M'KINLEY OF THE SAME MIND.

Disheartening to the Hungry Horde of Officeseekers-New Ambassadors to Be Named-Nobody Seems to Want to Be Minister to Spain-Hanna's Call.

WASHINGTON, March 10.-All of the officers of the new cabinet have indicated a purpose to go very slowly in the thange of personnel in their departments. This not very cheerful news to officeseekers has been communicated directly to many of the aspirants, who have been unable to repress their ambitions, and to add to their discomfort it is intimated in some quarters that there are to be a very few changes in office, save where the incumbent insists upon immediate retirement, for some time to come. This may be an overstatement of the conservatism exhibited by the administration, but it is recalled that Mr. McKinley before his inauguration held to the view that the change of officers with all of its accompanying confusion and disarrangement of business should not be undertaken until the tariff bill is enacted. This view is brought freshly to mind by the statement made that a prominent assistant secretary in one of the executive departments has been asked to remain in Huge bundles of applications for office were sent from the White House to the various departments. They comprised some 10,000 applications received at Canton by Secretary Boyle. He had been hard at work on them in advance, instead of waiting for the deluge of applications now coming in. With these 10,000 disposed of the officials were able for the first time to get abreast of the incoming mail. A rough estimate by Mr. Boyle, who is in charge of the correspondence, is that 98,000 letters have been handled within recent months. It is expected that today Mr. John Hay will be named ambassador to Great Britain and Mr. Horace Porter of New York ambassador to Paris and that there may be a few other nomina tions, including Mr. Powell Clayton of Arkansas, as minister to Mexico. One of the most important missions the president will have to fill will be that of minister to Spain. In view of the Cuban insurrection this post is one demanding the exercise of great tact and skill and the indications are that Mr. McKinley will go very slowly and deliberate in changing our minister there. Few of the thousands of applications for office mention this post, which seems not to be in great demand, and it is certain that up to Sunday Mr.

McKinley had no one in mind for it. President McKinley has definitely settled upon J. H. Brigham of Ohio for assistant secretary of agriculture, and the nomination doubtless will be sent to the senate within a few days. Colonel Brigham is master of the national He is a war veteran, has figured considerably in Ohio politics and is an old friend of the president.

Postmaster Ceneral Gary has had another busy day, receiving scores of visitors. Senator Mark Hanna called and hal an interview, lasting scarcely more than five minutes. It was his first call on the head of the department. Senator Penrose and Representatives Huff and Hicks of Pennsylvania were among the other visitors.

The cabinet meeting lasted just an hour. Secretaries Sherman, Gage and Alger were the first to leave and Mr. Gary came from the cabinet room soon afterward. The attorney general, secretary of the navy and secretary of agriculture remained some time longer. Secretary Bliss was absent in New York. Nothing of importance was discussed by the cabinet.

A group embracing the silver Repub can senators, Teller of Colorado, Pettigrew of South Dakota and Canon of Utah, who withdrew from the St. Louis convention, called on the president. With them, also, was Senator Warren of Wyoming.

They were shown at once to the presi dent's office and spent five or ten minntes with Mr. McKinley. It was entirely a call of courtesy and no allusion to party or politics was made. The president showed his usual cordiality. and there was no evidence in manne or word of the divisions resulting from the national convention.

Following this group came another one, comprising the entire Republican membership of the ways and means committee, headed by Chairman Dingley. They filed before the president and were cordially greeted. This, too, was a call of courtesy and no reference was made to the tariff.

It was so wet and disagreeable outside that the president decided not to take his usual afternoon walk yesterday. Last night he saw several friends by appointment for more leisurely talks than the hurry of office hours would permit.

Senator Hanna's call on the president lasted half an hour, after which Mr McKinley went to the east room and received about 1,500 people. It was Senator Hanna's first call since the inauguration.

Other callers included Senators Shoup of Idaho, Major Dick of Ohio and Senator Foraker of Ohio. The last named had an extended talk with the presi-

Senator Grady then called up the civil service bill, which was on the calendar. The bill was then read section by section on second reading. The bill passed second reading after some jangling over proposed amendments that did not prevail.

Sanator Gibson, chairman of the joint committee of the house and senate on the investigation of the fire at the capitol, handed in a partial report to the senate and nouse. In his report Senator Gibson says that a number of persons were called before she committee and testified, but that one witness, Dr. Swallow, refused to testify on the grounds that it might projudice his case in court. Chairman Gibson asked for instructions from the house and senate, and wanted authority to compel Dr. Swallow to testify.

Senator Lawrence called up his bill to amend paragraph 16 of the second act to provide for the incorporation of certain corporations, providing for the incorporation of companies for buying, selling, trading or dealing in any kinds goods, wares or merchandise at wholesale or retail or both. Senator Finn said the bill looked to him as if it was meant to give the company store another chance in this state Mr. Grady said there was no danger of the company store being revived by the passage of the bill. Senators Losch and Coyle (Schuylkill) spoke against the bill. They said they feared the "pluck-me-stores" would get in under this bill. Action on the bill was postponed until today. Senator Flinn then called up the resolution for the investigation of the concition of the miners in the bituminous coal-regions. Lieutenant Governor Lyon did not seem to be anxious to call up the resolution and put a motion to ad journ. Mr. Flinn made a fight to have the resolution read, but in some manner the resolution got lost, and as it could not be found the senate adjourned without acting on it.

was 74 yeas to 78 mays. The bill in relation to the mining of bituminous coal was taken up on third reading. It is a very long bill, and it took a long while to read it. Representative Voorhees claimed that the clerk was not reading the bill in an audible tone and succeeded in having the bill read so it could be understood.
