

On Thursday of last week R. H. Robertson, aged 17 years, of Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, while out hunting fell over an embankment forty feet high and was killed.

John A. Canan & Co., extensive lumber dealers in Altoona, failed on Tuesday and made an assignment. Executions amounting to $25,000 were issued against the firm which caused the failure. The liabilities will aggregate $50,000.

Hunter & Baughman, lumber manufacturers, whose operations are about two and one-half miles east of Patton, have shipped by rail from that place in twenty-four days during the month of August thirty-three car loads of lumber, beside delivering to Patton about 100,000 feet of lumber as local orders.

George Bittner, of Lincoln township, Somerset county, met with a very serious accident on Monday of last week. He was going down the hill on a traction engine when the machinery broke and the engine started down the hill at a lively rate.

Peter Gramley, a farmer residing near Rosecrans, Clinton county, lost two horses very suddenly the other afternoon. One of the horses was suddenly taken sick and laid down. He went to the house of a neighbor for assistance and when he returned to the field the other horse was sick. The animals both died in a short time.

Over in Clarior at the recent term of court the constables were not paid for making their returns. The officers held a meeting and will have the superior court rule on the constitutionality of the Act of Assembly May, 1905.

The fight between J. D. Hicks and Joseph E. Thropp for the Bedford county seat, in the Republican conference of the Twenty-third congressional district, will be decided by State Chairman John P. Elkin.

James Green, a maniac, whose home is in Altoona, recently escaped from the Harrisburg asylum and made his way to his home in that city. Early on Sunday morning he gained entrance to his wife's home and tried to murder her and her child with an ax.
