

LED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Headed the G. A. R. Parade in Buffalo Today.

THEN REVIEWED THE VETERANS.

Commander-in-Chief Clarkson and Staff Acted as Escort—Number of Remonians Auxiliary Organizations Held Meetings and Parades—The Business Transacted.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—President McKinley rode at the head of the line in the G. A. R. parade as far as the reviewing stand, where he took the seat previously assigned to him and reviewed the veterans as they passed by. The president occupied a carriage with General Rogers of Buffalo and was escorted by Commander-in-Chief Clarkson and his staff.

A notable feature of the encampment was the arrival of President McKinley, accompanied by Secretary Alger and Governor Black of New York. A banquet to the president last evening and the presence of the naval veterans and ex-prisoners of war were also great features. During the day there were more than 30 corps, brigade and regimental and company reunions. Last President McKinley at the head of the line in the G. A. R. parade in Buffalo today.

Evening there was a number of camp, fires for the men and receptions and musical entertainments for the ladies. The first parade in which Grand Army men took part was a notable event.

The Naval Veterans' association and the ex-prisoners of war association together with the survivors of Erie county regiments and other organizations, composed the Grand Army contingent of the parade. The naval veterans wore the uniform of the United States naval service and made a splendid appearance. As they rode through the streets in the swinging gait of men-of-war men the crowd cheered them to the echo.

The ex-prisoners of war from the rank and file of the G. A. R. wore the uniforms of their respective posts and on each coat was fastened a badge bearing the name of the prison in which the wearer had been confined. As the names of the Andersonville, Libby, Saibury, Belle Isle, Florence, Castle Thunder and other places of historic horror were read the cheers became deafening.

The National Association of Ex-prisoners of War met in annual convention with Commander Charles F. Sherrill of Pittsburgh in the chair. The attendance was the largest since the organization of the association.

The report of the adjutant general showed 65 local associations, with a membership of 1,932, and 702 individual members, a total membership of 3,264. There was a substantial cash balance in the treasury.

Several speakers advocated the passage of the ex-prisoners' relief bill to be presented to congress. These officers were elected: Commander, Charles E. Sherrill, Pittsburgh; senior vice commander, J. L. Kilgour, Brooklyn; chaplain, John E. Ferguson, Kew-Forest; historian, Lewis R. Fortescue, Philadelphia; quartermaster general, S. M. Long, East Orange, N. J.

The Loyalty Home Workers held a meeting with 100 delegates, representing 15 states, present. The annual reports showed that the order was making steady progress, its membership now exceeding 15,000.

When Rear Admiral Sears called the twelfth annual convention of the National Association of Naval Veterans to order about 300 delegates were in attendance. Daniel E. Kelly of Philadelphia was elected rear admiral for the ensuing year over Will E. Atkins by a vote of 95 to 6.

A resolution was adopted urging the secretary of the navy to accept the plans of Baer and Webb of New York for station of the late Rear Admiral David B. Porter, to be erected in Philadelphia or Washington.

The committee on resolutions reported against the removal of gold stripes from the uniforms of the naval veterans. After a fierce fight the matter was unanimously laid on the table for a year.

A resolution approving the project of the late Rear Admiral H. Hazen to establish a sanitarium on Castle Pinckney island in Charleston harbor was unanimously adopted.

Another fight to see over the report of the committee on the revision of the constitution, which proposed to amend the constitution on regiments, companies and squadrons, which consist of sons, grand sons and associates of the veterans, so that they might be expelled from the national association. A lengthy and somewhat animated discussion ended in taking the report.

The National Association of Army Nurses met with Mrs. Emily E. Woodley of Philadelphia in the chair, and after listening to the addresses of the president and senior vice president and the various reports, adjourned in order to allow the members to take a ride on the lake.

At the opening session of the Ladies of the G. A. R. every state except Iowa and Indiana was represented. Mrs. Catherine F. First, president, presided. Colonel Sexton of Chicago has withdrawn as a candidate for commander-in-chief. There are now three eastern and one western candidate for the place.

Of Cincinnati's success in her race for the next encampment there appears to be little doubt, although Denver has pooped up as an aspirant for that honor.

At Colonel Gobin's headquarters, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware are claimed for the Pennsylvania man, and his friends say he will be in the light to the end.

Among the prominent arrivals were General Lew Wallace and former Commander-in-Chief Thomas G. Lawler.

BANQUET TO M'KINLEY.

A Brilliant Affair Given by Columbia Post of Chicago—The President's Warm Greeting to McKimley—The Senator Given an Ovation by the Crowd.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—From the moment that the special train that bore the president and his suite to the city arrived until he retired last night there was one glorious and spontaneous demonstration. When the Niagara hotel was reached the president made a neat little speech to the enthusiastic multitude.

Shortly after 5 o'clock Columbia post, dressed in fatigue coats and white duck trousers, arrived at the hotel and acted as escort to the president to the Elliott building, where the post entertained the president at a high post.

At the guest table sat Commander H. H. McConnell of Columbia post, toastmaster of the occasion; President McKinley, Commander-in-Chief T. G. Clarkson, Archbishop Ireland, General Russell A. Alger, Governor Frank S. Black, Charles M. McKeen, H. Taylor, ex-postmaster General Wilson S. Bissell, Governor Hazen S. Pingree of Michigan and many others.

When the elaborate menu had been discussed to the satisfaction of guests the toastmaster called for Governor Frank Black to extend a cordial welcome for Columbia post to President McKinley.

At 8:45 o'clock Senator Mark Hanna, who had just arrived in the city, came into the banquet hall. His entry was noted by applause at the further end of the hall and the preceding speaker, President McKinley rose from his seat and moved along the hall to meet him.

There was a shout of applause as the two grasped hands and the president's left hand went upon Mr. Hanna's shoulder. Both took their seats amid applause. Mr. Hanna had to hold a levee.

Closely following Mr. Hanna's entrance it was announced that the president, desiring to help his old country and other speakers, had decided to make a brief visit to some of the camps and then return. He left accompanied by Commander-in-Chief Clarkson.

While Mayor Jewett was speaking the president returned and for a few moments pandemonium reigned supreme, somebody yelling "what $1.03, silver 40¢" a cry that was taken up and repeated again and again.

When Mr. Jewett had finished his address President McKinley was introduced and for fully fifteen minutes seemed as though the roof would have to fall or the side wall bulge with the roar of applause and greeting. The president made a patriotic speech in which he referred eloquently to the reunited north and south.

Colonel Clayton McMichael Nominated For Treasurer of Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 25.—For the first time since the control of the Republican organization in Philadelphia was wrested from Senator Quay by the defection which prevented the nomination for the majority of Boss Penrose, United States senator, the regular Republican convention representing every faction in this city has nominated with practical unanimity a young and Quakerish party leader, Colonel Clayton McMichael, proprietor of the Philadelphia North American and a director of the Associated Press, who is one of the recognized Quays in Eastern Pennsylvania, as the candidate for city treasurer.

The senators from Philadelphia and members of congress interested had united in naming Colonel McMichael to succeed the Democratic postmaster in Philadelphia and he said that he entered the contest for the city trusteeship only because the friends of all factions were united in naming him. PITTSBURGH, Aug. 25.—Coal operators of the Pittsburg district are going to operate their mines at once. Without a week notices will be posted in conspicuous places about the various pits that they can return to work if they care to. Such an announcement will be given in due time, and if it does not bring the miners to their work employees will be engaged from other parts.

Such is the policy of the operators of the Pittsburg district, as a result of the conference with the head officials of the United Mine Workers of America. No compromise was reached and there was but one thing left for the mine-owners—to start their plants without the aid of organized labor. From the standpoint of the two sides of the controversy the status of the whole situation is as follows: The operators are in a position to start their plants without the aid of organized labor.
