

Freeman. Mr. Editor:—In the last issue of the Freeman I see a communication from Mr. G. Huntley, late school director, and I am glad to note the facts set forth in my former communication corroborated. There is some little difference in the details but anyone reading either my communication or that of Mr. Huntley will come to the conclusion that the Ebensburg school building is not what it should be, and in its construction the interests of the contractor were better looked after than the interests of the taxpayers. So much so that Mr. Huntley concluded to resign, as he says, rather than "have any hand in taking the job off the contractor's hands."

A Perfect Tour to Perfect Florida.
As Florida this season of the year is the most attractive and delightful section of the Atlantic slope, so the Pennsylvania railroad at all times is the most attractive and delightful route of travel. First in its equipment and service, it is also first in its tourist system. Admirably indeed does it convey its patrons to its land of health and beauty. Special trains of Pullman palace cars are provided, all conveniences afforded, and everything possible done to add to the ease and comfort of the journey.
The next and last tour of the season to Jacksonville will leave New York at Philadelphia March 9th. Tourists may return by regular trains until May 31, 1897. Round-trip tickets, including Pullman accommodations and meals on the train, will be sold at the following rates: From New York, $50.00; Philadelphia, $48.00; Harrisburg, $45.00; Erie, $42.50; Pittsburg, $40.00; and at proportionate rates from other points.
For tickets and itineraries apply to ticket agents. Tourist agent, 11th Broadway, New York, or Geo. W. Lloyd, agent, 200 North York street, Harrisburg. Broad Street station, Philadelphia.
McKinley Passes Through.
President William McKinley, in a superb special train, passed through Altoona at 3:05 this Tuesday morning. There were but few people at the depot at the time, and no demonstration was made whatever. A few of the presidential party gazed sleepily out of the windows, and a few members of the guard of honor descended to the ground, but that was all. A squad of the Cleveland troop National guard of Ohio is acting as a personal guard for the president and his family, while a number of detectives, lynx-eyed and alert, are constantly close to him.
A special train bearing the Cleveland guard of honor on inauguration day, passed through the city at 11:40 last night. The train is 35 cars long and is commanded by Captain E. E. Barker. The train was made up of eleven cars, five stock cars containing the horses, one baggage car, a dining car and four Pullman coaches. The train will lodge in the train while in Washington.
The presidential train remained at the depot but five minutes and then passed on westward.—Altoona Tribune.
To Retain Salaries.
On Monday Senator Walton introduced in the Senate at Harrisburg a bill reducing the pay of county commissioners, prothonotaries, county clerks, county treasurers, and registers and recorders of deeds, including counties having cities of the first, second and third class, nor counties having special laws fixing the salaries of said officers. The salaries per year in counties having a population of 75,000 and upward are as follows: Prothonotaries, $4,000; clerks of court, $3,000; register and recorder, $3,000; county commissioners, $1,000; county treasurer, $1,000. In counties having a population of 50,000 and upward these salaries are fixed: Prothonotary, $2,000; clerk of court, $1,500; register and recorder, $1,500; county commissioners, $800; county treasurer, $2,000. In counties having a population of less than 50,000 these are the salaries: Prothonotary, $1,500; clerk of court, $1,200; register and recorder, $1,200; county commissioners, $600; county treasurer, $1,500.
—Solomon Dumm, an old and respected citizen, died at the home of his son, Joseph, in Barr township, on Wednesday of last week, aged 82 years. Mr. Dumm was born in Berks county, Pa., April 18, 1815, and in 1832, when but eighteen years of age, moved to Carroll township, this county. Three, four years later, in 1827, he united in marriage with Miss Margaret Plankner, who preceded him to the grave forty-eight years ago. To this union were born six sons, five of whom are still living: Thomas P. Dumm, now in West Virginia; Daniel, of Carroll township; Henry S., and George A., of Barr township; and John S., who preceded him to the grave forty-eight years ago. To this union were born six sons, five of whom are still living: Thomas P. Trying to Save the Farmer.
At the veterinary department of the University of Pennsylvania a series of experiments is being conducted on some cows, under the direction of Dr. Leonard Pearson, state veterinarian. That will attract the attention of dairymen and sanitarians all over the country. These cows are afflicted with tuberculosis and are being treated with Koch's lymph and kept under good hygienic conditions. The experiment has been in operation for about two months, and the general appearance of the cows is very much better than when they were brought to the hospital.
The work is carried on under the auspices of the state live stock sanitary board for the purpose of determining whether cattle that are but slightly tuberculous can be practically safe to apply to any practical use.

Court Proceedings.
Court met on Monday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Barker on the bench. A number of motions and petitions were presented and the Quarter Sessions cases were called up and disposed of as follows:
Commonwealth vs. Thomas Stophel, fraudulent assignment. Jury acquitted the defendant but directed that he pay the costs.
Commonwealth vs. Joseph Javay, fornication and bastardy; Mary Hartnett prosecutrix. Defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20, costs, $20 lying-in expenses and the sum of $1 per week for seven years.
Commonwealth vs. Thomas Boyer, fornication and bastardy; Florence Thomas prosecutrix. Defendant pleaded guilty and received the usual sentence.
Commonwealth vs. Patrick Cronan, selling liquor without license. Defendant pleaded guilty but owing to the illness of his wife he was allowed to enter bail for his appearance at court on the 17th for sentence.
Commonwealth vs. John Ballia, prosecutrix. Mrs. Susannah Vasek, prosecutrix. Jury found defendant guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Charles Hetzel, forger. Defendant pleaded guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Edward Gallagher, fornication and bastardy; Ellen Mishler, prosecutrix. Defendant pleaded guilty and received the usual sentence.
Commonwealth vs. John Feathers, fornication and bastardy; Lizzie Moore prosecutrix. Defendant pleaded guilty. Usual sentence.
Commonwealth vs. Harry Hamilton, assault and battery. Jury find defendant guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs.
Commonwealth vs. Sanford P. Church, defrauding a boarding house keeper. Jury find defendant guilty and divided the costs between the defendant and the prosecutor, Peter Seymour.
Commonwealth vs. William S. Confer, of Portage, selling liquor on Sunday, selling to minors, et cetera, seven indictments. Defendant pleaded guilty on all indictments and the district attorney entered a nolo pro on the other four. Sentence suspended until March 17th. On Monday Confer had been granted a liquor license and upon his conviction on Tuesday the license was revoked.
Commonwealth vs. Annie Dawson, perjury, selling liquor without a license, and selling on Sunday. Jury found defendant not guilty on the charge of perjury and directed that the costs be paid by the prosecutor, F. S. Mahoy. She was found guilty on both the liquor charges.
Commonwealth vs. J. H. Scudder, fornication and bastardy; Susan M. Kimball prosecutrix. Defendant pleaded guilty and received the usual sentence.
Commonwealth vs. William Morris, carrying concealed weapons, following as a convict, and pointing a pistol. Jury found him guilty of carrying concealed weapons and pointing a pistol, but not guilty of felonious assault and battery. On the first conviction he was sentenced to pay a fine of $5, costs and twenty days in jail and on the second conviction $5 fine, costs and ten days in jail.
Commonwealth vs. Mrs. Nellie Dove, assault and battery. Jury found defendant not guilty and divided the costs between the defendant and Mrs. Maggie Thomas, the prosecutrix.
Commonwealth vs. Daniel Wilson, larceny. Jury found defendant guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Andrew Keith, felonious assault and battery. Jury found defendant not guilty.
Commonwealth vs. George Mangus, larceny. Jury find defendant not guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Daniel Wilson, larceny. Jury find defendant guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $10, costs and three months in jail.
Sheriff's Sales.
Sheriff Coulter disposed of the following properties at sheriff's sale at the court house on Monday:
All the right and title of Michael Papoz E. Gardner, of Harrisburg, Pa., to the land in Sumnerhill and Portage townships, was sold to the plaintiff, Mrs. M. A. Pringle, for $25.
For $30 the plaintiff, the Altoona Building and Loan Association, purchased the interest of Kath Hochman in a frame house and lot of ground in Barnesboro.
The Excelsior Building & Loan Association of Altoona purchased the lots of Erick Broberg, in Susquehanna township, and John Bergquist, in Hastings borough, for $10 apiece. Each of the lots have four-roomed houses on them.
Wallace Plummer paid $50 for the interest of Mary Ann Aulters in a four-roomed house and lot of ground in Sumnerhill borough. It was seized at the suit of J. B. Green, assignee of John Brown and wife, of Sumnerhill.
A tract of fifty acres of land, with a frame house and farm buildings, located in Portage township, the property of Lawrence Prockley, was seized at the suit of John H. Cramer and sold to the plaintiff for $25.
The sale of the property of Thomas Munroe, in Gallitzin borough; of J. F. Marks, in Carroll township, and H. J. Conway, in Gallitzin township, was stayed by the court.
The Gallitzin Building & Loan Association, the plaintiff in the suit, paid $30 for the title and interest of Michael D. Willis in a lot of ground and a nineteen-roomed building, an ice-house, warehouse, etc., in the borough of Ashville.
The sale of two properties of Thomas Dodson, located in Washington township, and of a tract of land in a suit of John Roushauer, in Cambria township, was stayed by the attorneys for the plaintiffs, the Gallitzin Building & Loan Association and the Conemaugh Building & Loan Association, respectively.
The plaintiff, the Westmoreland Guaranty Building & Loan Association of Pennsylvania, gave $25 for the right, title and interest of Clarence M. and Jeannette Shunkwiler in a lot of ground, storehouse and dwelling in the borough of Hastings.
John E. Holmberg's house and lot in Hastings borough was knocked to the plaintiff, the Excelsior Building & Loan Association, of Altoona, for $25.
A tract of land in Susquehanna township, seized at the suit of the Hastings Building & Loan Association as the property of Edward Eger, was sold to the plaintiff for $25.
The title of Anna Shoemaker in a house and lot of ground on Highland avenue, Johnstown, and the interest of Francis Leckey in two certain lots of ground in Lower Yoder township, was stayed by the plaintiff in the suits, the Citizens' Building & Loan Association, of Altoona, for $50 apiece.

DRESS GOODS AND SILKS.
In both these lines we claim the leadership of this end of the state and we take second place to no establishment in this country in the quality and cheapness of styles. Claims are easy to make and we do something more than make claims. We demonstrate that truth.
You will need either Dress Goods or Silks, or both, this Spring.
In justice to yourself, send for our samples and prices before you buy.
If it is an expensive but reliable fabric you are seeking send for samples of the fine dependable strictly all-wool goods we are selling at 25 cents, 35 cents and 50 cents a yard. All the new styles of the Spring.
If you wish to pay as high as $1.00 a yard
we can give you as wide a choice as that price as any store in this country. We can particularly recommend the "LANS-DOWNES" a famous mixture of silk and wool which is the silkiest and softest of all the combinations.
In Silks our line is complete in spring goods at prices from 25 cents up.
In the Wash Fabrics we have beautiful designs in Dimities and Hapitates at 8 cents a yard, and the imported goods in Organdies, Dimities and Embroidered Linens
at 25 cents a yard.
Whatever you wish, send us for samples of it; it costs you nothing but a stamp.
