

CALL OF DEMOCRATS.

Statement Issued by Societies' Executive Committee.

DESERTERS OF BRYAN CONDEMNED.

The Course of the Republican Party Since It Has Been in Power Attacked.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 18.—The executive committee of the Democratic Societies of Pennsylvania has issued the following address:

"The general assembly of the Democratic Societies of Pennsylvania is hereby called to meet on the 28th day of September, at Wilkesbarre, that they may have a conference with the general assembly of last year.

"The means by which the candidates of the Democratic party, headed by William J. Bryan, were defeated last year are well known. We need not recount them.

"The means by which the candidates of the Democratic party, headed by William J. Bryan, were defeated last year are well known. We need not recount them.

"Congress was immediately convened in an extraordinary session to distribute the enormous plunder promised among the trusts and other greedy associates in the national treasury.

"In our own state we find no man bold enough to defend the remarkable excesses of the Republican party, in all its phases of its rule.

"The Democratic party, in all its phases of its rule, has been a constant source of trouble and sorrow to the people of this state.
