The too-prevalent superstitions concerning Friday are thus likely to come to an end before many years.

-The Harrisburg Patriot & Union states that counterfeit one dollar green-Incks have just been put into circulation in that city. It says "the bills are new and likely to deceive poor judges."

-Beast Butler tried to make a speech weak before last, but couldn't stand the torent of questions hurled at him about, "sphons," "New Orleans gold," &c., with an unsound apple or two. The demagogue yetted justily for the "freedom of speech," but the growd "couldn't see It" in one who had imprisoned scores of bettermen than himself for trying to exerble of feeling, we may look for an improvement in his manners hereafter:
