Another Great Cure THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Oi a highly respectable citizen, well known to the Mercantile community, by DR. J. H. SCHENCK,

THE GREAT LUNG DOUTOR OF THILLADELPHIA. Office N. Y. and Galena Lead Co.,) 28 Nassan St., N. Y., June 1, '65. Dr. J. Schenck-Dear Sir :- For over liftee years I have been troubled with a severe cough, and usually two or three times a year, with more or less hemorrhage, which together, for the last few years, has kept mo thin in flesh and too week to do business of any kind without suffering. In August last I had a very severe hemorrhage, and, necording to the bust steel composition. Church sudgment of a good New York physician, I Bells insured for one year. was classed as beyond the reach of medicine and was advised to be prepared, so far as property matters were concerned, to leave this world at short aptice. The physician (and my good friends) esid that the first cold I took limbs were very much swollen, and all the symptoms of a speedy death seemed to accom-puny my cold. I sent for my former physician having tasted them, &c., be replied: "You first, It is the only Piongh yet produced to take them if you like, they will do you no first, It is the only Piongh yet produced." living." He sail: "You know what I told you last summer, and I say the same now, if you have any business to close up, to not put it off." He said to other friends that he could see no hope for me," and my friends and relations concluded my time had come. At this time I was taking freely of your medicine, but had not reen you. The doctor called a few times, and found me (mucli to his surprise, he said,) improving, and he could not understand why. My faith was increasing in your medicanes, and I had a wish to have gou examine the parts most exposed to wear any desired (mes, and I had a wish to have gou examine the parts most exposed to wear any desired (mes, and see what you had to may. 13. A young Loui-ville clerk induced a respectable Hoosier girl to run away from her home and go over to Louisville, where he promised to marry her. He kept her at a boarding-house two or three days, and made distinguished proposals to her. She got him into the parlor, looked the door, and cowhided him within an inch of his life, whereat the people said good for the Hoosier girl.
