

all of the electors put upon the joint ticket are Sewall men. This is especially true in the northern states, and in the southern states it will make lit tle difference, as far as Bryan is concerned. Even if the vote on Brvan and Sewall is divided in the electoral college, there is not any doubt that the Sewall votes will be largely in the majority. The tickets will be put up in the respective states with the agree ment that if the Democratic vice presidential candidate has more supporters in the electoral college than the Populist candidate, the votes for the latter shall be cast for the former, and vice versa.

Treasury Department Prepares a Circalar on Financial Mutters

WASHINGTON, July 29 -So unmerou are the questions brought to the treas ury by every mail seeking information relative to financial and currency matters that the overworked clerical force of the director of the mint has been totally unable to answer them.

All available copies of the report of the directors for last year, which contained tables and information and would answer a large portion of the queries have been exhausted and at last the department has hit upon the device of printing a circular containing in suc cinct form statements of facts relative to the coinage, bullion production, circulation per capita in various countries and such information as will meet the needs of the many persons who are now seeking facts on which to base couclysions respecting the issues of the cumpaign.

The matter embodied in this circular has been carefully considered and has the approval of the secretary of the treasury. It is expected that the circu-lar itself will be received from the printer for distribution about the end of the week.

WATSON MEANS TO STICK.

Why He Reversed His Decision Regarding Going on the Ticket.

NEW YORK, July 29-Thomas E Watson, candidate for vice president on the Populist ticket, in a Telegram from Thomson, Ga, to The Herald, savs:

"Our executive committee must decide the question of dividing electors. If Mr. Bryan accepts our nomination and Mr. Sewall should retire, Texas Populists would probably be content with Bryan and Watson, even though Bryan did not endorse all the platform.

"I was absolutely sincere when I said I would not accept either place on the Populist national ticket. After the convention met and the fusion strength developed it seemed that our party would be swallowed up by the Bryan forces, and to have gone into the presidential campaign with no Populist na tional ticket meant death to the People's party.

"The Georgia delegation then telegraphed me, uriging me to allow the use of my name to harmonize the factions and save the party. I consented and I will abide the consequences. When I said I would not accept I did not dream that such a crisis could possibly come upon our party."
