STANTON ALARMED.

The impeachment and other revolutionary projects of the Radical fanatics in Congress are alarming even Secretary Stanton. A Washington special to the Pittsburg Chronicle, a Radical paper, says John Covode had an interview of some length with Secretary Stanton a day or two since, and that Mr. Stanton was feeling very dependent. He remarked to Covode that "he had placed two millions of men in the field during the late war, six hundred thousand of whom had bitten the dust or been maimed and crippled for life, and yet, contemplating all these sacrifices which had been made by the people, the country was in a worse condition, and one of more danger, than at any period during the war."

HOW IMPROVEMENT IS WORKING.

During the course of a debate in the Rump House, on the 21st inst., Mr. Dodge, Republican member from New York, referred to the disastrous effects which the impeachment agitation was producing. We make the following extract from the report of his remarks:

"Referring to the supposed impeachment of the President, he deprecated it as being unimportant in a political point of view, but saying he was fortunate in witnessing the industrial and business interests of the country. He mentioned the instance of a charitable institution of New York, which had voted to invest its surplus capital in United States securities, but that vote had been reconsidered on account of the impeachment proposition, and the president of the society was directed to deposit the amount in the New York Life and Trust Fund. So it was in all branches of business."

A NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Philadelphia Age suggests the holding of a National Democratic Convention, at some central point, on a day to be named, might—i.e. we see the motion. The Radical destructives in Congress must be taught that such a convention could not but have immense weight, and might result in parrying the blow which Radicalism is striking at the rights and liberties of the masses. Let the Convention meet, and let its voice be so loud and clear that even unreasoning Radicals will hear and heed. The country can yet be saved. And the Democracy is the only party that can do it.

FOREIGNERS, THINK OF IT!

Wm. H. Koons, Radical member of Congress from this district, on Tuesday, the 15th, made from the Committee for the District of Columbia, an address reported on the memorial of citizens of foreign birth praying for the same rights as natives! Here, Germans and Irishmen, is the estimate placed upon you by the Radical party leaders. Are you willing to support longer the candidates of a party which refuses to your brethren of the District of Columbia the same rights as voters and citizens which its leaders in Congress have just granted to the ignorant and vulgar negroes of Washington City?

SEVERE HEAD STILL MORE.

Charles Sumner showed what a miserable white-fiver toward he is by a speech which he made on Friday week. While assailing President Johnson in the most bitter and malignant manner, he exclaimed:

"Thank God, now the slave masters have been driven from this Chamber, such as is the liberty of an American citizen!"

No doubt he rejoiced greatly in the fact that on the floor of the Senate there was a large majority ready to approve his blackguardism, while from the galleries a crowd of negroes looked down and grinned their approbation. He would not have felt safe if he had been surrounded by the men who sat there when he made the speech which cost him a cutting at the hands of Brooks.

John W. Forney sends us a prospectus of his Philadelphia Weekly Press for publication. We can't see it in that light. When we take to publishing the prospectus of a Radical nigger paper like The Press, either for love or money, it will be when we are blind or crazy. The infamous doctrines advocated by that paper are already too deeply instilled into the minds of a large proportion of the American people, and it would be principal on the part of Democratic editors to aid in giving them further circulation. We want no fellowship with such men as John W. Forney.

A leading Radical paper in Wisconsin utters the following truths: "What the country wants is peace. The people are tired of war, and agitation, and turmoil. Impediment would profoundly excite the country and embitter and prolong party conflict. It is desirable to avoid this. It is no time to foster malice, or to excite revenge. The quietest way out of our troubles is the best way. The public want peace, and they want it in the quietest way, and in the way which seems to them most just, most generous, and most enduring."

The Maryland Legislature has passed an act for holding a special election for Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, on the first Monday of February. This will displace the Radical usurper, who elected himself last fall by disfranchising about eighteen thousand local voters. Good. Time brings all things even.

Hon. George W. Woodward, of the Supreme Bench, having been addressed by the Democratic members of the Pittsburg Bar, upon the subject of his being a candidate for re-election, has written a reply, in which he positively declares himself a candidate.

STANTON TO BE REVERBERATED.

Such shameful betrayals of Republican sentiment as McCaughey, Stambaugh, and the two scores of other members of the Legislature who voted for Cameron's nomination in the face of the unmistakable popular preference for Curtin, are not likely to have an "easy thing of it" in the future. McCaughey, of the Chambersburg Register, says:

"As one of the Senators charged with the most responsible duties by a legislature chosen by the loyal men of the State, we shall approve his (Cameron's) official acts cordially so long as he merits it, and censure only when truth and consistency imperatively demand it. But with the mercenary betrayal of the Republicans of the State we shall have war until they cease to be known in the body politic as a finger-board to mankind of the wronging of a citizen of an earnest and upright people."

"An overwhelming majority of the loyal journals do not conceal their mortification at the result, and most of them have taken their representatives squarely to task for their treachery. To tolerate the authors of such a wrong could not but be fatal to the Republican organization, and its only hope of future success is in having only such men who have sought its honor to create it with shame."

The Vegetable Spectator says: "The members of the legislative body of Pennsylvania, assembled in caucus on Thursday evening last, crowned themselves with everlasting infamy, by nominating to the high position of United States Senator, Simon Cameron, whose name has been for years synonymous with all that is corrupt. It is plain to every one what means the old Winnebago used to secure his nomination. All who thus sold their votes and outraged their consciences, should be held to a strict accountability."

The Eric Dispatch, referring to the support given by the Eric Dispatch to Cameron, concludes its comments thus: "Out upon this pack of misrepresentatives. The people of Eric county owe them but one more obligation, and that is a dishonorable dismissal from service."

The Pittsburg Leader denounces the Allegheny members who voted for Cameron, and says: "It would not trust one of them for one week's subscription to that paper."

CAMERON AT LOCHIELE.

The friends of Gen. Cameron gathered at his residence near Harrisburg, the other day, to congratulate him upon his election, and to receive his thanks in return for their services. The telegraph gives a full report of the speech of the veteran politician on the occasion, for which, happily as it is, we cannot find space.

We daily love a joke, but Cameron's compliment to the Legislature was a little too much of a good thing. What virtuous people these members must have imagined themselves when Cameron informed them that this endorsement by them was the richest legacy he could give his children! How these sweet and hallowed words must have consoled them, with the biting and reproachful accents of Stevens still ringing in their ears. The buttons on Morrow B. Lowry's blue coat must have flashed, were they not so brazen. How the demure McCaughey must have rolled up the whites of his eyes when he heard the unusual flattery. There has been nothing like it since John Morrissey's affectionate address to his Fifth ward constituents.

THE INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE.

The Harrisburg Telegraph is parading to the world the announcement that the investigation Committee have failed to discover any evidence of fraud in the recent Senatorial election. What barefaced audacity? Does not every body know that the majority of Radicals in the Legislature, who were bought up by Simon Cameron, appointed a Committee for the express purpose of preventing any investigation? It was a Committee of Investigation got up to prevent an investigation. Of course they report that they do not find any evidence of bribery or corruption. That is just what they were appointed for. It was their business to whitewash Simon and himself. Any other kind of a report would not have been received. It will now be in order for some Democrat to move that "the Committee, having fully discharged the duty for which it was appointed, be honorably discharged." We call on Mr. Boyle of the House to do this. We have no doubt the Radicals will be gratified for such an act of courtesy.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

The Rump Congress having struck out of the appropriation bill the clause appropriating $50,000 for temporary clerks in the Treasury Department, the Secretary will be compelled to discharge fifty-five clerks by the 15th of February, although there is plenty of work for them. The clerks are principally disabled soldiers. The Secretary regrets being obliged to discharge them, especially during the winter, but the action of the Rump has made their discharge imperative. The Radicals are determined to curtail the patronage of the Administration, no matter how many wounded heroes shall thereby suffer. In the meantime almost every Radical Rumper has a son, a brother or a nephew in some congressional office, drawing large pay and doing nothing. Is this right—is it honorable—is it patriotic? No.

Thaddeus Stevens has been elected President of a Lancaster city fire company.—Commonwealth's Organ.

Very good. Having made so great a run for United States Senator, and being only seventy-five years old, why shouldn't he, like any other boys, "run wilder man" about the lower extremities, we venture to say the "Old Boy" couldn't be beat at a big race.

No impeachment can be tried here, a fragment of a United States Senator. Radicalism must understand this fact.

ON THE 21st INST.

On the 21st inst. eleven of the Pennsylvania Radical members of the Rump House, namely—Stevens, Kelley, Willinger, Bryson, Mercer, Miller, O'Sullivan, Thayer, Koons, Myers and Schofield, sent to the Rump Senate a signed remonstrance against the confirmation of the appointment of Hon. Edgar Cowan, as Minister to Austria. They say:

"We believe him to be unfit for the position by opinion and associations; that he would misrepresent those of his constituents in your own body, and that his appointment is totally repugnant to the wishes of the people of Pennsylvania."

What a petty, contemptible business is this for full grown men—members, too, of a once high and dignified body—to be guilty of! Oh, the times—the manners! But, the worst is to come. Says a special dispatch to the Philadelphia Intelligencer, Radical:

"In addition to these, T. Williams and C. V. Culver did not wish to sign the paper, but would vote against him if they were in the Senate."

C. V. CULVER—THE RADICAL WHO WAS LET OUT OF A PENITENTIARY JAIL.

C. V. Culver—the Radical who was let out of a Penitentiary jail (where he was held under a charge of felony) by the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Rump House and taken to Washington to increase the Radical disunion majority—assumes to say, for the People of Pennsylvania, that Edgar Cowan is unfit to be a Government representative, and that, as their representative, he would vote against him if he was in the Senate! The Radical party of Pennsylvania may esteem it an honor to be represented by this fellow, Culver, but the two hundred and ninety-one thousand Democrats—"unwashed" though they may be—deny his authority to speak for you to God! The Democracy deny Culver's right to speak for them, and consider that upon a question involving the character and standing of Edgar Cowan, jail-birds should, for decency's sake, hold their peace. So says the Patrol & Union, and we agree with it entirely.

DREAD RETRIBUTION.

During the war a Democratic editor in Dayton, Ohio, Bollmeyer, without any provocation, an Abolitionist, tried and acquitted the murderer. The whole trial was a disgraceful farce, and all who participated in it were guilty of official perjury. Some three years have elapsed, and the County Clerk, the Sheriff, and the infamous Judge, who outraged justice at the trial, is at large in a lunatic asylum! Jim Lane, while his hand was yet smoking with the blood of murdered victims, was elected to the office of U. S. Senator by a Puritan Legislature. For one of his murders he was tried and of course acquitted. He has fallen by his own hand. It is now believed by most of mankind, that Mrs. Surratt was guilty of participation in the murder of Mr. Lincoln. When she was under sentence of death, after a trial which will be considered a blot on our age, Mr. Brewster King prevented access to the President, and denied admission to her daughter, who almost shrieked and sobbed her life away on the steps of the Executive mansion. A few months afterwards, Preston King killed a remorseful conscience in his jail by self-murder.

A week or two ago, some unknown scoundrels went into the orchard of Jacob Hikes, Waynesboro', Pennsylvania, and cut down all his fruit trees—seventy in number—broke open his corn-crib and scattered the corn upon the public road. On a gate was written: "This is not the worst." About the same time, in the town of Flint, Michigan, an unknown man and woman met Mr. David Mitchell's daughter—a girl of eighteen years—on the street at night and forced her to swallow a dose of arsenic, from the effects of which it is stated she cannot recover. Also, about the same time, a spiritualist in New Hampshire was arrested and imprisoned for starving, imprisoning and otherwise torturing his daughter—a girl of fifteen years. For forty-eight hours the girl was gagged to prevent her from importuning her unnatural father for bread. Although the child is still suffering from debility and frolic bites in consequence of his cruelty, she daily sends him presents of oranges and other delicacies provided for her by the people. Add to this the other recorded fact that a Cleveland justice has just fined a man five dollars for cutting his wife's head open with a hatchet, and a score of other brutal outrages familiar to newspaper readers, and we have a state of society in the Northern States that sadly needs "reconstructing." There is no necessity for us to "fly off at a tangent" and institute congressional investigations in the matter of selling negroes for six months as a punishment for crime, nor to boast of a superior civilization and humanity over the "late slaveholders," whilst we overlook the barbarity and crime immediately at our Northern doors.

The States unrepresented in Congress are to be placed under martial law, and the writ of habeas corpus is to be suspended therein as long as they remain in that condition.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

So, so. But who is to do it? Certainly not what you call "Congress." President Lincoln did the suspending of the habeas corpus, and Congress sustained him as the officer to whom that authority was entrusted by the Constitution. President Lincoln, (or his subordinates, through him,) declared martial law, when and where he pleased, and Congress never questioned his exclusive constitutional right to do so, as Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy.

These precedents, (to say nothing of previous ones, or of constitutional law,) most assuredly give to President Johnson exclusive control over the habeas corpus and martial law. This being the case, we are safe in saying that it will be a "precious long while" before the Southern States become afflicted with these curses—especially as peace and order are as fully maintained there as in the Northern States.—Patrol & Union.

Gov. Swann was on Friday elected United States Senator from Maryland for six years from the 4th of March next. Of the ninety-eight members present in joint convention, sixty-six cast their votes for Gov. Swann.

N. P. Willis, the poet, died at his residence, Idlewild, N. Y., on last Sunday, aged exactly sixty years. Alexander's death, the young student, also died on the 21st inst., aged 85 years.

THE ERIC DISPATCH, THE ABOLITIONIST, AND THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The Eric Dispatch, the oldest Republican paper of the Northwestern section of the State, "goes off" as follows at Geary, Cameron, and the rest of the unwashed and unregenerated Radicals, who now have control of the State. By the way, that is therein said are not "copperhead lies." Read:

"The State is emphatically in the hands of the most despicable and degraded class of knaves that ever disgraced a Commonwealth and the time is not far distant when the names of Cameron and Geary will sound so much like Ben Wood, Valparaiso, and Raphael Semmes that we will not be able to justify calling them in different categories."

We do not know that we are giving too much prominence to Geary, as he is such an ignorant, and such a miserable apology for a man, such a complete loafer, who is allowed to sponge subsistence upon the State, that they are held from the indignities of a loafer. He alone is not able to gain distinction as a knave, or even as a loafer. The promises which he has already made and violated, the influence which he consented to exert in the State, and the manner in which he is detested by the people in the State who are known to be knaves, ought to be sufficient to keep him from being inaugurated as Governor of the State; but they will not, and he will be placed in the office of Chief Executive with howl of triumph, amidst a tournament of sin and corruption."

Our uninitiated readers may wonder why we have not before given our opinion upon this subject, if they are held from the indignities of a loafer. We have indicated them before, and have warned the people of the State in general and the Republican party in particular, that they were sold on John W. Geary; but we hoped that the management which had him in charge would be sufficiently prudent to cover up a portion of their nakedness, and manifest by subsequent events, that it was their desire to foster the principles of the Radical party. The game laws—We call the attention of those interested to the fact that the time for killing other pheasants, partridges or rabbits, has already expired. Attention is called to the change made in the game law last session—Act 114 April, 1866, P. L., p. 714.

Sec. 2. That no person shall shoot, kill or otherwise destroy any pheasant between the first day of January and the first day of September, or any woodcock between the first day of January and the first day of August, or any partridge or rabbit between the first day of January and the first day of October in each and every year, under a penalty of five dollars for each offence.

Section six was a re-enactment of section six of the act of 1858, with this amendment: That instead of imprisonment for two days, it shall be ten days, without bail.

A new law.—A law was passed by the last Legislature which may not be generally known. It provides that any person who shall receive or buy from minors, unknown or irresponsible parties, any scrap iron, brass, lead or metal, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment of not more than one year, or both or either. This makes it criminal to buy or receive from such parties, irrespective of whether it was stolen or not, and is intended to reprove from children the temptation to pilfer.

Diamond churn.—The best thing we ever saw in the shape of a Butter churn, was exhibited here last week, by Mr. Heiges, of York. It is called the "Diamond Churn," to indicate its superiority, we suppose, and it well deserves the distinction. We witnessed the operation of churning, and butter was made in the incredibly short space of one minute and a half—the butter very solid and of fine quality. It seems to us that the "Diamond" cannot fail to give satisfaction in every case.

Since writing the above, we learn that the exclusive right to make and sell this Churn in Adams county, has been purchased by Col. C. H. Bucher, of this place, Wm. Wible, of Straban, H. P. Bigham, of Green Mount, and Samuel Overholzer, of Hampton. It is their intention to get up a lot of churns immediately.

Balky horses.—We saw a man, the other day, beating a horse most severely, because, for some reason or other, the animal "wouldn't go." The circumstance suggested to us the publication of the following, from an exchange:

When a horse balks, get out, or off, and put a handful of gravel or dirt in his mouth, when he will immediately go ahead just as though nothing had happened.

Mr. Elisha Penrose, of Menallen, has a colt which weighed 720 pounds when seven months and nineteen days old. A remarkable weight for a colt of that age.

The Cross Opera House, in Chicago, was drawn by H. Lee, of Prairie Du Rocher, Illinois, on Monday. It is valued at $50,000.

BENEFIT OF ADVERTISING.—A gentleman yesterday advertised in our columns a dog lost. This morning the dog went home of his own accord. He thought it of no use to attempt to find away if the newspapers were after him.—Omaha Times.

Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, sends this advice to the public: "Never buy goods of those who do not advertise. They sell so little that they have to sell dear."

TOWN AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

Attention is directed to the sales of personal property advertised in this issue of the COMPILER. Any amount of live stock, farming implements, household furniture, &c., will be offered.

Meteor.—On Tuesday evening a very brilliant meteor passed over the country east of our borough. It appeared about half the size of a full moon, its course south-west, lighting the whole country for about five seconds as bright as day.

Snow on Hogs-pops.—Owners and occupants of buildings would do well to have the snow removed from the roofs thereof. From the present accumulation on the tops of houses there is great danger that the immense weight will crush the roofs, as has often been the case. In the event of a sudden thaw or rain the danger would be doubly imminent. By heeding this timely warning, property holders may avoid heavy damage to their buildings.

New Telegraph Office.—The Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company have permanently located an office in this place, in the store of Messrs. Dumphon & Holman, corner of Carlisle street and the Square. This line has direct connections with all towns and cities east and west, and will be a great accommodation to our business men.

The Game Laws.—We call the attention of those interested to the fact that the time for killing other pheasants, partridges or rabbits, has already expired. Attention is called to the change made in the game law last session—Act 114 April, 1866, P. L., p. 714.

COURT.—January Court was held last week, and adjourned an unusually large number of spectators. The sleighing was little, and country friends, having little to do, poured in from all sides, giving the town an appearance of extraordinary life. It is said that never before were there so many sleighs in Gettysburg at one time on Tuesday or Wednesday last. The following cases were disposed of in Court:

COMMON PLEAS.

David Young vs. Matilda Young.—Libel for divorce. Divorce decreed.

Peter J. Myers vs. Mary Myers.—Libel for divorce, on ground of desertion by wife. After a trial of three days, and the examination of numerous witnesses, verdict for respondent, Mary Myers.

Wm. Slonaker vs. George Lady.—Trespass vi et contra, and taking away a cow, property of plaintiff, by George Lady, constable, to satisfy an execution passed in his hands, Slonaker claiming the benefit of the exemption laws. Verdict, $75 damages for plaintiff. Motion for a new trial.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Commonwealth vs. Wesley Hart.—Larceny of a saddle from Daniel H. Markley. Defendant pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three months in the county jail, pay a fine of five dollars, and the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Jesse Rice.—Assault and battery on his wife, Maria Rice. Verdict, not guilty, on account of insanity at the time of committing the act. Ordered to State Insane Asylum.

Commonwealth vs. Andrew Stock.—Assault and battery on Hannah M. Sheals. Verdict, not guilty, and jury directed Hannah M. Sheals to pay one-fourth of the costs and Andrew Stock three-fourths.

Commonwealth vs. Lewis Pohl, Samuel Ekekeppie, Jeremiah Weigle and Wm. B. Tucker.—Slurphy of the peace, on oath of Henry R. Slaybaugh. Jeremiah Weigle discharged for insufficiency of proof, and the other three directed to pay the costs.

All the applications for license were granted except that of Randolph Johnson, (colored,) against which there was a remonstrance by the neighbors and others.

The Grand Jury was discharged on Wednesday, and Court adjourned on Saturday.

To Become a Lancasterian.—The Lancaster Intelligencer states that it is currently reported that Governor Curtin has purchased the residence of C. E. Darlington, Esq., on North Duke Street, in that city, and that he is about to become a resident of Lancaster. Perhaps he is expecting to step into Old Phil's shoes, when the latter "shuffles off this mortal coil."

In Tribulation.—The old line Radicals are in much tribulation over the appointments of General Geary, the new Governor. They have been made, no doubt, at the solicitation of General Cameron, and are in his interest. These are indications which way the new State administration leans.

A recent investigation before Judge Wright, at Alexandria, in regard to the confiscated property of a Mr. McVeigh, has developed the fact that Judge Uderwood, of the United States Circuit Court, is a shining light of Radical "grand moral ideas." Judge Wright, a member of the present Rump Congress, from Massachusetts, had entered into a "fraudulent combination" to secure said property for a trifling consideration. Not the least discreditable part of the matter is the fact that judgment of confiscation had been passed by Uderwood in his own court, and that he is now the owner and occupant of McVeigh's handsome residence. The evidence in regard to the manner in which these "loyal" scoundrels managed the matter to rob a despised "rebel" would daunt anything human except a Yankee.

Ashley, the Impencher, was born in Pennsylvania; but, fortunately for the State, he left at sweet fifteen, for the West, where he became, in turn, a pedler of cheap jewelry among the negroes along the Mississippi, a boot-maker, a seller of drugs, a newspaper publisher, &c. Having failed in all these, the graduation was easy to a seat in Congress from the Toledo (Ohio) district.

Hon. James H. Campbell, of Pottsville, who four years ago, represented the Schuylkill district in Congress, and since became Minister to St. Domingo, was last week nominated as Minister to Bogota by the President.

A race from Providence to Boston, forty-two miles in sleighs, for a purse of one thousand dollars, Tuesday afternoon, was won by the "Black Maria" in three hours and twenty-five minutes.

Special Notice Column.

To Owners of Horses. Thousands of Horses die yearly from Colic. This need not be. Dr. Tobias Venison has discovered a certain cure for this disease. Every owner of a horse should have a bottle of this stable remedy for use. It is warranted superior to anything else for the cure of Colic, Wind Chills, Swellings, Stomach Troubles, Strains, Bruises, &c. It is a certain cure for all these ailments. It has been used and approved of for 15 years by the best horsemen in the country. Given to an over-driven horse, it acts like magic.
