

LABOR UNREST FOREMAN

Great Labor Demonstration in Chicago.

MADE A NON-PARTISAN SPEECH.

An Enthusiastic Audience of Many Thousands Present.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—The crowd gathered at Sharpshooter's park, the spot selected for the labor picnic, very slowly.

At 2:30 o'clock a mighty shout went up from the throng as the speaker stepped forward.

He desired to thank the Building and Trades council for the opportunity which they had extended to me to speak before the assembled labor day.

I desire to thank the Building and Trades council for the opportunity which they had extended to me to speak before the assembled labor day.

Let me quote you what another American has said in speaking of the laborer.

These are the words of Abraham Lincoln. They are words of a man who was a great truth that is always to be remembered.

And the common people are the only people who have ever heard and read the words of a man who was a great truth that is always to be remembered.

Let me dwell for a moment upon the object of government. In the land it is our best that our government should be just power from the consent of the governed.
