-We are in receipt of an address with a request to publish which was intended to have been delivered to the people of Gallitzin by Mr. F. J. Donoughe, a wellknown citizen of Gallitzin township, but owing to its length-three columns-and the late hour of its receipt we are unable to comply with the request.

-Our readers may expect to receive the FREEMAN a day late next week as in accordance with our usual custom we will hold back to get the official election returns of the county. On account of the great length of the ticket the probability is that the returns will not be completed until late on Thursday night of next week.

-John Rhoades, a former resident of Summerhill township, died in the Almshouse on Monday morning, aged 29 years. The deceased while working in the Cambria yard, in Johnstown, met with an aceident and had his back broken about a year ago. He was soon after admitted to the almshouse. He leaves a wife and two plaing Republican primary small children.

-Here is a way to rob a behive of hone and avoid being stand. Just hold your breath. Simple and easy enough, and the only reason it hasn't been tried more often is that few people know of it. Even the bullet-like hornet cannot injure you if you just stop breathing for a moment. In fact you can pick him up and watch his stinging apparatus vainly work, for he can't puncture your skin any more than he can sheet iron.

-The state department has discovered an important omission in the Baker ballot law. The original act required county commissioners to print on the ballots the names and addresses of candidates. The act of 1893 omitted this requirement in one section, but retained it in another. It was decided by the state department to certify names and residences to county commissioners, but they will not be required to neint residences on the ballots

-After being out twenty-four hours, the inry in the United States district court at Pittsburg, returned a verdict last Friday in the case against Samuel Moorhead and James McDermott, of Indiana county, charged with counterfeiting, acquitted Moorhead on both indictments and convicting McDermott on the charge of having in his possession a mold for making counterfeit silver dollars. He was recom mended to the mercy of the court.

-Mrs. Elizabeth Leary, widow of Wil liam Leary, died at her home in Bedford, Saturday evening, October 17th, aged 83 years. Her remains were interred in the Bedford cemetery on Monday afternoon, the funeral being conducted by her pastor. Rev. W. W. She is survived by the the following children: James M., Rebecca, Philip B., William B. Leary and Mrs. E. Simpson, of Woodbury; Mrs. M. Potter, of Cessna, and M. L. Leary. Esq., of Chest Springs.

Lost an Arm on the Railroad.

John Smith, a South Fork miner, and a party of friends deciced to attend the Republican meeting at Conemaugh on Satur day night, and, having missed the passenger train, they determined to go down on a freight. One finally came along, and, though going at a lively rate. Smith attempted to board it near the South Fork station, when he was thrown under the wheels, his left arm being horrible crushed and his head and body being cut and bruised.

Smith was taken to the Memorial hospi al, Johnstown, and on Sunday Drs. J. . Sheridan and W. B. Lowman amputated the injured arm above the elbow. Although resting fairly well on Monday, Smith is a very sick man and the outcome of this case cannot yet be predicted. He was just getting over a sick spell and had not gained sufficient strength to return to work when the accident happed, hence his weakened condition makes his present case more serious than it would otherwise have been. He is a single man, about 30 years, and was employed as a miner in the Frazer is manager, have been at liberty to purchase our goods where we pleased, and not one of our number know of anyone having been discharged for reason of this kind, and we regret that Mr. Fraser does not have the same authority at other mines that he has at the Spangler colliery. If that was the case there would be little use for company stores in this town. The smaller mer chants could make a living and the town be more prosperous. Attacked and Treed by a Bear.

A. B. Probst, of Williamsport, Joseph Probst, of South Williamsport, Robert Trumbower and G. M. Frev, of Muncy. while on a hunting expedition near Huntersville, a few weeks ago, were attacked by a female bear. One of the men began peppering the animal wita his revolver. which had the effect of making the ani mal more ferocious. Eight shots in al were fired point blank at the bear and then ensued a scene of the greatest excitement The men were chased from one point to another by the enraged animal, the lumbermen only by the greatest agility escaping from the clutches of the bear. Finally the men sought refuge in a pine tree, where they were kept cornered for several hours. About the middle of the afternoon three woodsmen returning to their homes, discovered the predicament which the treed men wert in and attempted a rescue. They attacked the bear with their double | chinery and has started in on the manubitted axes, and after a desperate struggle facture of his patent wrench. He has a killed it. If Mr. Itell would add, but the weight of a feather, to the present business depression and the crushing weight of unequal, unjust and unchristian taxation now oppressing labor, appropriating the substance of the farmers and stealing the earnings of the people, he should not be Replying to your letter addressed to one sent to the legislature. But before this monopoly organ can, consistantly, ask this from the farmers, it must be shown and been compelled to deal in any particular clearly proven that Mr. Itell now advostore, we wish to say that we have always cates or has advocated some platform or principle that would work injury to the farmer.

It is in harmony with the morals of monopoly organs to make indecent attacks upon reform candidates while excusing and upholding men of questionable official probity and honor who served in the last general assembly. Candidates who return to their constituents loaded to overflowing with the odium of honorable men in their party and with the execrations of the people for their Simpson, Louis Clemenson, James A. Kir-patrick, Stephen Kapiaka, Jacob Gray, and corporation demands are, alone, upheld by them. The organ making a wanton attack upon an humble and patriotic citizen seeking to reform monopoly abuse in Pennsylvania, is callious to virtue and naught but "treason, stratagem and spoils," superinduced by malice. Such complacent monopoly organs, creatures of its special privilege class, must explain to the farmers, the people, just why taxation based on land values prrespective of improvements-the labor on the land-is a bad and wicked thing or the farmers and Jefferson Itell" and flock to his standard to remain.

This unchristian und uncharitable ma-

ligner of Mr. Itell, !ike everyone of their class, does not understand, in the least particular, the principles of taxation based on land values irrespective of improvements-commonly called single tax. employ of Duncan & Spangler, that it was distinctly understood that I was to have tack on a man enabled by his reform character, who will reflect credit on the farmer and laborer by yoting for him and who will leave nothing undone in the cause of the people if sent to the legislations affecting this or any other matter | ture that will cause the voters anguish or regret. Mr. Itell is blessed with a good, just and noble cause, plenty of money for the people, and with a matchless name-Jefferson-which speaks its own defence as it always burls defiance to time-serving editors and the cohorts of our foreign plutocracy. I wish to say to the free and honest farmers and laboring men, to those who vote for principle in the interests of Before me the subscriber, a Justice of the commonwealth, that when "Thomas the Peace, for Cambria county, personally appeared James Meehan, a citizen of the borough of Spangler, after being sworn acvain to give an account of his stewartship. He will not be so base and cowardly as to slink and cringe from the scrutiny of the people-who may commission him their servant-when yoters in his party, the people, call on him to answer their questions seek silence and evasion, the refuge criminals, in order to hide his official acts from the public gaze. It is litting and eminently becoming of a writer in an obsiquous organ and monopoly tribute sheet to declare a falsehood that Mr. Itell advocates "that all taxes should be raised from improved lands," when no thought or word uttered by him could so construed. In this cause of christianity it is to be regretted that men should have to sacrifice character, religion and truth when serving mammon, special privilege and monopoly.

Christianity teaches us that "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor." But this single gold standard bids its minions stultify themselves, deny their former free silver convictions, and speak falsely against Thomas Jefferson Itell. Because he is an honest, manly outspoken man, opposes monopoly in all its bideous varied forms and the devices and makeshifts of their organs to defraud the

I advise the defamer of Mr. Itell, first, make an honorable retraction. Then read 'Progress and Poverty" and study the question therein ably showing the absolute justice and equity for basing all taxation on land values irrespective of the labor thereon. Finally, like a soul redeemed, say to the people of Cambria county that Stineman, Patterson and Reese, hav ing failed to answer the five questions put to them by Republican voters it is therein a plain, patriotic, christian and Republican duty to ignore these creatures of corporations at the polls. Then bid the farmers perform a duty, seek their friend, and vote for the legislative candidate who will aim to advance the price of farm productand decrease railroad fares from 3 cents to 1 cent-vote for Thomas Jefferson Itel!.
