Ayer's Ague Cure,

Now these are facts which constitute in the world's estimation what is called reputation, which is the basis of value of medicinal waters. They must precede in the order of events any investments of capital.

Perhaps no Springs in any age or country ever made such i apid progress toward permanent success, which is now close at hand. Let the disconsolate, therefore, therefore, therefore, therefore, the parties interested are about to make the parties interested are about to make new efforts to consummate results.

PITIFUL POLITICAL PARODIES.

The Radicals seem to be so barren of ideas that they can do no better than purody, in a feeble way, those of the Conservative Union Party. Shortly after the eall was issued for the great Convention of National Unionists at Philadeltion of National Unionists at Philadel-phia, which has just adjourned, certain pretentious Radicals issued a call for a disjected Convention of this set at the same place, which will certainly be an odd-affair when compared with its pro-decessor. And again, when a call was issued the other day for a National Sol-diers' Conservative Convention, which was signed and approved by an immense was signed and approved by an immense is percectly said. No harm can arise from its use and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fevers. It is true of this, and its importance to those afflected with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to set; because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood. Prepared by J. C. Ayer a Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by A. D. Buehler, Gettysburg.
