Thousands of Ohioans Enthused by His Oratory. SPOKE AT TIFFIN THIS MORNING.

Dragged Out by the Crost in Spite of His Long Siege of Speechmaking-Given a Great Demonstration at Youngelows. At Other Places

BRYAN'S GREAT TRIP

TIFFIN, O., Oct 21 - Not withstand ing W. J Bryan got to bed at 2 o'clock at Zanesville yesterday morning and had been speaking since 7 o'clock, he was dragged out to speak to a big crowd at Tiffin this morning

The arrangements at Akron yester day were had The candidate could not even get the carriage provided for him, but had to catch one on the out skirts of the crowd

After leaving Akron, he addresses enthusiastic audiences at Megina Elyria and Sandusky

At Alliance several thousand people listened to the Democratic candidate for 20 minutes It was an appreciative crowd and applauded the speaker often The speech was a workingman's speech and was delivered to an audience composed for the most part of workingmen There was another good crowd at Ra venna, when Mr Bryan received another enthusiastic demonstration At Kent there was a repetition of the crowd at Ravenna.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 21 - William J. Bryan received a flattering reception at Youngstown Here he found the largest crowd he had encountered dur ing the day, his admirers in Youngs town having their numbers increased from the outlying districts of Ohio and Pennsylvania. There were free silver clubs here from McDonald, Pa., and from several points in Ohto.

Mr. Bryan spoke three times in Youngstown, the first being from stand erected in the public square, the next in the Opera house, where he ad dressed the women, and the last near the Pennsylvania depot, where he spoke from the carriage. At each of the meet ings the crowd was large and enthusi astic.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Oct. 21.-The trip. of Candidate William J. Bryan through the Ohio Valley district along the bankof the Ohio was one punctuated here and there with cheers for his opponent and sandwiched in the crowds were many Republican badges There was a good crowd at Bellaire and it was ar enthusiastic one

At Bridgeport, the wearers of the yellow badges were numerous, but the shouters for the triple nominee were strong enough to drown the cheers for the Republican candidate

Martin's Ferry turned out a crowd which was to good extent hostile to the views of the candidate. There were stops at Yorkville and Brilliant and at those places Mr. Bryan simply appeared on the platform and acknowledged the receptions given him.

Steubenville has been visited by the union generals' car and one of the speakers attacked the pension record of

Mr Brygn When the nominee a rived there he answered the statements made by saying he was a better friend of the soldiers than those who wished to submit the financial policy of this this nation to the dictation of foreign powers. There was a good sized crowd gathered about the car and in the rear some boys wearing gold badges kept up a cheer for McKinley which Mr. Bryan interpreted as an at tempt to break up the meeting. He went after them in his speech.

ROCHESTER, Pa., Oct. 21 .- Pennsyl vania was invaded by Mr. Bryan at this place. It was distinctly a Bryan crowd and it showed its approval of the doctrines advocated by Mr. Bryan by shouting and cheering and applauding every time they had an opportunity There were short stops at New Brighton and Kenwood.

Several hundred people listened to the nominee at Toronto. O. There was more enthusiasm here than at any other place of the morning, taking into con sideration the size of the crowd They cheered the speaker and shouted their approval of what he said. One enthusi astic McKinleyite bore aloft a portrait of the Republican nominee, which wasurmounted by a cage in which was confined a raccoon. The yellow badges were few and the silverites many and enthusiastic.

Wellsville, O., is in Major Mc Kinley's congressional district and is a Republican stronghold. That was ap parent when Mr. Bryan arrived here, for while he had a large crowd, it was made up, for the most part, of shouting, enthusiastic McKinleyites

Yellow predominated at East Liver-pool, O. The Democratic nominee ad dressed a large crowd at this place. He had trouble in making himself heard on account of the loud cheering for his opponent. Every manifestation of affection for the Republican nominewas answered by defiance, yells and cheers of the supporters of the free silver champion.

At Youngstown, after Mr Bryan had made a brief speech at the Opera house. he was presented with an immense bas ket of white and yellow chrysanthe-mums in bunches of 16 white ones to 1 yellow. The presentation was made by two little girls dressed in white and yel low. Mr. Bryan acknowledged the gift as follows :

I appreciate the kindly feelings which rise behind these floral gifts and I do not accept them as any personal tribute to no or to her who has shared my struggles and shall share all honors that may come, but rather as an indication of your interest in that creat cause for which, at this time the presidential nominee I stand, My friends, last Sunday morning I heard
