HE WAS SARCASTIC TO PALMER.

Han a Hot Exchange of Words With Pettigrew-Predicts Defeat For the Republicans Four Years Hence If Beforms Are Not Inaugurated.

W WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. - Senator Chandler's speech in the senate in advocacy of bimetallism was one of the notable efforts of the present session.

The early part of the speech was a presentation of the principles of finance, the senator arguing against a single standard of either metal, silver or gold.

He traced the gradual demonetization of silver, the closing of our mints against the silver dollar in 1873, the efforts to restore silver, and the serious blow struck by England against silver in closing the Indian mints. But it remained for Secretary Carlisle, the senator declared to strike the most fatal blow at silver, in issuing his order that the government would redeem its paper obligations in gold only. By that act Secretary Carlisle struck out of use a vast amount of silver and drew on the depleted world's supply of gold and gave the final blow to silver. From the effects of this low depth to which it has been reduced by the demonetization of silver, bimetallism must now begin its toilsome struggle upward. Mr. Chandler took up the fall of prices, particularly in farm products, resulting from silver demonetization. The senator declared that within the last 20 years there had been a steady fall of prices in all classes of property. His own convictions, that silver monetization was at the bottom of this downward movement in prices, caused him to seriously doubt whether the era of restored prosperity was near at hand. He was led to the conclusion, he said. that prices had not yet "touched bot-

This shrinkage in prices had been most serious since 1890. The value of property in the United States was sixtyfive thousand millions in 1890, now it was estimated at forty-nine thousand millions, a shrinkage of 25 per cent since 1800. Our debts had not shrunk, but remained an inexorable charge. Deducting them, the value of our property was cut down to thirty-three thousand millions. Can this proceed? asked the senator, without widespread bank-He was of the opinion that the gradual tendency was to leave debtors without the power of paying their debts, until by a gradual revolution the assets of debtors were absorbed by cred-

If it had not been for the fortunate balance of trade in our favor during the past year, he said, there would have been a business cataclysm in this country which would have prostrated all interests and produced infinite misery in our business and domestic affairs. It was because gaunt famine stalked through India that trade was favorable to us, for this horror of the Orient had proved a benefit to us. For these reasons, Mr. Chandler said, turning toward Mr. Palmer (Dem., Ills.), who sat near, he was opposed to such declarations for a permanent gold standard as that enunciated by the Indianapolis convention.

At one point Mr. Chandler caused much amusement by addressing himself to Mr. Palmer, who sat across the aisle. The New Hampshire senator had read a list of standard authorities on bimetallism, and then turning to Mr. Palmer he presented the Illinois senator a copy of the list, saving he felt it would be helpful to the candidate of the Indianapolis convention. Mr. Chandler said silver monometal-lism had led to the defeat of Bryan. The other element of the Democratic party had selected Palmer and Buckner on a single gold standard platform. It had resulted in giving to these estimable candidates 136,000 votes in total of 14,000,000 votes. Nevertheless. said Mr. Chandler, the assistance of these old-fashioned gentlemen in the election of Mr. McKinley was in a worthy cause.

Mr. Palmer remained in his seat across the aisle, smiling occasionally at Mr. Chandler's sarcastic allusions to This, however, was but the prelude to a sensational episode between Mr. Chandler and Mr. Pettigrew. The New Hampshire senator said

Mr. Pettigrew had been sent to the St. Louis convention on a pledge that he would support McKinley and "sound money." And yet within two weeks that senator had repudiated his pledge, had bolted McKinley and a sound money platform and soon thereafter had come out as a supporter of Bryan. Mr. Pettigrew had entered the chamber as this statement was made. He advanced to his seat and interrupted. "Do you make that statement on your own authority or as a quotation?" he

"I make the statement," answered Mr. Chandler, "taking it from the newspaper reports which are understood to have given a correct statement

Mr. Pettigrew, with explosive emphasis, replied: "I brand that statement as wholly and unqualifiedly false in every part. I have made that explicit denial before and have placed it in the record, so that the senator (Chandler) should know it is absolutely "I understand the senator (Pettigrew) declares the statement wholly false. Does he mean to say he was not in a convention which named him as a McKinley delegate." "I say," interrupted Mr. Pettigrew vehemently, "that the purpose of your statement is absolutely and wholly

"Ah, the 'purpose' of my statement is what the senator questions. Now I ask him whether he attended a convention favorable to sound money and was named as delegate by such a convention?" "I was a delegate," said Mr. Petti grew cslmly. "Then I do not understand this performance of the sentor," proceeded Mr. Chandler. "There is not so wide a difference between us as might appear. He declared that my statement was wholly false. He admits he went to the national convention as a delegat from a sound meney convention." Mr. Pettigrew declared that he had made his position perfectly clear before the state convention prior to his being chosen as a delegate. The incident was brief but was emphasized by the personal manner in which the senators addressed each other.

Mr. Chandler resuming the thread of his remarks, spoke of the opportunities ahead of the Republican administration in checking the money power and limiting corporate influences. In conclusion he said : "I declare my belief that President McKinley and the other leaders of the party, in their advirtuous deeds indefinitely prolong the ascendancy of the Republican party in this country. This can surely be done by making it the party of the people to those pretenders the blind leaders of the blind, who were so summarily on the 3d of November last, all thrown into the ditch together. "If, on the contrary, this is not done and the Republican party shall content itself with seizing and enjoying the spoils of office, surrendering unreservedly to the money power which so effectively contributed to its recent victory, acquiescing permanently in the existing gold standard and treating bimetallism as a 'juggling humbug' and the promise to promote it as a pledge never intended to be fulfilled, Republicans will speedily find the tide of political battle once more turned against them and they will soon exchange places with their now sore, bleeding and prostrate foes.

To the coming triumphant president, hopeful and over-confident, rejoicing as a strong man to run a race and to his chosen advisers soon to challenge all the adverse currents of the future, I cannot help saying warn ingly concerning the pending worldwide controversy over the burning question of money: Unsettled ques-tions pay no heed to the repose of 'Too wise today; 'tiz madness nations. to defer."

Like a Coward. Sr. Louis, Feb. 17.—Peter Schmidt and Sam Foster, colored, have been hanged at Clayton. Peter Schmidt, who is only 16 years old, was swung off first. He died gamely, with a sullen look on his face and without any sign of repentance. Sam Foster, the big brutal negro who followed him to death 15 minutes later, was so weak that he almost had to be carried to the scaffold. His lips quivered and his eyes filled with tears as the black cap was drawn over his head. Both died almost in-

Reorganization. CHICAGO, Feb. 17 .- Charles N. Crewson of the University of Chicago, who was prominently connected with the Bryan League of College League clubs during the late campaign, has received a letter from Chairman James K. Jones of the Democratic National committee, preing upon him the importance of reorganizing the clubs and starting at once a "camaign of education" in the interests of free silver for the presidential election of 1900. Senator Jones further stated that he had written similar letters to educational institutions in various parts of the country. He said it was the intention to make Harvard college the head of the reorganization and work in the east, the University of California on the Pacific coast. Figured at Folton, Ills. Fulton, Ills., Feb. 17.-A sensational encounter resulted from a decision by the appellate court in the injunction case as to the removal of the office of the head clerk of the Modern Woodmer of America from this place to Rock Island, Ills., the court deciding adversely to Fulton. A mob of over 60 Rock Islanders, with Mayor Knox, W. J. Egan, John Rinck and others arrived on a special train and went direct to the Woodmen office, seized the recordand started to board the train for Roci Island. Citizens discovered it and re monstrated without avail. The visitors also disregarded the police. Then the fire department turned out closed the rear entrance to the build ing with a stream of water and locked the front entrance, trapping the Rock Islanders. The latter chopped the door down, but firemen drove them back They were prisoners for two hours and were finally forced to restore the records to the building. Meanwhile an injunction had been secured and the train was held. The unwelcome visit ors were at length allowed to depart crestfallen. Fulton will appeal the case to the supreme court and will figh to the end.

Sustained the President's Veto. WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.-Thirty-nine bills in all were passed at the house session. For the first time this session the house, on a vote, declined to override a pension veto submitted to it for action. The bill was that to pension Nancy G. Allabach, the widow of Peter H. Allabach of the One Hundred and Thirtyfirst Pennsylvania volunteers, at the rate of $30 per month. The house sustained the veto-115 to 79-the requisite two-thirds not voting to override the veto.

The Powers Order the Vacation of Crete.

REPLIES THAT SHE CANNOT.

The Cretaus Have Declared Allegiance to the Little Nation-Popular Clamor Also In the Way-A Probable Solution of the Problem.

Canea, Island of Crete, Feb. 17 .-Greece has evidently gotten into a tight place. The European powers, it is believed, have ordered her to vacate Crete. She has replied that she cannot reverse her policy, as she has gone too far, besides popular feeling in Greece will not allow it.

Will Europe force her to retire, is the question. Another fact that holds Greece to her policy is the declaration of the Cretans that they are prepared to shed the last drop of their blood in order to attain their nation's aspirations, which, they add, cannot be satisfied with anything short of complete nnion with Greece,

The foreign ministers, the German representative excepted, have collectively advised the government to recall the fleet and troops.

A statement from Governor Hastings covers his views and those of the attorney general in these matters as they will be transmitted to the legislature next

He favors putting up separate buildings, one reason being that in two years a legislative building could be erected while a general building would require four or five years to erect. He is opposed to moving from Harrisburg, as it would cost too much.

FILLING AN ORDER FOR JAPAN. A Philadelphia Company Make a Big Steel Smokestack.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.—The Philadelphia Engineering company will in a few days ship overland to San Francisco and thence to Japan an immense steel plate smokestack to equip a large new electric light plant in Yokohama. The stack is a huge affair, being 175 feet high and 7 feet 3 inches in diameter in the clear, weighing over 90,000 pounds. There are few larger steel stacks in this country than the one for the Japanese plant.

The contract for the stack was awarded by S. H. Ishida, a Japanese engineer who is in this country representing the Yokohama company. Several Philadelphia firms have received contracts for the machinery equipment of the plant.
