Communication.
WILMORE, Pa., June 10, 1896.
ED. FREEMAN.—Mrs. Catharine Burk, relict of James Burk, late of Summerhill township, who died in 1871, died at her home in Braddock, on Monday, June 1st, 1896, in her seventy-ninth year. The deceased lady, whose maiden name was Catherine McKenzie, was married to Mr. Burk many years ago, and resided in Summerhill township during the lifetime of her husband. She was the mother of eight children—all daughters. The funeral took place on Thursday last, the remains being interred in the Catholic cemetery, in this place.
Mr. Richard Thomas, of Cambria township, who has been ill for some time, is still seriously indisposed. His daughter, Mrs. John Jones is also sick.
A meeting of citizens was held in Wilmore on Saturday evening for the purpose of applying for the next Farmer's Institute, which will doubtless be held in Wilmore in the near future.
Misses Anna Storm and Rachel O'Hara, of Cresson, are visiting relatives near Wilmore.
The bans of matrimony were published in the Catholic churches of Wilmore and Carrolltown on Sunday last between Mr. George Farbaugh, of Carrolltown, and Miss Mary R. Dimond, of the Wilmore congregation. Mr. Farbaugh is an industrious young mechanic and Miss Dimond is a talented young teacher and also secretary of Pomona Grange of Cambria county. She is a daughter of Mr. Jessie H. Dimond.

Commonwealth vs. David Seruder: false pretense. Not a true bill and the prosecutor, James H. Gant, pay the costs, except the four dollars to the county.
Commonwealth vs. James Bourke: larceny and receiving stolen goods. Defendant pleads guilty.
Commonwealth vs. John H. Howe: fornication and bastardy. Defendant pleads guilty. Usual sentence.
Commonwealth vs. Joseph Neff: selling liquor without license. Jury find defendant not guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Oliver Davis and Fred Driscoll: assault and battery. Jury find defendant not guilty but that they pay $10 of the costs and the prosecutor, Fred Jones, pay the balance.
Commonwealth vs. Fred Jones: assault and battery. Jury find defendant not guilty and divide the costs between the prosecutor and the defendant.
Commonwealth vs. William Nobles: malicious mischief. Defendant pleads guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $5, costs and thirty days in jail.
Commonwealth vs. Charles Yocum, alias John Shoemaker: assault and battery. Defendant pleads guilty and was sentenced to pay the costs.
Commonwealth vs. William Shank: larceny. Defendant pleads guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Matthew Weakand: selling liquor to minors, four counts. Defendant pleads guilty.
Commonwealth vs. George Jones, Sr., and George Jones, Jr.: gambling. Defendant pleads guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Toney Ancliest and the Commonwealth vs. Joseph Lord, cross suits for assault and battery. Jury find Ancliest not guilty but that he pay the costs, and find Lord guilty of assault and battery.
Commonwealth vs. Charles Brennat: forgery. Jury find defendant guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Peter Lorenzo: assault and battery. Jury find defendant not guilty but that he pay half the costs and Rossario Pieco, the prosecutor, the other half.
Commonwealth vs. Rebecca Martz: assault and battery. Jury find defendant guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Mary Burke and James Burke: adultery. Jury find defendants guilty of fornication.
Commonwealth vs. Joseph Springer: malicious mischief. Defendant pleads guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $5, costs and 30 days in jail.
Commonwealth vs. William S. Davis: embezzlement, seventeen indictments. Jury find defendant not guilty and the prosecutor pay the costs.
COMMONWEALTH vs. THE GRAND JURY.
Commonwealth vs. Joseph Conio, selling liquor without license, two counts; Frank DeCanno, prosecutor, pay the costs.
Same vs. Catarina Conio, selling liquor without license; Frank DeCanno, prosecutor, pay the costs.
Commonwealth vs. Henry C. Kirkpatrick, furnishing liquor illegally on election day, five counts; Matthew Weakand, prosecutor, pay the costs.
Same vs. Frank de Canno, larceny and receiving stolen goods; Pasqual Wendonia, prosecutor.
Same vs. Louis Pegg, first, second and third counts, keeping gambling house; fourth, fifth and sixth counts, being common gambler; George Jones, prosecutor, pay the costs.
Same vs. Edward Shaffer, first, second and third counts, keeping gambling house; fourth, fifth and sixth counts, being common gambler; George Jones, prosecutor, pay the costs.
The Grand Jury finished its business on Saturday evening and before being discharged made the following report:
JUNE 6, 1896.
To the Honorable A. V. Barker, President, Judge of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Cambria, Pennsylvania.
We, the Grand Jurors of the June term of court, would respectfully report that we have examined the jail and almshouse and we find them in good condition. We would suggest that the upper floors in the court house be made free from any refuse that would be the cause of fire, and would recommend a bath tub to be placed in the jail for the use of prisoners.
W. H. REPP, Foreman.
