

Local and Personal.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Ann, wife of George Lantz, died at her home in Allegheny township, on Friday, February 12, 1897, from pneumonia, aged 52 years. She is survived by her husband and fourteen children. Her remains were interred in the cemetery on Monday, her six sons acting as pall bearers. The amount of the estate is not mentioned in the will.

—The will of the late George B. Roberts, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and admitted to probate last week, was admitted to probate last week. The bulk of the estate is left to the widow and children of the testator, and $45,000 is to go to several charities. The amount of the estate is not mentioned in the will.

Her remains were interred in the cemetery on Monday, her six sons acting as pall bearers. The amount of the estate is not mentioned in the will.

—A few days since, John, a 13-year-old son of Lewis Heintzner, of Cane township, Indiana county, was passing through a wood in which some men were felling trees. A tree was about to fall in his direction, and he was called to him, but he failed to hear them and was felled on him, killing him almost instantly.

—J. W. Loper, of Duncannon, a brakeman employed on the Middle Division, had his left foot crushed in the yard at Altoona on Monday morning while making a coupling. His foot slipped on the ice, and the man entered the tank when Loper was removed to the hospital where it was found necessary to amputate the leg above the ankle.

—About 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning the heavy stove of Mr. D. J. O'Hara, in Wilmore, caught fire in some mysterious manner and despite the efforts of the neighbors who hurriedly gathered to the scene and went to work with a will, the building was soon reduced to ashes. All the horses and carriages were gotten out. The loss is estimated at $300, with no insurance.

—Mr. Robert McDowell, a well-known citizen of Johnstown, died at the home of his wife, Mrs. James Thomas, in that city, on Sunday morning, aged 70 years. Mr. McDowell was born in Ireland, and came to this country in 1817, along with the late Robert Murray and located in Ebensburg. He taught school for several years, and then removed to Johnstown. He was never married.

—John Walsh, of Altoona, was being lowered into a well at Duncannon, when the chain by which he was clinging broke and he was precipitated to the bottom of the well, 50 feet below, and remained there for some time. His two legs were broken and his back badly sprained. He also received internal injuries. He is being treated at the Altoona hospital.

—A Lloydsville man writes thus to an Altoona paper: "A short distance below this town, just beside the public road, there is a grass spring flowing from the mountain rocks. It happens that the line between the two townships runs through or right over the spring, dividing it equally, for which reason it is known far and near as the County Line Spring. Mr. Harris, who is a present zoning up here in the mountains, suggests that it would be entirely proper for the commissioners of the two townships to jointly appropriate sufficient funds to dig out and wall up this famous old fountain. A small pavilion over it would also be a decidedly necessary improvement. This grand old watering place deserves to be better cared for, not only for the good it has done in the past, but for the benefit it may afford the present and future generations of the genus homo—and the noble horse."

Wedding Bells.
 Mr. Lewis Hall and Miss Loretta, of Altoona, were married at 10 o'clock on Monday night at the Catholic church, in that city. The bride was attended by Rev. Father Kittell. The attendants were Mr. John Ivory, brother of the groom and Miss Della Nell, of Gallitzin. Some very fine music was rendered at the church during mass and after mass by Miss Annie Kruefner, of Nicktown. A delicious wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride—Mr. Otto Beter, of Loretto—where a number of friends and relatives sat down to the happy couple.
