-The annual meeting of the State Board of Agriculture and general Farmer's institute will be held in the supreme court nom, Harrisburg, on January 27th and to continue its existence or disband. -On Wednesday afternoon of last week the little son and daughter of T. W. Reisnger were playing in an upstairs room of their home, at Morrellville. The little girl sicked up a place of paper and lighted it at the stove. She then threw the burning aper on the floor, and her little brother. who was still wearing dresses, tried to stamp out the fire. The little fellow's ress caught, and in a few seconds he was urned so badly that he died on Thursday.

The convention of the State Judiciary and district Examining Boards was held at Philadelphia last week and after a day of consulting they adjourned to meet at Cresson next summer. A resolution was ntroduced looking to the removal of the icense power from the hands of the judge. Every man was opposed to the resolution and the following was adopted: Resolved. That a committee of nine be appointed to consider the advisability and practicability of adopting uniform rules of practice

-Spring is a better time to set trees than fall, because at that season, trees are beginning to grow, and will therefore, be in a condition to respond more readily to creatment, while in fall they are unlikely o establish themselves before cold weather ets in. Preserve the roots to the fullest extent, and do not disturb the tree until after it has ripened and has shed its foliage. If the roots are cut away as they are almost invariably are in spring planting, e sure to cut back the top poportionately. Ladies' Home Journal.

-The Pennsylvania Railroad company has placed its orders for a portion of its steel rail supply for 1897. The contracts awarded are as follows: Cambria Iron ompany, 10,000 tons; Pennsylvania Steel ompany, 10,000; Lackawanna Iron & Steel company, 4,000 tons. The price at which these orders have been placed is $25 | a number of concerns, his last connection per ton, the current price. The orders just placed represent one-half of the actnal amount that will be required by the company during the coming year, and the balance, as is customary, will be ordered during the coming summer.

-Philip Thomas, a well-known citizen of Elder township, died very suddealy at his home December 21st, about '3 o'clock. Deceased was born on a farm near St. Lawrence, on July 30, 1835, and was aged a little more than 61 years. He is survived by his wife, four sons and three daughters, all of whom are married except Jacob, the youngest son. Five brothers and three sisters also survive him-Jacob, John D. Michael, Valentine and Martin; Mrs. Martin Yahner, Mrs. C. A. Langbein and Mrs-George Kibbler, all of whom are residents of northern Cambria county, and among the best known people in that section.

Vincent was killed here December 31st in a pottery kiln while asleep. McClure declares be had $1. searched for Vincent for three years, following him from place to place to kill him. In 1893 Vincent assaulted him in Rochester, Pa., and he swore vengeance. Brooding over the injury doubtless caused insanity, for this corresponds with the testimony given by Vincent's friends, McCue went with the officers and recovered the coupling pin he killed Vincent with. He is proud of the crime and says he has only killed the devil. The spirit told him to divide himself up and he did so. He will plead guilty of murder if the spirit tells him to do so.

After he killed Vincent he went to early mass at St. Vincent's church and says he has spent his time in prayer since then McCue's parents are dead and he has some property in Johnstown, still in his guardians hands. Vincent was also known as Spencer and Provery. He came of a respectable family. Cornelius Carroll, a tramp, who heard McCue tell Vincent he had not long to live, is under arrest as a

John Rodgers, a well-known resident of Altoona, died very suddenly at 8:35 o'clock Monday evening, December 28, 1896, at his home, 1003 Green avenue, of paralysis He was in his ordinary health at noon on Monday, but about 3 P. M., was seized with vomiting. Dr. J. U. Blose, who was summoned, pronounced the case very serious but his sudden death was a shock to every-

The deceased was born in Ebensburg, Cambria county, February 11, 1833. He went to Altoona twenty-four years ago, and for a time followed the trade of carpentering. Later he became the agent of being with the Steward Iron company of Cincinnati, Ohio. About forty years ago he was married in Ebensburg to Miss Annie M. Daily, who survives with the following children: Laura, John, Jennie and Charles, all at home. One brother and two sisters are also yet living: Mrs. Harriet Weisgarver, of Altoona; Mrs. Jane Singer, of Jackson township; this county, and Lewis Rodgers, of Ebensburg. The deceased was a member of post 468, Grand Army of the Republic. He served during the late war with company I, 78th Pennsylvania volunteers, and left an honorable record behind when discharged. The remains were brought to Ebensburg on Wednesday morning of last week and interred in Lloyd's cemetery.

School Teacher Outraged. Miss Lunda Stephens, an orphan girl and a daughter of the late David Stephens, of Cherryhill township, is the teacher at the "Stephens school," located midway between Greenville and Pike's Peak, in the

The villain seized her, bound her with ropes and outraged her.

Miss Lunda boarded at the home of Mrs. J. D. Stephens, not far from the school house. Her landlady was alarmed at the teacher's long absence, and finally persnaded her son, Mr. A. H. Stephens, to go to the school house. When he arrived at the building the girl came staggering toward him. Her face, neck and hands were covered with blood, and as he approached nearer she fell to the ground unconscious. He summoned assistance, and the injured $1,917. woman was carried to the house of Mr. Samuel Bowser, nearby. A doctor was speedily summoned, and rendered all the cessary aid. When she recovered consciousness she was only able, in a bewildered way, to narrate the foregoing. In the school room was found three pieces of rope, soiled with blood, and which had evidently been used in binding the limbs of the girl. At ten o'clock this morning the teacher, inder the influence of opiates, was sleep ing quietly. Suspicion is rapidly fastening upon a young man who lives in the vicinity and who has scarcely reached the age of 30 years,-Indiana Messenger.

Tours to Florida.

No district in America presents, during the winter season, so many various attractions as the state of Florida. Besides was held for the purpose of swearing in its delightful climate which to one escaping from the cold and unhealthful changes of the North seems almost ethereal, it is pre eminently a land of sport and pleasure. Along its eleven hundred miles of salt water coast and in its twelve hundred fresh water lakes are fish of almost every onceivable variety, from the migratory tribes common to Northern waters to the tarpon, pompano and others of a more tropical character. Nowhere in all our broad land can the angler find a greater variety of game or better sport. Here also the most enthusiastic hunter finds satiety. Deer, turkeys, bears, panthers, and wild cats roam at large through the more sparsely settled regions, while birds of all kinds may be found is abun dance throughout the state. The more novel sport of alligator and manatee hunting may also be indulged in by the more dventurous tourist. With its matchless climate, its orange groves, its rivers and lakes, its boating and bathing, its fishing and hunting, and its extensive forests, Florida presents unrivled attractions for the valetudinarian, the lover of nature, the sportsman and the

To this attractive state the Pennsylvania Railroad company has arranged four personally-conducted tours during the season of 1897, leaving by special train January 26th, February 9th and 23d, and March 9th. Let Us Reason a Little.

If your horse casts a shoe, you get a horse sheer to reset it. If you need a perplexing legal question solved, you go to a lawyer. If you fall ill you have a Doctor to tell you wha to take. It is their Experience and Skill You Pay For.

WE HAVE THE BEST.

Then why make an exception in the purchase of your Drug? If you have a family recipe or a prescription to fill, Spices, Flavoring Extracts, Drugs, Patent Medicines, or anything to purchase that a store devoted to Drugs may keep. Isn't it folly o confound quality with quantity and get an inferior article.
