in the hands of the executive committee.

Gold Men Stay Away.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The primaries of the free silver faction of the Democratic party passed off without incident. The members of the party opposed to free coinage kept away from the polls and the county convention was run as the silver men wished, the gold standard men staying away.

The Matabels Defeated.

BELLEVILLE, South Africa, May 27.—Captain Plimmer's force has met the enemy about 12 miles from here. The Matabels were repulsed and were followed for a few miles by the troops. The natives made a second stand and some sharp fighting followed, but they were routed.

A Silver Revolt in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 27.—More than 100 free silver Democrats, representing every district in the state, met here and perfected an organization. This was done by appointing an executive committee of 14. This action almost amounts to an open revolt against the state central committee, the majority of whose members are gold standard men.

American Missionary and Wife Hurt.

LONDON, May 27.—The Evening News publishes a dispatch from Cairo saying that serious cholera riots have occurred there. The rioters were finally dispersed by the police. An American missionary and his wife were injured.

THE REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

Almost Games an Outbreak on the Subject of the New Presbyterial Building in New York—Closer Inspection of Mission Matters Decried.

SARATOGA, May 27.—The Christian Endeavor societies have won a victory in the Presbyterian general assembly. Those interested in the movement were in the majority, and the yearling of the report of the committee on relations of young people to the church and discharged the committee. The sum total of the assembly's action comprised the adoption of a statement of relations between individual societies and churches, which was directed to be read in the various societies, and of a provision for the collection of Christian Endeavor statistics. Provision was also made for a committee of five to report on the Brotherhood of Andrew and Phillip and on boy's brigades.

The discussion of the report on home missions showed that the assembly was on the brink of an outbreak on the subject of a new Presbyterial building in New York. The action finally taken has been variously interpreted. It contemplated the inauguration of synodical sustention of the mission work within the bounds of each synod, and some of the members of the assembly have expressed themselves as believing this to be the first step toward the disintegration of the board of home missions. The resolutions provide for closer presbyterial inspection of requisitions on the mission board; for a movement toward self-support within each presbytery and synod, and for a committee of nine to advise with the board as to the extent, the causes of the present deficit and improved methods of retrenchment.

Resolutions favoring international arbitration were adopted.

The report of the board of aid for colleges was first considered. It was presented by Dr. Thomas F. Clelland of Duluth. The report showed receipts, $39,274.75; disbursements, $38,782. Total balance on hand of $1,149.19. The receipts for the year decreased $30,489. During 18 years of existence the board has aided 18 institutions and expended $1,143,391. It holds mortgages of $173,388 on property valued at $242,429. The report commends the board's investigation of contributions of $150,000 during the coming year.

The moderator and clerks, acting as a committee on the most places of the board, met with representatives of Potoski, Mich., San Francisco and other places which desire to entertain the assembly of 1907. A strong effort was made on behalf of Saratoga. The result of the conference is not yet known.

THREE BISHOPS ORDAINED.

A Strict Temperance Report Adopted by the M. E. Conference.

CLEVELAND, May 27.—The impressive ceremonies incident to the installation of the three bishops—McCabe, Cronston and Hartzel—attracted much interest at the M. E. conference.

Temperance was one subject under discussion and the committee report, which was adopted, shows the board's determination to legalize the liquor traffic, especially in states which have prohibition.

Part of the session was devoted to a further consideration of the report of the committee on constitution.

MORE TAX ON BEER. Proposed in the Senate to So Amend Filled Cheese Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Tariff and finance each came in for a share of consideration in the senate. Senator Sherman succeeded in having the filled cheese bill taken up, whereupon Senator Dubois (Rep., Ia.) offered an amendment adding 75 cents per barrel to the tax on beer. The senator said his amendment was intended to test the sincerity of senators who expressed their patriotic desire to aid the treasury by raising more revenue.

Mr. Sherman opposed the amendment as a skillful means to defame the Dubois bill. His motion to table the Dubois amendment was defeated—yeas, 25; nays, 30. On the question of adopting the amendment the debate became a senatorial filibuster. Mr. Sherman's amendment was supported by 25 yeas and 30 nays, opposing it by 30 yeas and 25 nays.

A bill was passed to position, at $75 a month, the salaries of the four judges of the United States senator from Alabama.

TO REPEAL ALCOHOL CLAUSE. The Bill Goes Through the House.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The house, by a vote of 165 to 99, passed the bill for the repeal of section 31 of the present tariff law, providing for a rebate on alcohol used in the arts or medicinal compounds. An amendment was attached to the bill providing for a joint commission, to consist of three members of each house to examine and report on all questions relating to free alcohol at the next session.

The opposition to the measure came almost entirely from eastern and New England states. An analysis of the vote shows that 56 Democrats, 104 Republicans and 10 Progressives voted for the bill and 60 Republicans and 9 Democrats against it. The senate amendments to the general deficiency bill, excepting the French application claims and claims under the Bowman act, were disagreed to and the bill sent to conference.

GEN. FAIRCHILD AT REST.

The Funeral in Wisconsin a Very Impressive Event.

His Rooms are Crowded. Everybody Satisfied.

MADISON, Wis., May 27.—The funeral of the late General Lucius Fairchild was the most impressive event of the kind ever held in Wisconsin. After private services at the house a public service was held in the state capitol, at the east entrance to the building, at which addresses were made by the Rev. Joseph Sanderson of Augusta, Ills., national chaplain of the Loyal Legion, and Dr. J. D. Butler and President C. K. Adams of the state university.

Under military escort composed of a regiment of the state militia, with a light horse squadron and a battery of artillery, the funeral cortege, over a mile long, wound its way to Forest Hill cemetery, where the remains of the dead hero were laid at rest with the ritualistic ceremonies of the G. A. R.

Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 27.—The general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of the United States tabled the report of the finance committee, recommending that a tax be levied to defray the expenses of delegates to the assembly and to do away with free entertainment. This prevents the acceptance of Chicago's invitation for the assembly to meet there next year. A supplemental salary fund of $1,300 for the theological seminary was adopted after a warm fight.
