CHICAGO PLATFORM SUITABLE.

lecretary Turner, of the Populist National Committee, Thinks Populists Should Stand On It-Bryan's Record All Right-What They Must Decide.

Washington, July 15 .- J. H. Turner, who for the last four years, has been secretary of the national committee of the People's party, in a signed statement, arges Populists to support Mr. Bryan for president. He writes:

The result of the late national Democratic convention at Chicago is undoubtedly the triumph of the Populist A large portion of the voters of the Populist party in the south and west were originally Democrats and left the old party because it was dominated in every national convention by the eastern Democrats, who represented Wall street and the monopolists of New York and New England. It became quite apparent to every thinking man that as long as New York was allowed to make the platform and name the candidate of the Democratic party that the great plain people would have no show and that their rights and wishes would always be ignored.

"Believing this, then thinking men among the rank and file determined to quit the old party and organize a new party. Hence the existence of the Pop ulist party. The Democratic party at Chicago simply purged itself, reorgan ized itself came out for true Democracy and to all intents and purposes substituted the Populist platform for the old platform that the party has been using for years, and which were dictated and foisted upon the people by the gold bugs of the east. Mr. Bryan, the nomince of that convention, is a man who fits the platform. I have personally watched his course for a number of years, and know that his every impulse has been against the oppressors of the people and in behalf of the great masses. For years he has acted with the Populists of his own state.

It cannot be successfully denied that the principles advocated by the Populist party have captured the Demo cratic party, and have driven out of its ranks that element which has always been opposed to true Democracy, and which, from the beginning, has been affiliated with the Republican party. All Populists in these United States should rejoice that their principles have taken such hold upon the American people that one of the great popular parties of the nation had been compelled to advocate these principles and nominate a ticket pledged to carry them into exe-

"The truth of it is that the only point the Populists now have to decide is whether or not they will take Mr. Bryan, whom every gold bug in the country has denounced as a Populist, for our next president of the United States, or whether they will take Mr. McKinley, who represents everything that the Populists have denounced and just the opposite of everything that they have advocated since they have been a party.

Mr. Turner said that McKinley's elec tion would undoubtedly bring on a bloody revolution in the near future. POPULISTS AND SILVERITES.

Both Gathering For Their Conventions Either Bryan or Teller.

St. Louis, July 15.-Prominent men are arriving here for the two conventions of the Populists and National Silver party July 22. As the Populists begin to gather it is evident that there will be two proposi tions made which will form the chief contention of the convention. One is that the Populists shall aban don any idea of a separate and distinct national ticket and endorse outright the candidates and the platform of the Chicago convention.

This proposition will be supported by the friends of Senator Henry M. Teller, nearly all the Populist members of the United States senate and the People's party leaders in many of the western

The west, the southwest and the northwest are nearly solid for proposi tions to incorse Mr. Bryan and put up no other ticket. From the south come delegates and People's party leaders who are not delegates to the convention urging another proposition-to put up a presidential ticket, adopt a platform, run presiden tial electors in all the states where the Populist party has an organization and then, when the time comes to cast the vote in the electoral college, let the Pop ulists and Democrats combine on the strongest man, whether that be Bryan or the Populist nominee. Vigorous bjection is urged against this on the ground that it would be dangerous to the common cause of free silver. It would divide the strength of its adherents, and in some of the close states where one or the other holds the balance of power, a division of their strength might give the state to Mc appears to have been a vigorous old fellow and in many ways rather eccentric. According to Colonel Thomas E. Merritt, who is a brother of General Wesley Merritt of the United States army. Judge Bryan was dangerously ill shortly after reaching Illinois and at thet time made a vow that if the Lore would spare his life he would bow his head in prayer and thanksgiving to him three times a day as long as he lived and the judge kept his word. Said Colonel Merritt: "I have seen him many and many :

time when a case in court was being argued before him take out his watch at noon, stop the proceedings, get down on his knees before the bench and offer up the prayer in silence. It became so common that we never thought any thing of it, but it used to cause some comment among strangers when they would happen to be in the courtroom.

The judge was twice a member of the Illinois senate and once a member of the state constitutional convention. He was twice nominated for congress and could have been elected, but he would not allow the use of a single cent for campaign expenses. Candidate Bryan is a member of the Presbyterian church

For some reason the ovation that was to have been given to William J. Bryan at Centralia last night was almost failure. Scarcely 300 people all told were at the station when the train bear ing Mr. Bryan and his wife pulled in To make matters worse the place se lected for Mr. Bryan to meet the crowd was at the City park, which had al ready been engaged by William E. Mason, a Republican candidate for the United States senate from this state On this account Mr. Bryan and his friends had to vacate before 8 o'clock. When the train arrived Mr. and Mrs.

Bryan were hurried through the crowd o a carriage in waiting. Captain S. L. Dwyght met them and took them to his home. Mrs. Dwyght is a cousin of Mr Bryan. At the home of Captain Dwght there was an informal reception to the ladies of Centralia, who were presented to the nominee and his wife. The visiting party was then taken to the city park. Preceding the carriage in which Mr. and Mrs. Bryan rode was a brass band, and following were sev eral hundreds of citizens on foot, which increased to about 1,000 when the park was reached

Mr. Bryan made a speech which was well received. He and his wife then took a train for Salem.
