A Desperate Game!
TRADING OF TICKETS!

The Radicals have settled down on one or two of their candidates, for whom they will make an effort to trade off the balance. Democrats, of course, will be on their guard. Make no trades. When a Radical approaches you with a proposal on that he will vote for one of our men if you vote for one of theirs, tell him you "can't see him" for, the Democracy of Adams county have the power, and intend to elect their whole ticket by a handsome majority.

Democrats and Conservatives, don't forget the Mass Meeting to be held in Gettysburg on Thursday next. COME!
—ALL COME!—and participate in one of the grandest political demonstrations ever had here. Clymer will be with us.

The Democratic Mass Meeting at York on Monday last was the largest ever held there. From ten to fifteen thousand people were present. The procession, from four to six men deep, required one hour and a quarter to pass a given point. Clymer, Doolittle, Vaux, Black and Hepburn made speeches. The stars are burning brightly in "Old Democratic York."

Election, Tuesday, October 9th.

To the Democrats and Conservative Men of Adams County.

Democrats! Conservative Men! Victory, a glorious victory, is within your grasp.

You have right, truth and justice on your side.

The cohorts of the Northern Disunionists, the blind followers of such traitors as Thaddeus Stevens, are in a minority in Pennsylvania to-day.

A full poll of the Democratic vote of the old Keystone State, with the aid to be derived from those true friends of the country who have shown their readiness to abandon party for the sake of principle, will elect Hiestler Clymer by a large majority, and overthrow the Radical revolutionists forever.

Shall this glorious consummation be achieved?

Never had men greater incentives to exertion than you have in the present contest.

Your opponents declare that the Union, to save which Pennsylvania so freely gave the blood of her bravest and best, shall not be restored.

They are ready to mutilate, annul and destroy the Constitution framed by your fathers, and to overturn the form of free government bequeathed to you by the patriots and sages of the Revolution.

They are laboring to arouse a permanent war of races, and are ready to precipitate the country into another civil war, in order that they may maintain their hold on the power they have so much abused.

They unhesitatingly declare their purpose of making the negro the political and social equal of the white man, and, if they succeed in carrying the coming elections, they will claim that the people of the North have endorsed that odious proposition.

All conservative men desire to see the Union speedily and perfectly restored.

They wish to see the Constitution sacredly preserved.

They desire peace, lasting and permanent peace.

They are resolved that the supremacy of the white race shall be maintained.

Such are the vital issues in the present all important political contest.

John W. Geary is the candidate of the Radicals, and he boasts that he endorses all their views as fully as ever Thaddeus Stevens did.

Hiestler Clymer, one of the purest patriots and most accomplished statesmen of the Republic, is the Conservative candidate.

Which of these men shall be the next Governor of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

It is for you, the Democrats and Conservative men of Adams county, in connection with your fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania, to say.

We are perfectly sure that a full poll of the Democratic and Conservative vote will overwhelm the Radicals with defeat.
This we say knowingly, and not for the purpose of political effect.

If we are beaten in the present contest we will have no one to blame but ourselves. Through our own apathy and indulgence the enemies of the country will triumph over us, and we shall live to curse ourselves for neglect of duty when it will be too late to repair the injury done.

Democrats of Adams county! You polled THIRTEEN THOUSAND VOTES for George B.
McClellan, in the face of the fiercest opo-sition any party ever encountered.— You can and will do better than that for Hiestler Clymer. But, you must work as you never did in all your lives before to swell your vote. Not a single man who will vote the Conservative ticket must be left at home. In this contest every citizen must labor with all the might that is in him, and there is no one who cannot help forward the great cause.

Go to work, then, with the determination that should characterize freemen in such a struggle. Remember that the best and dearest interests of your country are at stake, and that the result of the present contest will tell for veal or woe upon yourself and upon your posterity after you.

See your neighbor—talk to him—try to convince him of the error of his ways, if he be not already firm in the true faith.

Organize fully for the contest. See that ways are provided to convey every vote to the polls. Have vigilance committees of your best men appointed who will see to it that no frauds are perpetuated and no impositions practiced. Organize perfectly—work earnestly and unceasingly until the last vote is polled; and then see that there is a fair and honest count of the ballots.

We speak to you thus plainly and earnestly because it is necessary that you should do your whole duty. The time for action has come. Improve every hour that remains. Remember that upon you, reader, the responsibility of maintaining the right rests, as much upon you as any other man in the commonwealth.
The political sky is bright. When we tell you that victory is within your grasp we tell you but the truth. WITH A FULL POLLOF THE DEMOCRATIC AND CONSERVATIVE VOTE WE CANNOT BE DEFEATED.

Let this assurance cheer you and encourage you to discharge your whole duty.
With earnest and unceasing work, VICTORY IS SURE.

McConaughy's "deserter law" was intended to disgrace and disfranchise many of the best soldiers in the State—men who fought gallantly, (while he stayed at home), and served out their time faithfully. Houck voted for McConaughy's bill. Will those whom he has thus sought to outrage vote for him again?

The Radicals have nothing to say about the MILLIONS lavished upon idle negroes—but raise a terrible howl because the high prices which they pay caused necessitated an increased outlay to maintain the poor whites whom we have among us. Let poor men remember this at the polls.

The Radicals threaten, if successful at the fall elections, to impeach the President! Would not such a high-handed outrage convulse the country from centre to circumference? Would it not lead to another war, more general and bloody than the last? Lovers of peace and prosperity, will you vote with the Radicals, and thus assist them in carrying out this devilish design?

Remember that every Radical Congressman from Pennsylvania voted last winter, to force Negro Suffrage upon the District of Columbia.

REMEMBER that the last Congress appropriated $7,000,000 to support the negroes of the South in idleness, and recompensed that we, of the North, are compelled to pay these seven millions.

REMEMBER, Bondholders, that so long as the Union is not restored, your bonds are insecure, for peace and reunion alone can pay occasional debt.

We learn that the chap named Koons, who is now making Radical speeches in this county, is a discharged Clerk from Washington. Of course he don't like "my policy!"

How the Tickets are to be Voted.

The Legislature, last winter, passed a law which changes the manner of voting.
All State officers voted for will be voted for on one slip, labeled "State;" all county officers and members of Congress, Senators, and members of the Legislature voted for, will be voted on another slip, labeled "County;" and all Judges of Courts voted for, will be voted on still another slip, labeled "Judiciary;" which divides the ticket, at the present election, into three slips. All tickets should be ready cut, folded and tied, before election-day. Let Democrats attend to this everywhere, and see that all the ticket is included in their ballot. The ticket will be printed as follows:

STATE.
Governor,
Hiestler Clymer.

JUDICIARY.
Associate Judge,
Isaac Robinson.

COUNTY.
Congress,
J. McDowell Sharpe.

Assembly,
Nicholas Hiestler.

Phillip Hann.

Register & Recorder,
William D. Holtzworth.

Clerk of the Courts,
Adam W. Minter.

County Commissioner,
Nicholas Wieman.

Directors of the Poor,
John Rahn, 3 years,
John Nunemaker, 2 years.

County Auditor,
Henry L. Bream.

Coroner,
Dr. Wm. J. McClure.

The ticket must be cut apart at each of the wide spaces, with the words "State," "County," and "Judiciary" folded out.

THE PROSPECT BRIGHT.

In every portion of Pennsylvania the Democracy are thoroughly aroused. No such enthusiasm ever inspired them before as that which now pervades our ranks. There is not a break in the Democratic column in any election precinct in this Commonwealth. Every Democrat is working and doing his duty man-fully. The masses everywhere are shocked at the frightful blasphemies and distasteful dogmas of the "Torelli-and-Turpentine" party. They cannot and will not endorse the degrading doctrine of negro suffrage and negro equality. They have been plainly told by the Radical leaders that they are in favor of placing the ballot in the hands of the negro, and even John W. Geary has been forced to admit that it is only a question of time.
The people want peace. They have had enough bloodshed. They want Union, Restoration, and Constitutional Liberty, with all their attending blessings and prosperity. And they know, in their hearts, that these can only be attained by the success of the Democratic and Conservative policy, and the total overthrow of the malignant and destructive Radicals.
Hence, they have placed their laboring shoulders to the wheel, and are laboring with unweary zeal and energy to secure a lasting triumph for the good old cause.
Never were the skies brighter—never were our prospects of victory more sure and certain—Agc.

ALL RIGHT ALONG THE LINE.

The Democracy are jubilant in this section. The cheering reports of Clymer's prospects from all parts of the State, added to the notable fizzle of the Disunionists in this city on the 23d, have given them renewed hope and confidence. A report is in circulation that Gov. Curtin, upon his arrival from the western part of the State, announced that it was "all up with Geary!" This has added to the general satisfaction among Democrats.— Harrisburg Patriot & Union.

Let it be remembered by the white freemen of the Commonwealth, that the ardent supporters of Gen. Geary in Philadelphia, refused to extend a public reception to Grant and Farragut, because they won the battles for the Union, and now sustain the President.

Let it also be remembered that these same "loyal" men greeted enthusiastically, Fred. Douglass, Ann Dickinson and "Gen. Geary, because they are enemies of the Union, and worshippers of the negro.

Gen. Rogers, of Arkansas, one of the "loyal Southerners" in the Geary allwood Convention, wishes it understood, through the New York Herald, that he "withdraws from that mixed gathering of shillings, ambitious blacks and women in breeches." He says that he has gone with the body, but he is not to be any views could justify, and he "washed his hands, from this time forth, of all its proceedings." Too much wool for the general.

Colonel John W. Hicks, of Duncanville, Pennsylvania, a brave soldier, formerly a Republican, has left that party and announced his intention of supporting Colonel Filler for the Legislature in the Bedford District. In alluding to the fact that the Radicals had refused to place a soldier on their ticket, Colonel Hicks says:

It could not be expected that any soldier would get a nomination in any convention which Radicals controlled, if they had an old civilian political hack to serve. It is the same in this county as in Bedford. Soldiers have been over-sleighted always, only that their deceit and a slight observance of their professional principles (?) demand it, in fact, the soldier is "played out" among that class, and no soldier need expect any proferment at their hands.

REMEMBER that every Radical Congressman from Pennsylvania voted last winter, to force Negro Suffrage upon the District of Columbia.

appropriated $7,000,000 to support the negroes of the South in idleness, and recompensed that we, of the North, are compelled to pay these seven millions.

as the Union is not restored, your
alone can pay occasional debt.

We learn that the chap named
speeches in this county, is a discharged

GEN. GRANT ON THE WITNESS STAND.

The Philadelphia Sunday Mercury has the following among its special telegrams from Washington:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Gen. Grant denies the reports in circulation concerning his preference as regards a vote in your State. The General says "his record is that of a soldier, and he has condemned the practices of others making political capital of the records of their army." It is not in accordance with his way of doing things.

General regrets exceedingly that his name has been mixed up with local politics. The report, as published, is a tissue of falsehoods. Gen. Grant never made use of the language attributed to him. He is a warm supporter of the policy, and is doing all in his power to induce every one to the same way of thinking.

GEN. FREMONT.
The Republican candidate for President in 1860, and who, during the rebellion, was the idol of the Republicans, is a strenuous friend of Andrew Johnson, and endorses his policy in toto. He was a delegate to the monster Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention that assembled at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 17th ult.—a Convention composed of the very flower of the army and navy, and embracing in its list of delegates nearly every man of note belonging to either branch. Fremont, we say, was there, to assist to save the Union from the clutches of the infernal disunionists and arrant traitors who now menace it. Friends of Fremont!—fall into line, and help save the Union.

REAR ADMIRAL FARRAGUT Wrote a letter to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, at Cleveland, endorsing its objects. He says ANDREW JOHNSON is right and the Radicals wrong. Like GRANT, he wants PEACE, and insists that the Union has been restored. He deprecates the insane and treasonable plottings of the Radicals, and calls upon his countrymen to put down the men who dare to strike ten stars from the American flag. Fremont!—can you, will you disregard the words of FARRAGUT?

SLOCUM ON THE SITUATION.
Read what the brave Slocum, of the Twentieth Corps—the General who commanded Geary—has to say of the faction which is now using Geary as a means for accomplishing their own selfish purposes:

"There exists among us a political party which for the purpose of retaining power, is endeavoring to restore the Union, which was to be the sole object of the war, a party which would hold a portion of the States in subjection, teaching the rising generation in both sections lessons of jealousy and hatred, instead of teaching them to forget the bitter past, and become, as they must become, if our Union is ever to be of value, one people in interest and feeling. This party, until Congress assembled, indignantly denied the restoration of the Union, and restoration of the Union, and appealed to the people for support on the ground of being the only faithful and reliable friends of the President and his policy.
This mask has now been dropped, and the party is clearly seen to be what it is, and what it has always been, unmistakable. Let those who fought for a restoration of the Union now come forward and vote for it, and our victory is assured."

Will the "Boys in Blue" follow the brave soldier, Gen. Slocum, or the "hero of Snickersville"?

From the Bedford Gazette.
A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY!

Who bids? Who bids?

Francis Jordan, Esq., Chairman of the Radical State Committee, has written a letter to C. W. Achon, Esq., stating that Congress has passed no law discriminating against white soldiers and in favor of the Blacks! But, mark you, he does not deny that Congress did pass a bill giving $300 bounty to the negroes, and that the people are to be made infact susceptible of proof by the official records of Congress. But we will not allow Mr. Jordan to dumb-fungle even the most ignorant and credulous. We now offer to bet $100 with any Radical who will offer to bet $100 that Congress has passed a bill giving the negro soldiers $300 bounty!
If no other argument but this will get through some people's skulls, we are willing and ready to give them just as much of it as they want. Who bids?

AN INCIDENT IN GEARY'S HISTORY.

In the year 1861, John W. Geary, then only a paper Colonel—like his friend Forney—purchased from an honest farmer, John Gettel, of Harrisburg, a fine stall in the Eastern Market in this city.
POTATOES, CABBAGE, and other vegetables, to the amount of thirty-five dollars and thirty-three cents, for which he persisted in paying, notwithstanding the aforesaid farmer's written refusal to sell on several occasions, requesting him to do so. We have this bit of information from the farmer himself; and if any of his friends are anxious to see the victim of the "Honest Farmer" bill, he can be found at his stalls in the Eastern Market any day in the week.—Philadelphia Mercury.

WORKING MEN.

We speak to you not as a Democrat or Republican, but as an honest, laboring, earnest self-supporting and government maintaining man, and we speak in all candor and earnestness.

If you vote for radicalism this fall you vote for A dissolution of the Union.
Another rebellion which will end in a general, terrible revolution.

If you vote for Democracy and Union, or right, you restore States of their honor and rights.

To tax a people without giving them representation.

To educate one section to hate another.

To continue in power the most corrupt, dishonest, law hating leaders a party or country was ever cursed with, and To pile up mountains of debts for your innocent children to pay.

If you vote for Democracy and a restoration of the Union you vote for The equality of the States.

Taxation and representation to go together.

For a peaceful Union.

For the good of our country, rather than a small selfish gain.

For equal taxation.

For lessening your own taxes.

For protecting working men.

For peace, prosperity, and Union, the laws and Constitution and common justice.

It is for you to decide whether you will have peace or war; whether you will be freemen or slaves.

The procession at the Democratic mass meeting in Lancaster on the 25th, says the Intelligencer, "is admitted by all to have been the largest and most imposing display of the kind ever made in this city by the Democracy, and that it is saying much, for they have been noted for getting up fine demonstrations in the past."

The incendiary utterances of Brownlow and Forney have brought upon their faction the name of "Torch and Turpentine party."

THE CRISIS!

THE PEOPLE WAKING UP!
They are Rallying under the Flag of Their -Six Stars!

None but White Men shall Rule!

MEETING AT MEYERS GROVE.

The Johnson and Clymer meeting at Henry J. Meyers' Grove, on Saturday afternoon week, was largely attended.
We noticed persons present from twelve or thirteen districts of the county, whilst the near townships turned out in great strength. Quite a number of ladies also graced the occasion with their presence.
A spacious stand had been erected in the Grove, which was beautifully decorated with wreaths and flags. Henry J. Meyers, Esq., called the meeting to order, and read the following list of officers, which was adopted:

President, John F. Felly, Esq., George Mackley, Dr. J. W. C. Neal, Martin Trotter, Thomas N. Dicks, Henry Myers, Esq., John Thomas, Henry Wertz, Jacob Shaffer, F. N. W. Bowers, Peter Miller, Jeremiah Slaybaugh, Michael Dellone, F. J. Wilson, Jacob Miller, Henry Thomas, Esq., Hon. I. E. Wierman, Thomas H. Groves, George D. B. Hill, George Bowers, John G. Brinkerhoff, George Ehrenhart, Wm. Thomas, of C.
Nathaniel Miller.

Secretaries, A. J. Bowers, Peter Ginter, Philip Donohue, Jeremiah Shriver, Samuel J. Hanes, Joseph Holtz, John Eicholtz, Henry Hemler, Frank J.
Will, Thomas G. Neely, Peter Frey, Thomas Ehrenhart, Daniel H. Klingel.

The heavy rain of the previous day, and which threatened to continue several days, prevented Judge Hepburn and Mr. Stenger from starting for the meeting, and the large crowd in attendance was therefore compelled to forego the pleasure of hearing them. The home speakers present were, John F. Felly, Esq., who severely responded in the following order: Dr. D. S. Peffer, E. B. Buehler, Esq., H. J. Stahl, W. A. Duncan, Esq., Dr. W. J. McClure, and Dr. C. E.
Benson. The meeting adjourned with three cheers for Johnson, three for Clymer, three for the whole Democratic ticket, and three for THE PEOPLE.

AT MIDDLETOWN.

The Johnson and Clymer meeting at Middletown, on Monday evening, was a fine turnout, Butler rallying in her strength, and Franklin and Menallen contributing no little to the number present. The following gentlemen were the officers of the meeting:

President, Jacob Raffensperger, Esq., Vice Presidents, Joseph Wolf, Burkhart Wertz, Jacob Peters, John Eicholtz, Jacob Lentz, Capt. Jacob H. Plank, Moses Raffensperger, E. W. Stahl, Richard Pitzgerald, George Weaver, Wm. Guise, and John Dunmore.

Secretaries, Lieut. S. H. Eicholtz, Hezekiah Hoffman, Henry Rice, Jr., John Raffensperger, Jacob Eicholtz, George Schlosser, David T. Howe, John Lauer, Adam W. Fisher.

Speechees were made by Adj. J. W.
White, W. A. Duncan, Esq., E. W.
Stahl, and H. J. Stahl, when the meeting adjourned with rousing cheers for Johnson, Clymer and the whole Democratic ticket.

IN GERMANY TOWNSHIP.

The friends of Johnson and Clymer in
