The Democratic party owes this country every effort that can possibly be made and wrest the government from the fanatical mob into whose hands It has fallen. Qurs is not the only political organization on the continent which is contending for the principles on which our fathers built the Republic, and the fact that we are almost entirely out of power for any emergency, and ready to enter into the presidential contest in 1863 with a force that caupot be resisted. We are not scrambling for affice, but are engaged in the most scrambling for affice.
