

Cambria Freeman.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
AUGUST 27, 1897.
LAW AND PERSONAL.
Thompson has been appointed...
The old civil docket recently brought to light in the court house at Greensburg, Pa., there are several cases recorded against George Washington. In the course of the year 1787 three claims were entered against him to compel him to pay taxes. The humorous clerk of that time has written the following under the claims: "George Washington, esq., appeareth not to like taxes."
—On Monday of last week, while Aaron Weakland and Frank Little were leading two fattened sows from a farm in White township, to Patton, one of the sows became enraged and attacked Mr. Weakland in a vicious manner with its horns, cutting an ugly rash under his chin about two inches long, which required four stitches by the surgeon, and at present Mr. Weakland is nursing a very sore neck.
—The three-mile extension of the Altoona division of the Pennsylvania railroad leading from Coveville to Cedar Brook, Blair county, has been completed, and on Monday three large limestone quarries opened. The quarries are owned by J. D. Hicks & Sons, of Altoona, and will be operated by Youngstown, O., capitalists for the Pittsburgh market. Fully two hundred men will be given employment.
—For the Pennsylvania Tri-County and State fair, to be held at Johnstown, Pa., September 6th to 11th, inclusive, the Pennsylvania Railroad company will sell, on those days, special excursion tickets to Johnstown and return, from Altoona, Greensburg, and intermediate stations, from Harrisville, Indiana, and intermediate stations, and from stations on the Cambria and Clearfield divisions. Tickets will be good for return passage until September 12th, inclusive.
—John D. Davis, an old citizen of Barr township, died at his home near Nicktown, on Tuesday morning of last week, aged 82 years. He is survived by his wife and seven children, six sons, namely, Evan, of Clarion county; Jonathan and Thomas, of Colorado; David and Daniel, of Johnstown, and William of Ebensburg, and one daughter, Sarah, wife of Ewan Williams, of Indian county. His remains were interred in Lloyd's cemetery, in Ebensburg, on Saturday.
—One of the numerous deputy sheriffs engaged in keeping the peace in Allegheny county last week shot and killed another deputy sheriff near Turtle Creek. To the everlasting credit of the striking miners in that section, on hearing of the occurrence, they held a meeting and appointed a committee to wait on the sheriff of Allegheny county and tender their services to the sheriff to aid in preserving the peace among the deputies.
—John L. Stough, Philip Jones, George Gandy, James A. Myers, Dr. Davidson, J. M. Thompson, Oliver C. H. Curran, George Curry and John Clement, of Ebensburg; Simon Adams, of Blacklick township; Major W. H. Bell, L. S. Bell, Charles Anna, Ruel S. Somerville, C. W. Hodkins, Paul Zahner, Mr. and Mrs. John Cordell and Mr. and Mrs. James Mellon, of Patton, and James Wharton and Simon Nagle, of Clearfield township, are taking in the G. A. R. encampment at Buffalo, this week.
—The big barn of David C. Fox, near Tarr Station, Westmoreland county, was fired by an incendiary Sunday night and burnt to the ground. Mr. Fox lost his best horse and got him to the door when the smoke and fire caused the animal to turn back and jump into the feed bag. He tried to get another horse out, but did not succeed. He lost all his crops three horses, all his farm implements and wagon shed. It was a large barn, though old. One horse was saved, a boy being away driving with it.
—On Sunday afternoon while John Madden, the gate keeper above Mill Hill, in Centre county, was driving to his farm with one hand, he had a horse behind the vehicle which he led with the other, having the strap wrapped around his hand. One of the horses frightened and in his effort to control the animal the thumb of the hand which was holding the strap was torn from the socket, a shred of flesh only holding it. The injured man came back to Mill Hill, where the thumb was amputated close to the hand.
—The large barn of the Pennsylvania State fair, which was destroyed by fire on Friday evening, it broke out about fifteen minutes of seven and by nine o'clock the large building was burned to the ground. All the live stock and farming machinery were saved, by the removal of the stock to the fair grounds, and prevented from spreading to other buildings. A large building, standing not more than fifty feet from the barn, escaped with a slight scorching. All this year's crop of hay and grain was totally consumed by the fierce flames.
—One of our exchanges propounds the following: "You can any day see a white horse; why do you never see a white cow? Why does a horse eat grass backward and a cow forward? Why does a cow vine all ways wind one way and a bean another? Where should the inside of a chimney be larger, at the top or bottom, and why? Can you tell why a horse tethered with a rope always unravels it, while a cow twists it into knots? Why do leaves turn upside down before a rain? What is the length of a four bar? What animals have no proper teeth in front, and why?"
—On September 13th Fraley Bros., of Irwin, who have been conducting a clothing and gent's furnishing business at that place, will remove to Ebensburg where they will embark in the same business. They have proved themselves capable of taking care of their business, and are honest and upright in their dealing. We wish them abundant success in their new location and can cheerfully recommend them to the people of Ebensburg and vicinity. Their opening will take place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 6, 7 and 8. —Correspondent Standard.
—The Pennsylvania railroad is preparing to complete with the Carnegie works in the ore hauling trade by putting on the Pittsburgh and Erie line a system of monster freight engines and cars, all controlled by air brakes. The first of five big freight engines intended for this purpose will leave the Juniata shops on September 30. The engines will have a capacity of 90,000 pounds. The engines will have twice the hauling capacity of the ordinary class R freight engine, the boiler 72 inches in diameter, 31 feet long, containing 315 flues and carrying 200 pounds of steam. It is expected to load 45 loaded cars over the Pittsburgh division. The heaviest engines now haul 20 cars each.
—William Moore, the self-confessed robber of the Barnesboro postoffice, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor in the Hollidaysburg jail on Wednesday morning. Moore borrowed a razor from a fellow prisoner to shave, and after shaving, drew the razor across his throat, cutting a rash from ear to ear. His cell-mate, on seeing the blood gushing from the wound, rushed on Moore and wrested the razor from him before he succeeded in making a fatal wound. The wound required sixteen stitches to close it but it was not quite deep enough to cause death. In a letter written to the warden, Moore declares that he was one of the parties that committed the outrage on the Devers in Monster township, and says that his identity is unknown.

Get a Permit.
The Monitor thought the FREEMAN was in error when it stated that more work has been done on our streets this summer than usual. The fact is that less work than usual has been done. Street Commissioner Appel has had a very small force under him and the most of the work done on the streets, such as building sewers, making pavements, filling away old buildings, etc., has not tended to their improvement, but to their detriment.—Gosling.
The FREEMAN was not in error and no crooked statement by the Gosling can make it appear so. The FREEMAN did not state that "more work" has been done on our streets this summer than usual." What the FREEMAN stated was this: "There has been more work done on the streets and pavements of Ebensburg this summer than in any year since the incorporation of the borough." All of which is correct as every man, woman and child outside of the "kindergarten" establishment in Ebensburg, knows. The "building of sewers, making pavements, hauling away old buildings, etc., may have caused some inconvenience, for the time being, but the improvements are permanent, and for the lasting good of the town.
While the FREEMAN is not in political accord with the borough fathers of Ebensburg, a majority of them being Republicans, we believe in giving them full credit for what they are entitled to and for their efforts in sewerage the East end of Ebensburg, the FREEMAN gives them all praise. As the "making pavements, hauling away old buildings, etc." are individual undertakings, the individuals guilty of the indiscretions complained of by the Gosling can each answer for himself. It may even be possible that Messrs. Barker, Bess, J. B. Denny, J. G. Lloyd and Thomas Davis, who are charged as offenders, may, rather than cause continued annoyance to the Gosling, have the old buildings and pavements, etc., put back in place and the new ones removed when they find that, in the estimation of the Gosling, they are "a detriment to the town." It may be well for the people of Ebensburg, if of full age, to make improvements in the future to get a Gosling permit. It may save them heaps of trouble.

New Law as to Sale of Cheese.
The new state law (Act of June 23, 1897,) to regulate the manufacture and sale of cheese, provides that all cheese sold or offered for sale after August 25th, must be stamped with the name and address of the manufacturer and the grade of the cheese; for establishing the grade the law permits five qualities, viz: "Full Cream," "three-fourths cream," "one-half cream," "one-fourth cream," and "skimmed cream." It also provides that the grade of "full cream" must contain not less than 25 per cent. of butter fat and the other grades must show 24 and 16 per cent. respectively and that all cheese which will not show 8 per cent. must be labeled "skimmed cream."
The penalty for failing to comply with any of the provisions of the law is a fine of from fifty to one hundred dollars and all costs of suit, analyses, selection of samples, etc., and the fine goes to the Department of Agriculture to be devoted to the expense of enforcing the provisions of the act.

Confessed the Crime.
William A. Moore and John Lewis, the men accused of robbing the Barnesboro postoffice, were arraigned before United States Commissioner McLeod, at Tyrone, on Thursday afternoon of last week. Postoffice Inspector W. W. Dickson, of Pittsburgh, conducted the examination. Postmaster Edward H. Weaver, of Barnesboro, was the first witness. He identified the stamps found on Moore as the same in amount and denomination as had been taken from his safe. The official envelope in which they were kept, and from which they had been removed, was also identified by him. He also identified a registered package, numbered 3117, and produced his registry book, showing that a record had been made of it.
The paper money stolen from the office had been wrapped in a piece of cloth, which was selected by Mr. Thomas and Mr. Stettler, of Richland township. Also one-day institutes at Spangler and Loretto. The dates will be fixed and announced hereafter.
—Raymond Robinson, aged 6 years, son of Samuel Robinson, residing one mile west of the three culverts, near Altoona, on the Pennsylvania railroad, on Friday afternoon on his way home from picking berries slipped and fell in front of a train of moving cars. The cars passed over one leg, crushing it so badly that, when the boy was taken to a hospital, it had to be amputated. It was the leg that was injured and it had to be taken off above the knee.

Correspondence.
Carrolltown, Pa. Aug. 25, 1897.
ED. FREEMAN:—On next Saturday will be the Democratic primary or delegate election. We hope that all districts of the county will be represented by good and true Democrats as delegates to the convention on Monday next. That our convention will be harmonious we have no doubt and that they will select good men to the franchise of the people, men of tried and sterling Democracy, men of ability and without blemish to fill the offices at the ensuing election, is the heartfelt wish of the writer. By so doing we feel confident that the Democracy of Cambria will get on its feet again, for can we not trace our defeat in this county to dissensions among ourselves? The bitterness which was engendered among democratic office-seekers was the cause of the dismemberment of our party in Cambria.
We now believe that all is harmony and if the delegates select good men from among our party we will win the fight at the coming election, and we earnestly wish last week, there is a growing dissension among the rank and file of the Republicans of our county. Let every lover of the good cause put his shoulder to the wheel and keep the Democratic war moving, and we feel confident that the November election we can shout, victory.
LOCALS.
On Monday evening the new barn of Mr. Michael Lantz, of Susquehanna township, near Spangler, was struck by lightning and was entirely consumed. The barn was filled with overfowing with the year's harvest. He succeeded in saving his horses and a wagon. Mr. Lantz and his son were in the barn when struck. There was no insurance on the barn. We have had several severe electrical storms in this section lately.
Mr. Thomas Hlig is digging a cellar under his recently acquired property in town and otherwise improving it.
Sheriff Gray is paying an expensive addition to his business block on Main street. The mines in this vicinity have a scarcity that he can handle at present. A order of coal cars is the complaint at present.
The new Cambria county railroad is having all the coal freight they can haul at present.
A little son of George Grinawar at McGonigals' mines, will be compelled to undergo an amputation of one of his legs, as mortification has set in. He has been crushed about ten weeks ago. Drs. Rice and Sloan will perform the operation.
Quite an accident occurred at C. A. Farabaugh's brewery on Tuesday evening. The engine room, was struck by lightning and the machinery ran at a tremendous pace. The large belt wheel burst and flew into fragments, knocking loose a steam pipe which allowed the steam to escape quickly and stopped the running of the engine. The damage is slight and no person was injured, the fireman having just left the engine room.
Next week our town will be visited by the Kickapoo Indian medicine show.
DEATHS.
On Saturday last Mrs. Elizabeth Dumm, wife of Valentine Dumm, of Carroll township, departed this life after a lingering illness. Her remains were interred in St. Michael's cemetery on Tuesday and was followed to the grave by a large number of friends and relatives.
D. A. McGough, Esq., of whose illness we made mention two weeks ago, died on Monday evening of last week, at his late abode, of catarrh of the stomach. He leaves to mourn him a large family and a numerous relationship. He was aged about 55 years and was a prominent citizen of Allegheny township. His remains were interred in St. Michael's cemetery on Wednesday. Rest in peace.
