The Democratic County Convention. On Monday Cambria county's Democratthe purpose of placing in nomination a county ticket to be voted for at the coming election. The delegates were a representative body of our best citizens and they performed their dutics with sound judgment by placing in nomination a ticket worthy of the support of the good citizens of all parties. At eleven o'clock Chairman H. A. Englehart called the convention to order for the purpose of electing officers of the convention. One hundred and two delegates answered to the roll call and on motion made and seconded, W. Horace Rose, Esq.

of Johnstown, was unanimously elected chairman, and D. A. McGough, of Ebensburg, and R. H. Biter, of Portage township, were elected tellers.

Mr. Rose, on taking the chair, made characteristic and able address to the delegates and people assembled, which, at its conclusion, was roundly applauded. After the appointment of a committee on reso-lutions, consisting of Thomas P. Sheridan, of Comemangh: Edward H. Bailey of of Conemaugh; Edward H. Bailey, of Johnstown; R. L. Bowers, of Reade township; D. W. Luke, of South Fork. and P

J. Detrich, of Carrolltown, the convention adjourned to meet at one o'clock for the purpose of nominating a ticket. Promptly at one o'clock the convention reassembled and at once proceeded to business. The first thing in order was the nomination of a candidate for county Pittsburg, Pa., make a specialty treasurer and for this office the names of John H. Waters and Jay Woodring, both of Johnstown, were placed before the convention. The first ballot resulted in the nomination of Mr. Waters by a vote of 71 to Illuminating and Lubricating Oils 31. After the announcement of the ballot, on motion of Edward T. McNeelis, Esq., of Johnstown, the nomination of Mr. Waters was made unanimous. For assembly seven candidates were named before the convention. Previous to the balloting a proposition from a committee of the People's party of Cambria coun-ty, was laid before the convention by Mr. Edward H. Batley, of. Johnstown, as fol-

"If the Democratic county convention will accept one of our nominees for assem-bly, we will fill our vacancies -i. e. treas-urer and one commissioner-from the Demeratic ticket." The name of Mr. A. P. Kirsch, one the nominees for assembly on the People's ticket, was placed in nomination, but the delegates were evidently not strongly impressed with the proposition. The candidates named for assembly were as follows: C. F. Frazer, of Hastings; Blair Short, of Lilly; Dr. William Rauch, of Johnstown; John O'Toole, of Johnstown: Dr. H. Somerville, of Chest Springs Thomas J. Iteli, of Johnstown, and A. P Kirsch, of Barr township.

Hurt at Spangler.

On Friday of last week Misses Celia Kirsch and Elmira Bearer, of Spangler, were out driving and when near Lantzy's railroad crossing a train came along and in the common people, we go before them with our candidates, firm in the conviction frightened the horse. Miss Bearer got out and held the animal until the train had passed and then got into the buggy. She had scarcely got seated in the vehicle effect on the Cambria & Clearfield division when a "pusher" that was following the train came along and the horse again became unruly. Miss Bearer again jumped out and caught the horse by the head but convention proceeded to the nomination of candidates for county commissioners. For this office there were eight men named, of whom David Costlow, of Johnstown, was nominated on the third ballot. and Thomas Hoover, of Cambria township, was nominated on the tenth ballot. The candidates named were: W. C. Berry, of Wilmore; Peter Weitz, of Johnstown; William J. Tierney, of Cambria township; Charles Dunlap, of Carroll township; Day id Costlow, of Johnstown; Thomas Hoover, of Cambria township; P. E. Dillon, of Elder township, and Robert Ferguson, of Blacklick township. The name of Mr. Berry was withdrawn after the 1st ballot: of Mr. Ferguson after the 3rd. The balloting on commissioner was as The first ballot decided in favor of Mr. Hite by a vote of 72 to 11. His nomination was made unanimous. For county auditors, five names were placed before the convention, as follows: James King, of Johnstown; F. E. Farabaugh, of Carrolltown; Thomas F. Brady, of Johnstown; Thomas A. Mather, of Adams township, and Fred B. Duerbeck, of Johnstown. Messrs. King and Farabangh Street, Ebensburg. were nominated on the first ballot, which was as follows:

King ... Farabaugh. Brady..... Mather Duerbeck After the ballot the nominations were made unanimous and the con vention then proceeded to the selection of a candidate for state senator. For the office of state senator George F. Bauer, of Johnstown, and Frank P. Martin, Esq., of the same place, were named. The first ballot resulted in the selection of Mr. Martin by a vote of 60 to 16. For congress, the name of F. J. O'Con or, Esq., of Johnstown, was presented choice of Cambria county for congress. Messrs, O'Connor and Martin were each empowered to select their own conferees. The committee on resolutions reported the following:

convention assembled, heartily pledge their support to the nominees of the Chi-cago convention, the Hon. William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, for president, and the Hon. Arthur Sewall, of Maine, for vice president. We hail the illustrous citizer of the Flatte as the tribune of the people as the conrageous, able and sincere cham-pion of the rights of the toiling millions, not of the English syndicates, the Wall street trusts, and the millionaire money combines. In his wise leadership we look hopefully forward to success. We have much reason to expect success We stand to day the representatives of the masses, and not of the classes. We stand for the right, and, having full confidence

We indorse the Chicago platform. We accept it as the honest expression of honest delegates in one of the most marvelou conventions in the world's history.
